CHAP. IIII.

BUT in the a laſt dayes it ſhall come to paſs, that the b mountain of the houſe of the LORD ſhall be eſtabliſhed in the top of the mountains, and it ſhall be exalted above the hills, and people ſhall flow unto it.

2 And many nations ſhall come, and ſay, Come and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the houſe of the God of Jacob, and he will teach us of his wayes, and we will walk in his paths; for the law ſhall go forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jeruſalem.

3 ¶ And he ſhall judge among many people, and rebuke ſtrong nations c afar off, and they ſhall beat their ſwords into d plow-ſhares, and their ſpears into ‖ pruning-hooks: nation ſhall not lift up a ſword againſt nation, neither ſhall they learn war any more.

4 But they ſhall e ſit every man under his vine, and under his fig-tree, and none ſhall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hoſts hath ſpoken it.

5 For all people will walk every one f in the name of his god, and we will walk in the Name of the LORD our out God for ever and ever.

6 In that day, saith the LORD, g will I assemble her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted

7 And I will make her that b halted, a remnant, and her that was cast far off, a strong nation; and the LORD a shall reign over them in mount Zion, from henceforth even for ever.

8 ¶ And thou, b O tower of the flock, the c strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion, the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.

9 ¶ Now why doest thou d cry out aloud? is there no king in thee? is thy counseller perished? for pangs have taken thee, as a woman in travel.

10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travel: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon: there shalt thou be delivered: there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

11 ¶ Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her e be defiled, and let f our eye look upon Zion.

12 But they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they g his counsel: for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor.

13 h Arise, and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make i thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass, and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will k consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the LORD of the whole earth.

CHAP. V.

NOw gather thy self in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us: they shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.

2 But thou a Beth-lehem b Ephratah though ‖ thou be little among the c thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me, that is to be ruler in Israel: whose goings forth have been from of old, † from everlasting.

3 Therefore will he give them up, d until the time that she which travelleth, hath brought forth: then the remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of Israel.

4 ¶ And he shall stand and ‖ feed in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the Name of the LORD his God: and they shall abide: for now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth.

5 And this man shall be the peace, when the Assyrian shall come into our land: and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight † principal men,

6 And they shall † waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod ‖ in the entrances thereof: thus shall he deliver us from the Assyrian, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our border.

7 And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many people, a as a dew from the LORD, as the showers upon the grasse, b that tarrieth not for man, nor waiteth for the sons of men.

8 ¶ And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles, in the midst of many people, as c a lion among the beasts of the forrest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep, who if he go thorow both treadeth down, and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver.

9 Thine hand shall be lift up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.

10 d And it shall come to passe in that day, saith the LORD, that e I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots.

11 And f I will cut off the cities of thy land, and throw down all thy strong holds.

12 And I will cut off witchcrafts out of thine hand, and thou shalt have no more soothsayers

13 Thy graven images also will I cut off, and thy ‖ standing images out of the midst of thee, and thou shalt no more worship the work of thine hands.

14 And I will pluck up thy g groves out of the midst of thee: so will I destroy thy ‖ cities.

15 And I will execute vengeance in anger, and fury upon the heathen, such as they have not heard.

CHAP. VI.

HEar ye now what the LORD saith, a Arise, contend thou ‖ before the b mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.

2 Hear ye, O mountains, the LORDS c controversie, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the LORD hath a controversie with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

3 O my people, d what have I done unto thee, and wherein have I wearied thee? † testifie against me.

4 For I brought thee up out of the land of e Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants, and I sent before thee, Moses, Aaron and Miriam

5 O my people, remember now what f Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from g Shittim unto Gilgal, that ye may know the righteousnesse of the LORD.

6 Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow my self before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt-offerings, [with † calves of a yeer old?

7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oyl? shall I give my first-born for my transgression, the fruit of my † body for the sin of my soul?

8 He hath h shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to † walk humbly with thy God?

4 I will also stretch out mine hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and I will cut off the b remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the c Chemarims with the d priests;

5 e And them that worship the host of heaven upon the house tops: and them that f worship, and that swear ‖ by the LORD, and that swear by Malcham:

6 And them that are turned back from the LORD, & those that have not sought g LORD, nor enquired for him.

7 Hold thy peace at ‖ the presence of the Lord GOD: for the day of the LORD is at hand: for the LORD hath prepared a sacrifice; he hath † bid his guests.

8 And it shall come to passe in the day of the LORD'S sacrifice, that I will † punish the princes, and the kings children, and all such as are clothed with strange apparel.

9 In the same day also will I punish all those that leap on the threshold, which fill their masters houses with violence and deceit.

10 And it shall come to passe in that day, saith the LORD, that there shalbe the noise of a cry from the fish gate, & an howling from the second, and great crashing from the e hils.

11 * Howl ye inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the merchant people are cut down: all they that bear silver are cut off.

12 And it shall come to passe at that time, that I will b search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men that are † setled on their lees, that say in their heart, The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil.

13 Therefore their goods shall become a booty, and their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but c not inhabit them, and they shall plant vineyards, but not drink the wine thereof.

14 The great day of ‖ LORD is neer, it is neer and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.

15 That day is a day of d wrath, a day of trouble and distresse, a day of wastenesse and desolation, a day of darknesse and gloominesse, a day of clouds and thick darknesse,

16 A day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.

17 And I will bring distresse upon men, that they shall walk like blinde men, because they have sinned against the LORD, and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung.

18 e Neither their silver, nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the LORDS wrath: but the whole land shall be f devoured by the fire of his jealousie: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

12 ¶ Then the angel of the LORD answered, and said, O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem, and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation these *three*score and ten years?

13 And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me, with good words, and comfortable words.

14 So the angel that communed with me, said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I am ‡ jealous for Jerusalem, and for Zion, with a great jealousie.

15 g And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD, a I am turned to Jerusalem with mercy: my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem.

17 Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, My cities through prosperity shall yet be ‖ spread abroad, and the LORD shall b yet comfort Zion, and shall yet choose Jerusalem.

18 ¶ Then lift I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold c four horns.

19 And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What be these? And he answered me, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.

20 And the LORD shewed me four ‖ carpenters.

21 Then said I, what come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head, but these are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gentiles, which lift up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it.

CHAP. II.

I Lift up mine eyes again, and looked and behold a man with a a measuring line in his hand.

2 Then said I, whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, & what is the length thereof.

3 And behold the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him.

4 And said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls, for the multitude of men and cattell therein.

5 For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her a ‖ wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the midst of her.

6 ¶ Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the LORD, for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD.

7 Deliver thy self, O Zion, that dwellest with ‡ the daughter of Babylon.

8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that b toucheth you, toucheth the apple of his eye.

9 For behold, I will shake mine hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants, & ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.

10 ¶ c Sing and rejoyce, O daughter of Zion: for lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD.

11 And many nations shall be joyned to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

12 And the LORD a shall inherit Judah his portion in the holy land, and shall chuse Jerusalem again.

13 Be silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for he is raised up out of ‡ his holy habitation.

CHAP. III.

AND he shewed me Joshua the high ‖ priest, standing before the angel of the LORD, and ‡ Satan standing at his right hand ‡ to resist him.

2 And the LORD said unto Satan, a The LORD rebuke thee, O Satan, even the LORD, that hath b chosen Jerusalem, rebuke thee: Is not this a brand pluckt out of the fire.

3 Now Joshua was clothed with d filthy garments, and stood before the angel.

4 And he answered, and spake e unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, f I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee with change of raiment.

5 And I said, Let them set a fair mitre upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon her head, and clothed him with garments and the angel of the LORD stood by.

6 And the angel of the LORD protested unto Joshua, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, If thou wilt walk in my wayes, and if thou wilt keep my ‡ charge, then thou shalt also judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee ‡ places to walk among these that stand by.

8 Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are ‡ men wondred at, for behold, I will bring forth my servant the g BRANCH.

9 For behold, the stone that I have laid before Joshua: upon one stone shall be seven eyes, behold, b I will engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the iniquitie of that land in one day.

10 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall ye call every man his neighbour under the vine, and under the fig-tree.

AND it came to passe in the fourth yeer of king Darius, that the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, in the fourth day of the ninth moneth, even in Chisleu.

5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye a fasted and mourned in the fifth, and seventh moneth, even those seventy yeers, did ye at all fast unto me, even to me?

AGain, the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I was jealous for Zion, with great jealousie; and I was a jealous for her with great fury.

3 Thus saith the LORD, I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem, and Jerusalem shall be called a b city of truth, and the mountain of the LORD of hosts, the holy mountain.

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, There shall c yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with d his staff in his hand † for very age.

5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boyes and girls, playing in the streets thereof.

6 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, if it be marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these dayes, should it also be † marvellous in my eyes, saith the LORD of hosts?

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will save my people from the east countrey; and e from the † west countrey.

8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem, and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousnesse.

9 Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these dayes, these words by the mouth of the prophets, which were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

10 For before these dayes there was ‖ * hire for man, nor any hire for beast, neither was there any peace to him that went out, or came in, because of the affliction: for I set all men, every one against his neighbour.

12 For the seed shall be † prosperous, the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew: and I will cause the remnant of this people to possesse all these things.

13 And it shall come to passe that as ye were f a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel: so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing, fear not, but let your hands be strong.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts, As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, and I repented not:

15 So again have I thought in these dayes to do well unto Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah: fear ye not.

16 These are the things that ye shall do, * Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour: † execute the judgement of truth and peace in your gates,

6 And I will ſtrengthen the houſe of Judah, and I will ſave the houſe of Joſeph, and I will bring them again to place them: for I have mercy upon them: and they ſhall be as though I had not caſt them off: for I am the LORD their God, and will hear them.

7 And they of Ephraim ſhall be like a mighty man, and their heart ſhall rejoyce as through wine: yea, their children ſhall ſee it, and be glad, their heart ſhall rejoyce in the LORD.

8 c I will hiſſe for them and gather them, ‖ for I have redeemed them: and they ſhall increaſe as they have increaſed.

9 And I will ſow them among the people; and they ſhall remember me in far countreys, and they ſhall live with their children; and d turn again.

10 e I will bring them again alſo out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Aſſyria, and I will bring them into the land of Gilead, and Lebanon, and place ſhall f not be found for them.

11 And g he ſhall paſſe thorow the ſea with affliction, and ſhall ſmite the waves in the ſea, and all the deeps of the river ſhall dry up, and the pride of Aſſyria ſhall be brought down, and the ſcepter of Egypt ſhall depart away

CHAP. XI.

OPen thy doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour thy cedars.

2 Howl fir-tree, for the cedar is fallen, becauſe all the ‖ mighty are ſpoyled: howl, O ye oaks of Baſhan, for ‖ the forreſt of the vintage is come down.

3 ¶ There is a voyce of the howling a of the ſhepherds; for their glory is ſpoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions: for b the pride of Jordan is ſpoyled.

4 Thus ſaith the LORD my God, Feed the flock of the ſlaughter;

5 Whoſe poſſeſſours ſlay them, and c hold themſelves not guilty: and they that ſell them, ſay, a Bleſſed be the LORD, for I am rich: and their own ſhepherds pity them not.

6 For I will no more pitty the inhabitants of the land, ſaith the LORD: but lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbours hand, and into the hand of a his king, and they ſhall ſmite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.

7 And ‖ I will feed the flock of ſlaughter, even you, O ‖ poor of the flock: and I took unto me two ſtaves; the one I called beauty, and the other I called ‖ Bands, and I fed the flock.

8 Three ſhepherds alſo I cut off in one moneth, and my ſoul ỹ loathed them: and their ſoul alſo abhorred me.

9 Then ſaid I, I * will not feed you: that ỹ dieth let it die: & that ỹ is to be cut off, let it be cut off, & let the reſt eat, every one the fleſh of ỹ another.

10 And I took my ſtaffe, even my Beauty, and cut it aſunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all my people.

11 And it was broken in that day, and ſo ‖ the poor of the flock that waited upon me, knew that it was the word of the LORD.

12 And I ſaid unto them, ‖ if ye think good, give me my prices; and if not, forbear: ſo they * weighed for my price thirty pieces of ſilver.

13 And the LORD ſaid unto me, Caſt it unto the * potter, a goodly price, that I was prized at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of ſilver, and caſt them to the potter in the houſe of the LORD.

14 Then I cut aſunder mine other ſtaffe, even ‖ Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Iſrael.

15 ‖ And the LORD ſaid unto me, Take unto thee yet the inſtruments of a fooliſh ſhepherd.

16 For lo, I will raiſe up a ſhepherd in ỹ land, which ſhall not viſit thoſe that be ‖ cut off, neither ſhall ſeek the young one, nor heal that that is broken, nor ‖ feed that that ſtandeth ſtill: but he ſhall eat the fleſh of the fat, and tear their claws in pieces.

17 * Woe to the idol ſhepherd that leaveth the flock: the ſword ſhall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm ſhall be clean dried up, & his right eye ſhall be utterly darkned.

CHAP. XII.

THE burden of the word of the LORD for Iſrael, ſaith the LORD which ſtretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the ſpirit of the man within him.

2 Behold, I will make Jeruſalem a cup of ‖ trembling unto all the people round about, ‖ when they ſhall be in the ſiege, both againſt Judah, and againſt Jeruſalem.

3 ¶ And in that day will I make Jeruſalem a a burdenſome ſtone for all people. all that burden themſelves with it, ſhall be cut in pieces; though all the people of the earth be gathered together againſt it.

4 In that day, ſaith the LORD, b I will ſmite every horſe with aſtoniſhment, and his rider with madneſſe, and I will open mine eyes upon the houſe of Judah, and will ſmite every horſe of the people with blindneſſe.

5 And the governours of Judah ‖ ſhall ſay in their heart, ‖ The inhabitants of Jeruſalem ſhall be my ſtrength in the LORD of hoſts their God.

6 ¶ In that day will I make the c governours of Judah like a harth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a ſheaf; and they ſhall devour all the people round about, on the right hand, and on the left: and Jeruſalem ſhall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jeruſalem.

7 The LORD alſo ſhall ſave the d tents of Judah firſt, that the glory of the houſe of David, and the glory of the inhabitants of Jeruſalem do not magnifie themſelves againſt Judah.

8 In that day ſhall the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jeruſalem, and e he that is ‖ feeble among them ſhall be at that day ſhall be as David: and the houſe of David ſhall be as God, as the angel of the LORD before them.

9 ¶ And it ſhall come to paſſe in that day, that I will ſeek to deſtroy all the nations that come againſt Jeruſalem.

10 f And I will g pour upon ỹ houſe of David, and upon the inhabitants h of Jeruſalem ỹ b ſpirit of grace, & of ſupplications, and they ſhall i look upon me, whom they have pierced, and they ſhall k mourn for him as one mourneth l for his only ſon, and ſhall be in bitterneſſe for him, as one that is in bitterneſſe for his firſt-born.

11 In that day ſhall there be a great k mourning in Jeruſalem, as the m mourning of n Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon.

12 And the land ſhall mourn, ỹ every family apart, the family of the houſe of David apart, and their wives apart: the family of the houſe of Nathan apart, and their wives apart.

13 The family of the houſe of Levi apart, and their wives apart: the family of Shimei apart, and their wives apart.

14 All the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

clean a spirit to passe out of the land.

3 And it shall come to passe, that when any shall yet prophesie, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live: for thou speakest lies in the Name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that begat him, shall thrust him through when he prophesieth.

4 And it shall come to passe in that day, that ¶ prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision when he hath prophesied: neither shall they weare † a rough garment ‖ to deceive.

5 But he shall say, I am no prophet, I am an husbandman: for man taught me to keep cattel from my youth.

6 And one shall say unto him, What are these wounds in thine hands? then he shall answer; Those with which I b was wounded in the house of my friends.

7 ¶ Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that is * my fellow: saith the LORD of hosts: d smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered, and e I will turn mine hand upon the little ones.

8 And it shall come to passe, that in all the land, saith the LORD, ‖ two parts therein shall be cut off, and die: but the third part shall be left therein.

9 And g I will bring the third part through the fire, and will h refine them as silver is refined, and will trie them as gold is tried: they shall call on my Name, and I will hear them. I will say, It is my people, and they shall say, the LORD is my God.

CHAP. XIV.

BEhold, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoyle shall be divided in the midst of thee.

2 For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battel, and the a city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished, and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, b and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3 Then shall the LORD go forth and fight † against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battel.

4 ¶ And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst there ‖ toward the east, and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley, and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

5 And ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains; ‖ for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal: yea, ye shall flee like as ye fled from before the c earth-quake in the dayes of Uzziah king of Judah: and the LORD a my God shall come, and all the Saints with thee.

6 And it shall come to passe in that day, that the light shall not be † clear nor † dark.

7 But ‖ it shall be b one day, c which shall be known to the LORD, not day nor night: but it shall come to passe that at d evening time it shall be light.

8 ¶ And it shall be in that day, that living ‖ waters shall go out from Jerusalem: half of them toward the ‖ former sea, and half of them toward the hinder sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.

9 And the LORD shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and his Name one.

10 All the land shall be ‖ turned as a plain from Geba to Rimmon, south of Jerusalem; and it shall be lifted up and ‖ inhabited in her place: from Benjamins gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananeel unto the kings wine-presses.

11 And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be no more utter destruction: but Jerusalem ‖ shall be safely inhabited.

12 ¶ And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people, that have fought against Jerusalem: their flesh shall consume away, while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.

13 And it shall come to passe in that day, that a great tumult from ¶ the LORD shall be among them, and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbour.

14 And ‖ Judah also shall fight ‖ at Jerusalem, and the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel in great abundance.

15 And ‖ so shall be a the plague of the horse, of the mules, of the camel, and of the asse, and of all ¶ beasts that shall be in these tents, as this plague.

16 ¶ And it shall come to passe, that every one that is left of all the nations which came against Jerusalem, shall even go up from yeer to yeer to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and c to keep the feast of tabernacles.

17 And it shall be, that who ‖ so will not come up, of all the families of the earth unto Jerusalem, to worship the King the LORD of hosts, even upon them shall be no rain.

18 And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, that † have no rain: there shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite the heathen that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

19 This shall be the ‖ punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all nations that come not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.

20 ¶ In that day shall there be upon † the bels of the horses, HOLINESSE UNTO THE LORD, and the d pots in the LORDS house shall be like the bowls before the altar.

21 Yea, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be Holinesse unto the LORD of hosts, and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and seethe therein: and in that day there shall be no more the e Canaanite in the house of the LORD of hosts.

¶ MALACHI.

CHAP. I.

a Isaiah 13. 1. Zac. 9. 1. †Heb. by the hand of Malachi

THe a burden of the word of the LORD to Israel by † Malachi.

2 I have loved you, saith the LORD: yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? was not Esau Jacobs brother, saith the LORD? yet I b loved Jacob:

3 And I c hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste, for the dragons of the wildernesse.

4 Whereas Edom saith, d We are impoverished, but we will return, and build the desolate places: Thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down: and they shall call them, The border of wickednes, and the people against whom the LORD hath indignation, for ever.

5 And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, The LORD will be magnified ‖ from the border of Israel.

6 ¶ A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master: If then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, O priests that despise my Name; and ye say, Wherein have we despised thy Name?

7 ‖ Ye offer a polluted b bread upon mine altar, and ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? in that ye say c The table of the LORD is contemptible.

8 d And if ye offer the blinde † for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governour: will he be pleased with thee, or accept thy person, saith the LORD of hosts?

9 And now I pray you, beseech † God that he will be gracious unto us: this hath been † by your means: will he regard your person? saith the LORD of hosts?

10 Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought, I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I accept an e offering at your hand.

11 For from the rising of the sun, even unto the going down of the same, my Name shall be great among the a Gentiles, and in every place incense shall be offered unto my Name, and a pure offering: for my Name shall be great among the heathen saith the LORD of hosts.

12 ¶ But ye have profaned it, in that ye say, The table of the LORD is polluted: and the fruit thereof, even his meat is contemptible:

13 Ye said also, Behold, what a wearinesse is it, and ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts, and ye brought that which was torn and the lame, and the sick: thus ye brought an offering, should I accept this of your hand, saith the LORD?

14 But cursed be the deceiver, † which hath in his flock a male, and voweth: and sacrificeth unto the LORD a corrupt thing: for I am a great king, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen.

ANd now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you.

2 a If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my Name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.

3 Behold, I will ‖ corrupt your seed, and spread b dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts, and † one shall take you away with it.

11 ¶ Judah hath dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem: for Judah hath profaned the holinesse of the LORD which ‖ he loved, and hath married the daughter of a strange god.

12 The LORD will † cut off the man that doth this: the ‖ waker and the scholler out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.

13 And this have ye b done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand.

15 And did not he make one? yet had he the ‖ residue of the spirit: and wherefore one? that he might seek † a godly seed. therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal ‖ treacherously against the wife of his youth.

17 ¶ Ye have wearied the LORD with your words, yet ye ſay, wherein have we wearied him? when ye ſay, Every one that doth evil, is good in the ſight of the LORD, & he delighteth in them, or where is the God of judgement?

CHAP. III.

BEhold, I a will ſend b my meſſenger. & he ſhall c prepare the way before me: and the LORD, d whom ye ſeek, ſhall ſuddenly come e to his temple: even the f meſſenger of the covenant whom ye delight in, behold, he ſhall come ſaith the LORD of hoſts.

2 But g who may abide the day of his coming? and who ſhall ſtand when he appeareth? for he is like a refiners fire, and like fullers ſope.

3 And he ſhall ſit as a refiner and puniſher of ſilver: and he ſhall purifie the h ſons of Levi, and purge them as gold and ſilver, that they may offer unto the LORD an offering i in righteouſneſſe.

4 k Then ſhall the offerings of Judah, and Jeruſalem be pleaſant unto the LORD, as in the dayes of old, and as in ‖ former yeers.

5 And I will l come neer to you to judgement, and I will be a ſwift witneſſe againſt the ſorcerers, and againſt the adulterers, and againſt falſe ſwearers, and againſt thoſe that ‖ oppreſſe the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherleſſe, and that turn aſide the ſtranger from his right, and fear not me, ſaith the LORD of hoſts.

6 m For I am the LORD, I change not, therefore ye ſons of Jacob are not conſumed.

7 Even from the dayes of your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them; n return unto me, and I will return unto you ſaith the LORD of hoſts: But ye ſaid, Wherein ſhall we return?

9 Ye are curſed with a curſe: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.

10 Bring ye all the tithes into the q ſtore-houſe, that there may be meat in mine houſe, and prove me now herewith ſaith the LORD of hoſts: r if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and ſ pour you out a bleſſing, that there ſhall not be room enough to receive it.

11 And I will rebuke the devourer for your ſakes: and he ſhall not † deſtroy the fruits of your ground, neither ſhall your vine caſt her fruit before the time in the field, ſaith the LORD of hoſts.

13 ¶ Your words have been t ſtout againſt me, ſaith the LORD: yet ye ſay, What have we ſpoken ſo much againſt thee?

14 Ye have ſaid, u it is vain to ſerve God: and what profit is it that we have kept † his ordinance, and that we have walked † mournfully before the LORD of hoſts?

15 And now we call the proud happy: yea, they that work wickedneſſe are ſet up: yea, they that † tempt God are even delivered.

16 ¶ Then they that feared the LORD, ſpake often one to another, and the LORD hearkned, and heard it; and x a book of remembrance was written before him, for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his Name.

17 a And they ſhall be mine ſaith the LORD of hoſts, in that day when I make up my ‖ jewels, and b I will ſpare them as a man ſpareth his own ſon that ſerveth him.

S. MATTHEW.

CHAP. I.

*Or, kinred Luk. 3. 23.

THE book of the ‖ generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

2 a Abraham begat Isaac, and b Isaac begat Jacob, and c Jacob begat Judes and his brethren.

3 And d Judas begat Pharez and Zara of e Thamar, and f Pharez begat Esrom, and Esrom, begat Aram,

4 And Aram begat Aminadab, and Aminadab begat * Naasson, and Naasson begat Salmon.

5 And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab, and Booz begat Obed of Ruth, and Obed begat Jesse,

6 g And Jesse begat David the king, and b David the king begat Solomon, of her that had been the wife of Uriah,

7 And i Solomon begat Roboam, and Roboam begat Abia, and Abia begat Asa,

8 And Asa begat Josaphat, and Josaphat begat Joram, and Joram begat Ozias,

9 And Ozias begat Joatham, and Joatham begat Achas, and Achas begat Ezekias,

10 And k Ezekias begat Manasses, and Manasses begat Amon, and Amon begat Josias, 11 And ‖ Josias begat Jechonias, and his brethern about the time they were carried away to Babylon.

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, l Jechonias begat Salathiel, and Salathiel begat Zorobabel,

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud, and Abiud begat Eliakim, and Eliakim begat Azor,

14 And Azor begat Sadoc, and Sadoc begat Achim, and Achim begat Eliud,

15 And Eliud begat Eleazar, and Eleazar begat Matthan, and Matthan begat Jacob,

16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations: and from David until the carrying away into Babylon, are fourteen generations: and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ, are fourteen generations.

18 Now the a birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: when as his mother Mary was b espoused to Joseph (before they came together) she was †found with childe c of the holy ghost.

19 Then Joseph d her husband being a just man, and not willing to make her a publike example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he †thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her, is of the holy Ghost.

21 And she shall e bring forth a Son and thou shalt call his name Jesus: for he shall † save his people from their sins.

22 (Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 f Behold, a virgin shal, be with childe, and shall bring forth a Son, and ‖ they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is God with us)

24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her first born Son; and he called his name Jesus.

CHAP II

NOw when a Jesus was born in ‖ Bethlehem of Judea, in the dayes of Herod the king, behold there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, where is ‖ he that is born king of the Jews? for we have seen his ‖ starre in the east, and are come to worship him.

3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and a all Jerusalem with him.

4 And when he had gathered all the b chief priests and c scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bethleem of Judea: for thus it is written by the prophet,

7 Then Herod when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go, and search diligently for the young childe, and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed: and lo, the star which they saw in the east, f went before them, till it came and stood over where the young childe was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoyced with exceeding g great joy.

11 ¶ And when they were come into the house, they saw the young childe with Mary his mother, and h fell down and worshipped him, and when they had opened their treasures, they ‖ presented unto him gifts, i gold and frankincense and myrrhe.

12 And being k warned of God in a dream, that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country, another way.

13 And when they were departed, behold the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young childe and his mother, and flee into l Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young childe, to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he took the young childe and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt.

15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, m Out of Egypt have I called my Son.

16 ¶ Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two yeers old, and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by n Jeremy the prophet, saying,

18 o In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 ¶ But when Herod was dead, behold an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, 20 Saying, Arise, and take the young childe, and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for a they are dead b which sought the young childes life.

21 And he arose, and took the young childe and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judea in the room of his father Herod, c he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being d warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee.

23 And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the e prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

CHAP. III.

IN a those dayes b came John the baptist, c preaching in the d wilderneſſe of Judea,

2 And saying, repent ye, for the e kingdom of heaven is at hand.

3 For this is he that was spoken of e by the prophet Esaias, saying, f The voice of one crying in the wilderneſſe g prepare ye the way of the Lord, h make his paths straight.

4 And the same John had his raiment of camels hair, and i a leathern girdle, k about his loins, and his meat was l locusts and m wilde honey.

5 Then went out to him Jerusalem, and all Judea, and all the region round about Jordan,

6 And were baptized of him in Jordan, n confessing their sins.

7 ¶ But when he saw many of the and Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptisme, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance.

9 And think not to say within your selves, we have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these p stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

10 And now also the ax is laid unto the roots of the trees: q Therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewen down and cast into the fire.

11 r I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me, is mightier then I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the holy Ghost, and with fire.

12 Whose s fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into his garner: but will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

13 ¶ Then cometh Jesus from Galilee unto Jordan, unto John, to be baptized of him.

14 But John forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

15 And Jesus answering, said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousneſſe. Then he suffered him.

16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straight-way out of the water: and lo, the heavens a were opened b unto him, and he saw the spirit of God descending c like a dove, and lighting c upon him.

17 And lo, a voice, from heaven saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

CHAP. IV.

THen a was Jesus led b up the spirit into the c wilderneſſe, to be d tempted of the devil.

5 ¶ And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to d pray standing in the Synagogues, and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men: verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

6 But thou when thou prayest, enter into thy ‖ closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret, and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

7 But when ye pray, use not ‖ vain repetitions as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: For your Father knoweth what things ye have need of before ye ask him.

9 f After this manner therefore pray ye: Our father which g art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.

10 Thy kingdom come, h Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day our daily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debters.

9 For I am a man under authority, having souldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth: and to another, Come, and he cometh: and to my servant, Do this, and he doth it.

AND he entred into a ship, and passed over, and came into his own city.

2 b And behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsie, lying on a bed; and Jesus c seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsie, Son d be of good cheer, thy sins be forgiven thee.

3 And behold, certain of the scribes said e within themselves, This man blasphemeth.

4 And Jesus † knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts?

5 For whether is easier to say, thy sins be forgiven thee, or to say, arise and walk?

6 But that ye may know that the son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (Then saith he to the sick of the palsie) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 But when ‖ multitude saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, which had given such power unto men.

9 ¶ f And as Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man named Matthew, sitting at the receit of custom, and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and g followed him

10 And it came to pass, as Jesus sate at meat h in the house, behold, many Publicanes and sinners came, and sate down with him, and his disciples.

11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your master with Publicanes and sinners?

12 But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

13 But go ye, and learn what that meaneth: i I will have mercy, and k not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, l but sinners m to repentance.

14 ¶ Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, n Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bride-chamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the daves will come when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.

16 No man putteth a piece of ‖ new cloth unto an old garment: for that which is put in to fill it up, taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

17 o Neither do men put new wine into old bottles, else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved.

18 p While he spake these things unto them, behold there came a certain ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come, and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

19 And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 (And behold, a woman which was diseased with an issue of blood twelve yeers, b came behinde him and touched the c hem of his garment.

21 For she said within her self, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

22 But Jesus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter be of good comfort, thy faith hath made thee whole: And the woman was made whole from that hour

23 And when Jesus came into the rulers house and saw the d minstrels, and the people making a noise,

24 He said unto them, Give place, for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn.

25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and e took her by the hand, and the maid arose.

26 And ‖ the fame hereof went abroad into all the land.

27 And when Jesus departed thence, two blinde men followed him, crying, and saying, f Thou son of David, have mercy on us.

28 And when he was come into the house, the blinde men came to him: And Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord.

29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, g According to your faith be it unto you.

30 And their h eyes were opened, and Jesus straitly charged them, saying, See that no man know it.

31 But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country.

32 i As they went out, behold they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a devil.

33 And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake, and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel.

34 But the Pharisees said, k He casteth out the devils through the prince of the devils.

35 l And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness, and every disease among the people.

36 m But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they ‖ fainted, and were scattered abroad n as sheep having no shepherd.

37 Then saith he unto his disciples, o The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few.

19 t But when they deliver you up, take no thought, how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.
20 For it is not ye that speak, but the spirit of your Father which speaketh in you.
21 u And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the childe: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.

began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? a reed shaken with the winde?

8 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings houses.

9 But what went ye out for to see, A prophet? yea I say unto you, and more then a prophet.

10 For this is he of whom it is written, g Behold, I send b my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, Among them † that are born of women, there hath not risen a greater then John the Baptist: notwithstanding, he that is least in the kingdom of heaven, is greater then he.

12 i And from the dayes of John the baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven ‖ suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

13 For all the prophets, and the law prophesied until John.

14 And if ye will receive it, this is k Elias which was for to come.

15 He that hath eares to hear, let him hear.

16 l But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows,

17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, He hath a devil.

19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a wine bibber, a friend of publicanes and sinners: but a wisdom is justified of her children.

20 ¶ b Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they repented not.

21 Wo unto thee Chorazin, wo unto thee Bethsaida: for if the mighty works which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, c in sackcloth and ashes.

22 But I say unto you, It shall be d more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, then for you.

23 And thou Capernaum; which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

24 But I say unto you, f it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgement, then for thee.

25 ¶ e At that time Jesus answered and said, I † thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes.

26 Even so, Father, for so it f seemed good in thy sight.

27 ¶ g All things are delivered unto me of my Father, and no man knoweth the Son but the Father: b neither knoweth any man the Father save the Son, i and he to whom soever the Son will reveal him ‖

28 ¶ k Come unto me all ye that labour, and are heavy laden, and I will give you l rest.

29 Take m my yoke upon you, and learn of me: for I am meek, and lowly in heart: n and ye shall finde rest unto your souls.

30 For my yoke is easie, and my burden o is light.

CHAP. XII.

AT that time a Jesus went on the sabbath day thorow the corn, and his disciples were an hungred, and b began to pluck the eares of corn, and to eat.

2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples c do that which is not lawful to do upon the sabbath day.

3 But he said unto them, Have ye not read, what d David did when he was an hungred, and they that were with him,

4 How he entred into the house of God, and did eat the e shew bread which was not lawfull for him to eat, neither for them which were with him, a but only for the priests.

5 Or have ye not read in the b law, how that on the sabbath dayes the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are blamelesse?

6 But I say unto you, that in this place is one greater then the temple.

7 But if ye had known what this meaneth, c I will have mercy and not sacrifice, ye would not have condemned the guiltlesse.

8 For the Son of man is Lord even of the sabbath-day.

9 d And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue.

10 ¶ And behold, there was a man which had his hand withered, e and they asked him, saying, Is it lawfull to heal on the sabbath-dayes? that they might accuse him

11 And he said unto them, what man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath-day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift it out?

12 How much then is a man f better then a sheep? Wherefore it is lawfull to do well on the sabbath daies.

13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand: and he stretched it forth and it was restored whole, like as the other.

14 ¶ Then the Pharisees went out and held a counsel against him, how ‖Or, they might destroy him. took

15 But when Jesus knew it, g he withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all. counsel

CHAP. XV

Then a came to Jesus scribes and Pharisees which were of Jerusalem, saying,

2 Why do thy disciples transgresse the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.

3 But he answered, and said unto them, Why do you also transgresse the commandment of God ‖ by your tradition?

4 For God commanded, saying, b Honour thy father and mother: and c he that curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

5 But ye say, whosoever shall say to his father his mother, d It is a gift by whatsoever thou mightest be profited ‖ by me.

6 And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free, Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition.

7 Ye hypocrites, Well did Esaias prophesie of you, saying,

8 e This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips: but their heart is far from me.

9 But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines, the commandments of men.

10 ¶ f And he called the multitude, and said unto them. Hear, and understand.

11 Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man: b but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his disciples, and said unto him, g Knowest thou that the Pharisees were h offended ‖ after they heard this saying?

13 But he answered, and said, i Every plant which my heavenly Father hath not planted shall be rooted up.

14 k Let them alone; l they be blind leaders of the blinde. And if the blinde lead the blinde, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 m Then answered Peter, and said to him, Declare unto us this parable.

16 And Jesus said, Are ye also yet without understanding.

17 Do not yet understand, that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth, goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But those things which proceed out of the mouth, come forth from the heart, and they defile the man.

19 a For out of the heart proceed ‖ evil thoughts, murders, adulteries fornications, thefts, false witnesse, blasphemies.

20 These are the things which defile a man. But to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

21 ¶ c Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tyre, and Sidon.

22 And behold, d a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cryed unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou Son of David, my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.

23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came, and besought him, saying, Send her away, for she crieth e after us.

24 But he answered, and said, f I am not sent but to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

25 Then came she, and worshipped him, saying, Lord help me.

26 But he answered, and said, It is not meet to take the childrens bread, and to cast it to dogs.

27 And she said, Truth Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters table.

28 Then Jesus answered, and said, unto her, O woman great is thy faith: be it unto thee ‖ even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

29 b And Jesus departed from thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Galilee, and went up into a mountain and sat down there.

30 i And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blinde, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus feet, and he healed them.

31 Insomuch that the multitude wondred, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blinde to see: and they k glorified the God of Israel.

32 ¶ l Then Jesus called his disciples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three dayes, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they ‖ faint in the way.

33 And his disciples say unto him, whence should we have so much bread m in the wildernesse, as to fill so great a multitud.?

34 And Jesus saith unto them, How many loves have ye? And they said, seven, and a few little fishes.

35 And he commanded the multitude ‖ to sit down on the ground.

36 And he took the seven loaves, and the fishes, and gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

37 And they did all eat, and were filled, and they took up of the broken meat that was left, seven baskets ful.

38 And they that did eat were four thousand men, besides women and children.

39 And he sent away the multitude, and a took ship, and came into the coasts of Magdala.

CHAP. XVII.

AND a after six dayes Iesus taketh Peter, Iames, and Iohn his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart.

2 And was b transfigured before them, and his face did shine as the c Sun, and his raiment was white as the light.

3 And behold, there appeared unto them Moses, and Elias * talking with him.

4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Iesus, Lord it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles: one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias.

5 d While he yet spake, behold, a e bright cloud overshadowed them: & behold, a voice out of the cloud, which said, f This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased: hear ye him.

6 And when the disciples heard it, they g fell on their faces, and were sore afraid.

7 And Iesus came, & touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

8 And when they had lift up their eyes they saw no man, save Iesus only.

9 And as they came down from the mountain Iesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, a Why then say the scribes that Elias must first come?

11 And Iesus answered and said unto them, Elias truly shall first come, and restore all things.

12 But I say unto you, that Elias b is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed: Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.

13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of Iohn the Baptist.

14 ¶ c And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man kneeling down to him, and saying,

15 Lord have mercy on my son, for he is lunatick, and sore vexed: for oft times he falleth d into the fire, and oft into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

17 Then Iesus answered and said, O faithlesse and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? and long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

18 And

18 And Jesus rebuked the devil, and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour.
19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?
20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, e If ye have faith, as f a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this g mountain, Remove hence to yonder place, & it shall remove: and nothing shall be impossible unto you.
21 Howbeit, this kinde goeth not out, but by prayer and fasting.
22 ¶ h And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall be i betrayed into the hands of men:
23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry.
24 And when they were come to Capernaum, they that received k tribute money came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute?
25 He saith, Yea. And when he was come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? Of whom do the kings of the earth take custome or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers?
26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free.
27 Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish, that first cometh up: and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt finde a piece of money, that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 AT a the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, b Who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven.
2 And Jesus called a little child unto him, & set him in the midst of them.
3 And said, Verily I say unto you, b Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.
4 Whosoever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.
5 And whoso shall receive c one such little childe in my Name, receiveth me.
6 d But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.
7 e Wo unto the world, because of offences. for it must needs be that offences come: but wo to that man by whom the offence cometh.
8 g Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee. it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather then having two hands or two feet, to be cast into everlasting fire.
9 And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee. it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather then having two eyes, to be cast into hell fire.
10 ¶ Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven b their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.
11 i For the Son of man is come to k save that which was lost.
12 l How think ye? If a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine and goeth into the mountains and seeketh that which is gone astray?
13 And if so be that he finde it, verily I say unto you, he n rejoyceth more of that sheep, then of the ninety and nine which went not astray.
14 Even so, it is not the will of your father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.
15 Moreover, o if thy brother shall trespasse against thee, go, and tell him his fault between thee, and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.
16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in p the mouth of two or three witnesses, every word may be established.
17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church, but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an q heathen man and as Publicane.
18 Verily I say unto you, whatsoever ye shall bind on earth, shall be bound in heaven, & whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.
19 Again I say unto you, that if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven.
20 For where two or three are gathered together in my Name, there am I b in the midst of them.
21 ¶ Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me and I forgive him? o till seven times?
22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times; but until s seventy times seven.
23 Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened to a certain king, which would take account of his servants.
24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, which ought him ten thousand ¶ talents.
25 But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him e to be sold, and his wife, and children and all that he had, and payment ¶ to be made.
26 The servant therefore fell down and ¶ worshipped him, saying, lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.
27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.
28 But the same servant went out and found one of his fellow servants which owed him an hundred ¶ pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.
29 And his fellow-servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

7 They say unto him, h What did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, & to † put her away.

8 He saith unto them, Moses, because of the i hardnes of your heart k suffered you to put away your wives; but from the beginning it was not so.

9 l And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another committeth adultery; and who so marrieth her which is put away, doth commit adultery.

10 His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.

11 But he said unto them, All men cannot receive this saying save they to whom it is given.

12 For there are some ‖ eunuches, which were so born from their mothers womb, and there are some eunuches, which were made eunuchs of men: & there be eunuchs which have made themselves eunuchs for † kingdom of heaven sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 m Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray, and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jesus said, Suffer little children, & forbid them not to come to me for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 n And behold one came and said unto him, Good master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternall life?

17 And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good o but one, that is God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

18 He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, p Thou shalt do no murder; Thou shalt not commit adultery; Thou shalt not steal: Thou shalt not bear false witnesse, 19 Honour thy father and thy mother, and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self.

20 The young man saith unto him, q All these things have I kept from my youth up; I what lack I yet?

21 Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and r follow me.

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowfull: for he had great possessions.

23 ¶ Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, that s a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

24 Again I say unto you, † It is easier for a camel to go thorow the eye of a needle, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, who then can be saved?

26 But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is unpossible, but with God all things are possible.

27 ¶ t Then answered Peter, and said unto him, behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee, what shall we have therefore?

28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, that ye which have followed me in the u regeneration, when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, * ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

29 And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children or lands, x for my Names sake, shall receive y an hundred fold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

CHAP. XX

FOr the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an housholder, which went out † early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard:

2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a ‖ peny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the a market-place,

4 And said unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right, I will give you. And they went their way.

5 Again, he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, why stand ye here all the day idle?

7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

8 So when even was come, the Lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a peny.

10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more, and they likewise received every man a peny:

11 And when they had received it, they murmured against the good man of the house,

12 Saying, These last ‖ have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us which have born the burden, and heat of the day.

13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee a no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a peny?

14 b Take that thine is, and go thy way, I will give unto this last, even as unto thee.

15 Is it not lawfull for me to do what I will with mine own? c is thine eye evill, because I am good?

16 d So the last shalbe first, & the first last: for many be called, but few chosen.

17 ¶ e And Jesus going up to Jerusalem, took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them,

18 Behold we go up f to Jerusalem, and the Son of man shall be g betrayed unto h the chief priests, and unto the scribes, and they shall i condemn him to death:

19 And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucifie him: and the third day he shall k rise again.

20 ¶ k Then came to him the mother of Zebedees children with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him.

21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that l these my two sons may sit the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left in thy kingdom.

22 But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of m the cup that I shall drink of? and to be baptized with the n baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able.

23 And he saith unto them, o Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptisme that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them, for whom it is prepared of my Father.

24 And when the ten heard it, they were moved with indignation against the two brethren.

25 But Jesus called them unto him and said, q Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them.

26 But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your minister;

27 And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant.

28 Even as the r Son of man came not to be ministred unto, but to minister, and to give his life s a ransom t for many.

29 ¶ And as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him.

30 ¶ And behold, two blinde men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cryed out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David.

31 And the multitude a rebuked them, because they should hold their peace: but they cryed b the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou c Son of David.

32 And Jesus d stood still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I shall do unto you?

33 They say unto him, Lord, e that our eyes may be opened.

34 So Jesus had compassion on them, and f touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

CHAP. XXI.

AND a when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto the b mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples,

2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall finde an asse tied, and a colt with her: loose them, and bring them unto me.

3 And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them, and straightway he will send them.

4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying,

5 c Tell ye the d daughter of Zion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an asse, and a colt the e foal of an asse.

6 e And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,

7 And brought the asse, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and they f set him thereon.

8 And a very great multitude spread their garments in the way, others cut down branches from the trees, and strewed them in the way.

9 And the multitudes that went before, and that followed g cryed, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord, Hosanna in the highest.

10 h And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?

11 And the multitude said, This is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of Galilee.

12 ¶ And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all them that sold, and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold i doves,

13 And said unto them, It is written, k My house shall be called the house of prayer, l but ye have made it m a den of theeves.

14 And the blinde, and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them.

15 And when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderfull things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the Son of David, they were sore displeased.

16 And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea, a have ye never read, b Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise.

17 ¶ And he left them, and went out of the city into c Bethany, and he lodged there.

18 Now in the morning as he returned into the city d he hungred,

19 e And when he saw a fig-tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon but leaves only: and said unto it, f let no fruit grow on thee hence forward for ever. And ‖ presently the fig-tree withered away.

20 And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig-tree withered away!

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, g If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig-tree, but also, if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea, it shall be done.

22 h And all things whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

23 ¶ i And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests, and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, † By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority?

24 And Jesus answered and said unto them, k I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in likewise will tell you † by what authority I do these things.

25 The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven, he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him?

26 But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people, s for all hold John as a prophet.

27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

28 ¶ But what think you? A certain man had p two sons: and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work today in my vineyard.

29 He answered, and said, I will not, but afterward he repented, and went.

30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered, and said, I go, sir, and went not.

31 Whether of them twain did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that the Publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.

32 For q John came unto you in the r way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the Publicans and the harlots believed him. And ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

33 ¶ Hear another parable: There was a certain householder, s which planted a vineyard, and b hedged it round about, and digged a wine-press in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it.

35 And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again he sent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.

37 But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.

38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, c This is the heir, come let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

39 And they caught him, and d cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40 When the Lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?

41 They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

42 Jesus saith unto them, e Did ye never read in the Scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become f the head of the corner: This is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes.

43 Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth g the fruits thereof.

44 And h whosoever shall fall on this stone, shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will ‖ grinde him to powder.

45 And when the chief priests, and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them.

46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet.

CHAP. XXII.

AND Jesus answered, a and spake unto them again by parables, and said,

2 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son,

3 b And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding, and they would not come.

4 c Again he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner, my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

6 And the remnant took his servants, and intreated them spitefully, and slew them.

7 But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth, and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burnt up their city.

8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden, were a not worthy.

waies, and as many as ye c shall finde, bid to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the high waies, and gathered together all as many as they found, both d bad and good, and the wedding was furnished with guests.

13 Then said the king to the servants, f Binde him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outter darknes, there shall be weeping, and gnashing of teeth

14 For many are called, but few are chosen.

15 g Then went the Pharisees, and took counsell, how they might entangle him in his talk.

16 And they sent out unto him their disciples, with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man, for thou regardest not the person of men.

17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou: Is it lawfull to give tribute unto Cesar, or not?

18 But Jesus perceived their wickednesse and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?

19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a ‖ peny.

20 And he saith unto them, whose is this image and ‖ superscription.

21 They say unto him, Cesars. Then saith he unto them, h Render therefore unto Cesar, the things which are Cesars: and unto God, the things that are Gods.

22 When they had heard these words, they marvelled, and left him and went their way.

23 ¶ The same day came to him the Sadducees, k which say that there is no resurrection and asked him,

24 Saying, Master, l Moses said, if a man die having no children, ‖ his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

25 Now there were with us seven brethren, and the first, when he had maried a wife, deceased: and having no issue, left his wife unto his brother,

26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven for they all had her.

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do erre not knowing the Scriptures, n nor the power of God.

30 For in the resurrection, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.

31 But as touching the resurrection of ‖ dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by God, saying,

32 o I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at his doctrine.

34 ¶ c But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together.

35 Then one of them which was a lawyer, asked him a question d tempting him and saying,

36 Master, which is the greatest e commandment in the law?

37 Jesus saith unto him, f Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy minde.

38 This is the first and great commandment.

39 And the second is like unto it, g Thou shalt love h thy neighbour as thy self.

40 On these two commandments ‖ hange all the law and the prophets.

41 ¶ While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them,

42 Saying, what think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of David

43 He saith unto them, How then doth David in spirit call him Lord, saying,

44 The Lord said unto my Lord, k Sit thou on my right hand, l till I make thine enemies thy foot-stool:

45 If David then call him Lord, how is he his son?

14 Wo unto you ſcribes and Phariſees, hypocrites: for ye devour widows houſes, and for a preſence make long prayer: therefore ye ſhall receive the greater damnation.

15 ‖ Wo unto you ſcribes and Phariſees, hypocrites: for ye compaſſe ſea and † land to make one proſelyte, and when he is made, ye make him two fold more the childe of hell than your ſelves.

16 Wo unto you ye blinde guides, which ſay, whoſoever ſhall ſwear by the temple, it is nothing: but whoſoever ſhall ſwear by the gold of the temple, he is a debter.

17 Ye fools and blinde: for whether is greater the gold, or the temple that ſanctifieth the gold?

18 And whoſoever ſhall ſwear by the altar, it is nothing: but whoſoever ſweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is ‖ guilty.

19 Ye fools and blinde: for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that ſanctifieth the gift?

20 Whoſo therefore ſhall ſwear by the altar: ſweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

21 And whoſo ſhall ſwear by the temple, ſweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein:

22 And he that ſhall ſwear by heaven, ſweareth by the throne of God, and by him that ſitteth thereon.

23 Wo unto you ſcribes and Phariſees hypocrites; for ye pay tithe of mint, and anniſe, and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgement, mercy, and faith: theſe ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

24 Ye blinde guides, which ſtrain at a gnat, and ſwallow a camel.

25 Wo unto you, ſcribes and Phariſees, hypocrites; for ye make clean the outſide of the cup, and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and ‖ exceſſe.

26 Thou blinde Phariſee, cleanſe firſt that which is within the cup and platter, that the outſide of them may be clean alſo.

27 Wo unto you ſcribes and Phariſees, hypocrites: for ye are like unto whited ſepulchres, which indeed appear beautifull outward, but are within full of dead mens bones, and of all uncleanneſſe.

28 Even ſo, ye alſo outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocriſie and iniquity.

29 Wo unto you ſcribes and Phariſees, hypocrites: becauſe ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garniſh the ſepulchres of the righteous.

30 And ſay, If we had been in the dayes of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

31 Wherefore ye be witneſſes ‖ unto your ſelves, that ye are the children of them which killed the prophets.

32 c Fill ye up then the a meaſure b of your fathers.

33 Ye ſerpents, ye f generation of vipers, how can ye eſcape the g damnation of hell?

34 ¶ Wherefore behold, I ſend unto you prophets, and wiſe men, and ſcribes: and ſome of them ye ſhall kil and crucifie, and ſome of them ſhall ye ſcourge in your b ſynagogues, and perſecute them from city to city:

35 That upon you may come i all the righteous blood ſhed upon the earth, k from the blood of righteous Abel, unto the blood of l Zacharias, ſon of Barachias, whom m ye ſlew between the temple and the altar.

36 Verily I ſay unto you, All theſe things ſhall come upon this generation.

37 n O Jeruſalem, Jeruſalem, thou that o killeſt the prophets, p and ſtoneſt them which are ſent unto thee, how often would I have gathered q thy children r together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, and ſ ye would not.

38 Behold, your houſe is left unto you deſolate.

39 For I ſay unto you, Ye ſhall not ſee me henceforth, till ye ſhall ſay, Bleſſed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

AND a Jeſus went out and departed from the temple: and his diſciples came to him, for to ſhew him the buildings of the temple.

2 And Jeſus ſaid unto them, See ye not all theſe things? Verily I ſay unto you, b There ſhall not be left here one * ſtone upon another, that ſhall not be thrown down.

3 ¶ And as he ſate upon the mount of Olives, c the diſciples came unto him privately, ſaying, Tell us when ſhall theſe things be? and what ſhall be the ſigne of thy coming, and of the end of the world?

4 And Jeſus anſwered and ſaid unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.

5 For many ſhall come d in my name, ſaying, I am Chriſt: and ſhall deceive many.

6 And ye ſhall hear of wars, and rumours of wars: ſee that ye be e not troubled: for all theſe things muſt come to paſſe, but the end is not yet.

7 f For nation ſhall riſe againſt nation, and kingdom againſt kingdom, and there ſhall be d famines, and g peſtilence, and earth-quakes in divers places.

8 All theſe are the beginning of ſ ſorrows.

9 g Then ſhall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and ſhall kill you, and ye ſhall be hated of all nations for my names ſake.

10 And then ſhall h many be offended, and ſhall betray one another, and ſhall hate one another.

11 And many i falſe prophets ſhall riſe, and ſhall deceive many.

stand in the o holy place, (whoso readeth let him p understand.)

16 Then let them which be in Judea flee q into the mountains,

17 Let him which is on the house top, not come down to take any thing out of his house:

18 Neither let him which is in the field, return back to take his cloths.

19 And wo unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those dayes.

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day:

21 For then shall be great tribulation, s such as was not since the beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22 And except those dayes should be shortned, t there should no flesh be saved: but for the elects sake, those dayes shall be shortned.

23 u Then if any man shall say unto you, lo here is Christ, or there, believe it not.

24 For there shall arise x false Christs, and false prophets, and shall y shew great signes and wonders, insomuch that if it were possible they shall deceive the very elect.

25 Behold, I have told you before:

26 Therefore, if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert, go not forth: Behold, he is in the secret chambers, believe it not.

27 For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west: so shall also the coming of the son of man be.

28 a For wheresoever the carkase is, there will the eagles be gathered together.

29 ¶ Immediately after the tribulation of those dayes, b shall the sun be darkned, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heaven shall be shaken

30 And then shall appear c the sign of the Son of man in heaven, and then shall all the tribes of the earth d mourn, e and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven, with power and great glory.

31 f And he shall send his angels, with ‖ a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

32 Now learn a parable of the figtree: when his branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

33 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things; know that it is neer, even at the doors.

34 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not passe, till all these things be fulfilled.

35 g Heaven and earth shall passe away, but my words shall not passe away.

36 ¶ But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no not the angels of heaven, but my Father only 37 But as the dayes of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

38 For as in the dayes that were before the flood, they were ‖ eating and drinking, marrying, and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe entred into the ark.

39 And knew not until the flood came, and i took them all away: so shal also the coming of the Son of man be.

40 k Then shall two be in the field, the ‖ one shall be taken, and the other left.

41 Two women shall be grinding in the mill: the one shall be taken, and the other left.

42 ¶ m Watch therefore, for ye know not what hour your LORD doth come.

43 n But know this, that if the good man of the house had known in what watch the thief would come he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up:

44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as you think not, the son of man cometh.

45 o Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath p made ruler over his houshold; to give them q meat in due season?

46 Blessed is that servant whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

47 Verily, I say unto you, that he shall make him r ruler over all his goods

48 But and if that evil servant shall s say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming:

49 And shall begin to smite his fellow servants, and to eat and drink with the drunken.

50 The lord of that servant shall come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of:

51 And shall ‖ cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the * hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

CHAP. XXV.

THen shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the Bridegroom.

2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oyl with them:

4 But the wise took oyl in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, they a all slumbred and slept.

6 And at minnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh, go ye out to meet him

7 Then all those virgins arose, and b trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oyl, for our lamps are gone out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so, lest there be not enough for us and you, but c go ye rather to them that sel, and d buy for e your selves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came, and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage, and the f door was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, g LORD, LORD, b open to us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, i I know you not.

neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.

14 ¶ l For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them n his goods.

15 And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one, to every man o according to his several ability, and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents, went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one, went and digged in the earth, and hid his Lord's money.

19 After a long time the Lord of those servants p cometh, and reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents, came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained besides them five talents more.

21 His Lord said unto him, Well done thou good and faithfull servant, thou hast been faithfull over q a few things, I will make thee ruler a over many things, enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.

22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents, behold I have gained two other talents besides them

23 His Lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithfull servant, thou hast been faithfull over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy Lord.

24 Then he which had received the one talent, came, and said, Lord I knew thee that thou art an b hard man, reaping where thou hast not sowed, and gathering where thou hast not strawed.

25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

26 His Lord answered and said unto him, thou wicked and slothfull servant, c thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed:

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the d exchangers; and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

29 d For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not, shall be taken away, even that which he hath.

30 And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer e darkenesse, there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

31 ¶ When the son of man shall come in his glory, and all the f holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory.

32 And before him shall g be gathered all nations, and he shall b separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep i from the goats

33 And he shall set the k sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

34 Then shall l the king say unto them on his right hand, Come ye blessed of my Father, m inherit the kingdom n prepared for you, from the foundation of the world:

35 p For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in:

36 Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

37 Then shall q the righteous answer him saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

39 Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

40 And the king shall answer, and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, In as much as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren and ye have done it unto me.

41 Then shall he say also unto them r Hand on the left hand, s Depart h from me, ye cursed into everlasting fire, prepared t for the devill and his angels.

42 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink:

43 I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, d when saw we thee an hungred, or a thirst, or a stranger, or b naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?

45 Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, in as much d as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it e not to me.

46 And f these shall go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternall.

CHAP. XXVI.

AND it came to passe, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples:

2 a Ye know that after two dayes is b the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.

3 b Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and Phisitions of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called a Caiaphas:

4 And c consulted that they might take Jesus by subtilty, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast a day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

6 ¶ e Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper,

7 There came unto him f a woman, g having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and g poured it on his head, as he sat at meat.

had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste.

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

10 When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, why trouble ye the woman: for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

11 k For ye have the poor always with you, but me ye have not always.

12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial.

13 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached in the world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told m for a memorial of her.

14 ¶ Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests,

15 And said unto them, what will ye give, me and I will deliver him unto you? and they covenanted with him for a thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17 ¶ b Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, where will thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passeover?

18 And he said Go into the city c to such a man, and say unto him, the master saith, my time is at hand. I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them, and they made ready the passeover.

20 Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered, and said, e He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The son of man goeth as it is written of him: but wo unto that man by whom the son of man is betrayed: it had been good for that man if he had not been born.

25 Then Judas which betrayed him, answered and said, Master is it I? He said unto him, thou hast said.

26 And as they were eating, g Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, take, eat, this is h my body.

27 And he took the i cup, and k gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it:

28 For this is my m blood of the new Testament which is shed n for many, for the o remission of sins.

29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my fathers kingdom.

30 And when they had sung an hymne they went out into the mount of Olives

31 Then saith Jesus unto them, p All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

32 But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee.

33 Peter answered, and said unto him, Though all men shal be offended because of thee: yet will I never be offended.

34 Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that this night before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

35 Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 ¶ Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples Sit ye here: while I go and pray yonder.

37 And he took with him Peter, and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful, and q very heavy.

38 Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.

39 And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let b this cup passe from me: nevertheless, not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them c asleep, and c saith unto Peter what could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 Watch and pray, d that ye enter not into temptation: e the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not passe away from me except I drink it, f thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

44 And he left them and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them Sleep on now, and take your rest. behold the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into hands b of sinners.

46 Rise f let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

47 ¶ And k while he yet spake, lo, Judas one of the twelve came, and with l him a great multitude with swords and staves from the chief priests and k the elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him, gave them a signe, saying, whomsoever I shall kisse that same is he, hold him fast.

49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail master, and l kissed him.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Friend, wherefore are thou come? Then came they and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.

51 And behold m one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand and drew his sword, and strook a servant of the high priests, and smote off his eare.

52 Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: n for all they that take the sword, shall perish with the sword

53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more then ‖ twelve legions of angels?

54 But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, o that thus it must be?

55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitude, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

56 But all this was done, that the p scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him and fled.

57 ¶ q And they that laid hold on Jesus, led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled

58 But Peter followed him afar off unto the high priests palace, and went in, and sat with the servants to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witnesse against Jesus to put him to death.

60 a But found none, yea, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came b two false witnesses,

61 And said, This fellow said, c I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three dayes

62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing what is it which these witnesse against thee?

63 But Jesus held his peace. And the high priest answered, and said unto him, d I adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us, whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God.

64 Jesus saith unto him, thou hast said: Nevertheless, I say unto you, e hereafter shall ye see the Son of man f sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

65 Then the high priest g rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken Blasphemy what further need have we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy.

66 What think ye? They answered, and said, he is guilty of death.

67 h Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him, and others smote him with the ‖ palms of their hands,

68 Saying, † prophesie unto us thou Christ, who is he that smote thee?

69 k Now Peter sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee:

70 But he denied before them all saying, I know not what thou sayest.

71 And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This fellow was also with Jesus l of Nazareth.

72 And again he denied with an oath, I do not know the man.

73 And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one of them, for thy speech bewrayeth thee.

74 Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the cock crew.

75 And Peter n remembred the words of Jesus, which said unto him, Before the o cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he p went out, and q wept bitterly.

CHAP. XXVII.

WHen the morning was come, * all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death.

2 And when they † had bound him, they led him away, and a delivered him to Pontius Pilate the governour.

3 ¶ Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, † repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders.

4 Saying, I have sinned, in that I have betrayed the innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, b and departed, and went and ‖ hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the d price of blood

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the potters field, to bury e strangers in.

8 Wherefore that field was called f the field of blood, unto this day

9 (Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet, saying, g And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, ‖ whom they of the children of Israel did value:

10 And gave them for the potters field, as the Lord appointed me.

11 And Jesus stood before the governour, and the governour asked him, Saying, Art thou the king of the Jews? and Jesus said unto him, h thou sayest

12 And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, he i answered nothing.

13 Then saith Pilate unto him, hearest thou not how many things they witnesse against thee?

14 And he answered him to never a word, insomuch that the governour marvelled greatly.

15 k Now at that feast the governour was wont to release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a m notable prisoner called Barrabas.

17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, whom will ye that I release unto you, Barrabas, or Jesus which is called Christ

18 For he knew that for envy they had delivered him.

19 When he was set down on the judgement seat, his wife sent unto him saying, † Have thou nothing to do with that n just man; for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him.

20 o But the chief priests, and elders perswaded the multitude that they should ask Barrabas, and destroy Jesus.

21 The governour answered, and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas.

22 Pilate said unto them, what shall I do then with Jesus, which is called Christ? They all said unto him, Let him be crucified.

23 And the governour said, Why, what evil hath he done? but they cryed out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 ¶ When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it.

25 Then answered all the people and said, His blood be on us, and on our children.

26 Then released he Barabbas unto them, and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified.

27 Then the souldiers of the governour took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of souldiers.

28 And they stripped him, and put on him a scarlet robe.

29 And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail king of the Jews.

30 And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on his head.

31 And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucifie him.

32 And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross.

33 And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull,

34 They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall, and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink.

35 And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and on my vesture did they cast lots.

36 And sitting down they watched him there.

37 And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Then were there two theeves crucified with him; one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 And they that passed by, reviled him, wagging their heads,

40 And saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three dayes, save thy self. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross.

41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said,

42 He saved others, himself he cannot save: if he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will beleeve him.

43 He trusted in God, let him deliver him now if he will have him: for he said I am the Son of God.

44 The theeves also which were crucified with him cast the same in his teeth.

45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour, Jesus cryed with aloud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani, that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, this man calleth for Elias.

48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave it him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him.

50 Jesus, when he had cryed again with a loud voice, yeelded up the ghost.

51 And behold, the vail of the temple was rent in twain, from the top to the bottom, and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent,

52 And the graves were opened, and many bodies of Saints which slept, arose,

53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many.

54 Now when the Centurion, and they that were with him watching Jesus saw the earth-quake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God.

55 And many women were there (beholding afar off) which followed Jesus from Galilee, ministring unto him:

56 Among which was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses the mother of Zebedees children.

57 When the even was come, there came a rich man of Arimathea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus disciple:

58 He went to Pilate and begged the body of Jesus: then Pilate commanded the body to be delivered.

59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,

60 And laid it in his new tombe which he had hewen out in the rock, and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 Now the next day that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate,

63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, after three dayes I will rise again.

22 And they were † astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the scribes.

23 d And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit and he cried out,

24 Saying, let us alone, what have we to do with thee e thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to f destroy us? g I know thee who thou art, The holy h one of God.

27 And they were all amazed, insomuch that they question † among themselves saying, what thing is this? what k new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits and they do obey him.

28 And immediatly his fame spread abroad thorowout all the region round about Galilee.

29 l And forthwith when they were come out of the synagogues, they entred into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

30 But Simons wives mother lay sick of a fever: and anon they tell him of her

32 And at even when the sun did set they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with devils.

33 And all the city was gathered togesther at the door.

34 And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils, and suffered not † devils to speak, because they knew him.

35 And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.

36 And Simon, and they that were with him, followed after him.

37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.

38 And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also; for therefore came I forth.

39 And he preached in their synagogues thorowout all Galilee, and cast out devils.

45 g But he went out † and began to publisshe it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, but was † without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

CHAP II.

AND again he entred into Capernaum, after some dayes, and it was noised that he was in the house

2 And straightway many were gathered togetter, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no not ‖ so much as about the door: and he preached the word unto them.

3 And they come unto him, † bring ing one sick of the palsie, which was born of four.

4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for the presse they uncovered the roof where he was, and † when they had † broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsie lay.

5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsie, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee.

6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts.

7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but † God only?

8 And immediately, when Jesus † perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, why reason ye these things in your hearts?

9 Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsie, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed and walk?

10 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsie,)

11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.

12 And immediatly he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all, insomuch that they were all † amazed, and glorified God, saying, we never saw it on this fashion.

13 And he went forth again by the sea side, & all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.

14 And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alpheus sitting ‖ at the receit of custome, and said unto him, follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

15 And it came to pass, that as Jesus sat at meat in his house, many Publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples; for there were many, and they followed him.

16 And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with Publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples,

45 And straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before ‖ unto Bethsaida, while he sent away the people.

46 And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray.

47 ‡ And when even was come, the ship was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.

48 And he saw them toiling ‡ in rowing, (‡ for the wind was contrary unto them) and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea: and would have passed by them.

49 And when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a ‡ spirit, and cried out:

50 (For they all saw him, and were troubled:) and immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good cheer, it is I, be not afraid.

51 And he went up unto them into the ship, and the wind ‡ ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondred.

52 For they considered not the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was hardened.

53 ¶ And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesareth, and drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the ship, straightway they knew him.

55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds, those that were sick, where they heard he was.

56 And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch ‖ if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched ‖ him, were made whole.

CHAP. VII.

THen a came together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, which came from Jerusalem.

2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with ‖ defiled (that is to say, with unwashen) hands, they found fault.

3 For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands ‖ oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.

4 And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not: and many other things there be which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and ‖ pots: brasen vessels, and of ‡ tables.

5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders: but eat bread with unwashen hands?

6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, b This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

7 Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men:

8 For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots, and cups, and many other such like things ye do.

9 And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

10 For Moses said, a Honour thy father and thy mother, and whoso b curseth father or mother, let him die the death.

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift; by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me: he shall be free.

12 And ye ‖ suffer him no more to do ought for his father or his mother.

14 ¶ c And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of you, and understand.

15 There is nothing from without a man, that entring into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

17 And when he was entred into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.

18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also? Do ye not perceive that whatsoever thing from without entreth into the man, it cannot defile him.

19 Because it entreth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all meats?

20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

21 For from within, out of the heart of men proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,

22 Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

24 ¶ And from thence he arose and went into the border of Tyre and Sidon, and entred into an house, and would have no man know it, but he could not be hid.

29 And he said unto her, For this saying, go thy way, the devil is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 And again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the coasts of Decapolis.

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well, he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

CHAP. VIII.

IN those dayes the a multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

2 I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me b three dayes, and have nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will † faint by the way: for divers of them came from far.

4 And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfie these men with bread here in the d wilderness?

5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and e gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and were filled, and they took up of the broken meat that was left, seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about foure thousand, and he sent them away.

10 And straightway he entred into a ship, with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 And the Pharisees came forth and began to question with him, seeking of him a signe from heaven, tempting him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a signe? Verily I say unto you, † There shall no signe be given unto this generation.

13 And he left them, and entring into the ship again, departed to the other side.

14 ¶ a Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf.

15 And he charged them, saying, † take heed, b beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the c leaven of Herod.

16 And they reasoned † among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.

17 And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, neither understand? Have ye your hearts yet ‖ hardened?

18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having eares, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

19 When I brake † five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.

20 And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said unto them, How is it that ye doe not understand?

22 ¶ And he cometh to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him.

23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town, and when he had † spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him, if he saw ought.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees walking.

25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him † look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.

27 ¶ f And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Cesarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am?

28 And they answered, John the Baptist: but some say Elias: and others, ‖ one of the prophets.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answered and saith unto him, Thou art the Christ.

30 And he charged them, that they should tell no man of him.

31 And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and g be rejected of the elders and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three dayes rise again.

32 And he spake that saying ‖ openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.

25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee to come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him, and he was as one dead, insomuch that many said, he is dead.

27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up, and he arose.

28 And when he was come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?

35 ¶ i And James, and John, the sons of Zebedee come unto him, ‖ saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest do ‖ for us whatsoever we shall desire.

36 And he said unto them; what would ye that I should do for you?

37 They said unto him, Grant unto us, that we may sit one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand k in thy glory.

38 But Jesus said unto them, l Ye know not what ye ask: Can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptisme that I am baptized with?

39 And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye shall indeed ‖ drink of the cup that I drink of, and with the baptisme that I am baptized withall, a shall ye be baptized:

40 But to sit on my right hand, and on my left hand is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them, for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much b displeased with James and John.

42 But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, c Ye know that they which ‖ are accounted to ‖ rule over the Gentiles, exercise Lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, d shall be your minister:

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 e For even the Son of man came not to be ministred unto, but to minister, and f to give his life a g ransome for h many.

46 i And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples, and a great number of people, ‖ blinde Bartimeus, the son of Timeus, sat by the high way-side, begging.

47 And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus thou son of David, have mercy on me.

48 And many charged him that he should hold his peace: But he cryed the more a great deal, Thou son of David have mercy on me.

49 And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called; and they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise, he calleth thee.

50 And he casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus.

51 And Jesus answered, and said unto him, What wilt thou that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight.

52 And Jesus said unto him, Go thy way, thy faith hath ‖ made thee ‖ Or, whole: and immediately he received saved his sight, and followed Jesus in the thee. way.

CHAP. XI.

AND a when they came nigh to Jerusalem, unto Bethphage, & Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he † sendeth forth two † of his disciples.

2 And saith unto them, go your way into the village over against you, and assoon as ye be entred into it, ye shall finde b a colt tied, whereon never man sat, loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him, and straightway he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without, in a place where two wayes met: and they loose him.

5 And certain of them that stood there, said unto them, What do ye loosing the colt?

6 And they said unto them: even as Jesus had commanded: and they let them go.

7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him, and he sat upon him.

8 And many spread their garments ‖ in the way, and others cut down branches of the trees, and strawed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, ‖ Hosanne, blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord

10 Blessed be the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the Name of the Lord, Hosanna in the highest.

11 And Jesus entred into Jerusalem, and into the temple, and when he had ‖ looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bethany with the twelve.

12 And on the morrow when they were come from Bethany, b he was hungry.

13 c And seeing a fig-tree afar off, having leaves, he came, if haply he might finde any thing thereon, and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves: d for the time of figs was not yet.

14 And Jesus answered, and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.

27 ¶ f And they come again to Jeruſalem, and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief Prieſts, and the ſcribes and the elders.

28 And ſay unto him, † By what authority doeſt thou theſe things? and who gave thee this authority to do theſe things?

29 And Jeſus anſwered and ſaid unto them, I will alſo aſk of you one ‖ queſtion, and anſwer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do theſe things.

33 And they anſwered, and ſaid unto Jeſus, We cannot tell. And Jeſus anſwering ſaith unto them: Neither do I tell you by what authority I do theſe things.

22 And the ſeven had her, and left no ſeed of her.

no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jesus answering, said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage: but are as the angels which are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, a I am the God of Abraham: and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

28 ¶ b And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him which is the first commandment of all.

29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel, the Lord our God is one Lord;

30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: This is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thy self: there is none other commandment greater than these.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast † said the truth: for there is one God, and there is none other but he.

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, c is more than all whole burnt-offrings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 d And Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes, that Christ is the Son of David?

36 For David himself said † by the holy Ghost, The e Lord said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 David therefore himself calleth him Lord, and whence is he then his son? And the common people heard him gladly.

38 f And he said unto them in his doctrine, † Beware of the scribes which love to go in † long clothing, and love salutations in the markets,

39 And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts:

40 g Which devour b widows houses, and for a pretence make long prayers, these shall receive greater damnation.

41 * And Jesus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast ‖ money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two ‖ mites, which make a farthing.

43 And he called unto him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury.

44 For all they did cast in of their abundance; but she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living.

CHAP. XIII.

AND a as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto him, Master, b see what manner of stones, and what buildings are here.

2 And Jesus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be † thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, over against the temple, Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew asked him privately;

4 c Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled.

5 And Jesus answering them, began to say, Take heed lest any man deceive you:

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, † I am Christ, and shall deceive many.

7 And when ye shall hear of wars, and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled; for such things must needs be: but the end shall not be yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines, and troubles: these are the beginnings of † sorrows.

9 But † take heed to your selves: for they shall deliver you up to councils, and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten, and ye shall be brought before rulers, and kings ‖ for my sake, for a testimony † against them.

10 And the Gospel must first be published among all nations.

11 d But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, † take not thought before hand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye, for it is not ye that speak, but the holy Ghost.

12 Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up † against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 And ye shall be hated of all men for my Names sake: ‖ but he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 e But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the prophet, † standing where it ought not (let him that readeth understand) then let them that be in Judea flee to the mountains.

CHAP. XIIII.

AFter a two dayes was the feast of the passeover, and of unleavened bread, and the chief Priests, and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 ¶ b And being in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of ‖ spikenard, very precious, and she brake † box, & poured it on his head.

5 For it might have been sold for more then three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor: and they murmured against her.

6 And Jesus said, Let her alone, † why trouble you her? she hath wrought a good work upon me.

† Greek, why do you trouble her?

7 For d ye have the poor with you alwayes, and whensoever ye will ye may do them good; but me ye have not alwayes.

8 She hath done what she could: she is come e aforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done, shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished, and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them, and they made ready the passeover.

17 And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 a And as they sate, and did eat, Jesus said, Verily, I say unto you, One of you which eateth with me, shall betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered, and said unto them, It is one of the twelve b that dippeth with me in the dish.

26 ¶ And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.
27 l And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.
28 But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee.

30 And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, that this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.
31 But he spake the more vehemently. If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.
32 n And they came to a place which was named Gethsemani, and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray.
33 And he taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and began to be o sore amazed, and to be very heavy.
34 And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowfull unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.
35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed, that if it were p possible, the hour might passe from him.
36 And he said, p Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee, take away this cup from me: nevertheless, not that I will, but what thou wilt.
37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour?
38 Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.
39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.
40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy) neither wist they what to answer him.
41 And he cometh q third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, & take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come: behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands a of sinners.
42 Rise up, let us go, lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.
43 b And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude, with swords and staves, from the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders.
44 And he that betrayed him, had given them † a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kisse, that same is he, take him, and lead him away safely.
45 And assoon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith † Master, Master, and c kissed him.
46 And they † laid their hands on him, and took him.
47 a And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.
48 And Jesus answered, and said unto them, Are ye come out as against a thief, with swords, and with staves to take me?
49 I was daily with you in the temple, teaching, and ye took me not: † but the Scriptures must be fulfilled.
50 And they all forsook him, & fled.
51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body, and the young men laid hold on him
52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.
53 e And they led Jesus away to the high priest, and with him were assembled all the chief priests, and the elders, and the scribes.
54 And Peter followed him afar off even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself † at the fire
55 f And the chief Priests, and all the † counsell sought for witnesse against Jesus, to put him to death, and found none:

57 And there arose certain, and bare false witnesse against him, saying,
58 We heard him say, g I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three dayes, I will build another made without hands.
59 But neither so did their witnesse agree together.
60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witnesse against thee?
61 But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou ‖ the Christ, the Son of ‖ the Blessed?
62 And Jesus said, I am: h and ye shall i see the Son of man sitting on the right hand k of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.
63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, what need we any further witnesse?
64 Ye have heard the blasphemy, what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death
65 And some began a to spit on him, and to b cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophesie: And the servants did † strike him with the palms of their hands.
66 ¶ And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest.
67 And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth.
68 But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch, and the cock crew
69 And a maid saw him a gain, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

17 o And he shall go before him in the the spirit, and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just, to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

18 And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in yeers.

19 And the angel answering, said unto him, I am p Gabriel that stand q in the presence of God, and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20 And behold thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed: because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people r waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them, and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he beckned unto them, and remained speechlesse.

23 And it came to passe, that assoon as the dayes of his ministration a were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those dayes his wife Elizabeth conceived, and hid her self five moneths, saying,

25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me, in the dayes wherein he looked on me, to take away b my reproach among men.

26 And in the sixth moneth the angel Gabriel was sent from God, unto a city of Galilee, namely Nazareth,

27 To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David, and the virgins name was Mary.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail thou that art ‖ highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: Blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was ‖ troubled at his saying, and cast in her minde what manner of salutation this should be.

32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son e of the Highest, and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David.

33 f And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever, and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered, and said unto her, The holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall g overshadow thee: Therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee, shall be called the b Son of God.

36 And behold, thy cousin Elizabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age, and this is the sixth moneth with her who was called barren.

37 For with God i nothing shall be unpossible.

38 And Mary said, Behold, the handmaid of the Lord, be it unto me according to thy word: and the angel departed from her.

39 And Mary arose in those dayes, and went into the ‖ hill countrey with haste, into a city of Juda,

41 And it came to passe, that when Elizabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with k holy ghost

42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

44 For lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

45 And blessed is she ‖ that believed, for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

46 And Mary said, a My soul doth magnifie the Lord,

47 And my spirit hath *m*joyed in God my Saviour.

58 And her neighbours, and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her, and they rejoyced with her.

59 And it came to passe that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the childe, and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 And his mother answered, and said, Not so, but he shall be called John.

61 And they said unto her; There is none of thy kinred that is called by this name.

14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth c peace, ‖ good will towards men.

‖ It is meant of that free and infinite love of God to the elect which he loved in Christ from all eternitie.

15 And it came to passe as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to passe, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And all they that heard it, wondred at those things, which were told them by the shepherds.

19 But Mary kept all these things, and pondred them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying, and praysing God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21 d And when eight dayes were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his Name was called e Jesus, which was so named of the Angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when the dayes of her f purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord.

23 (As it is written in the Law of the Lord) g Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord.)

36 And there was one Anna a prophetesse the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser, she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven yeers from her virginity.

37 And she was a widow of about fourscore and four yeers, which c departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day.

38 And she coming in at that instant d gave thanks likewise unto the Lord: and spake of him to all them that e looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

39 And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.

40 And the childe grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.

41 Now his parents went to Jerusalem, g every yeer at the feast of the passover.

42 And when he was twelve yeers old, they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the feast.

44 But they supposing him to have been in the company, went a dayes journey, and they sought him among their kinsfolk, and acquaintance.

45 And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem seeking him.

46 And it came to passe, that after three dayes they found him in the temple sitting ‖ in the midst of the doctors; both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.

48 And when they saw him they were amazed, and his mother said unto him; Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? Behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.

49 And he said unto them: How is it that ye sought me? Wist ye not that I must be about g my fathers businesse?

50 And they b understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

51 And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth: and was subject unto them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Jesus increased in wisdom and ‖ stature, and in favour with God and man.

CHAP. III.

NOw in the fifteenth yeer of the reign of Tiberius Cesar, Pontius Pilate being governour of Judea, and Herod being Tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip Tetrarch of Iturea, and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the Tetrarch of Abilene.

2 a Annas and Caiphas being the high priests, b the word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wildernesse.

3 c And he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptisme of repentance, for the remission of sins.

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Esaias the prophet, saying, d the voice of one crying in the wildernesse, prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low: & the ‖ crooked shall be made streight, and the rough wayes shall be made smooth.

6 e And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, f O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come.

8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within your selves, we have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

9 And now also the ax is laid unto the root of the trees; every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 And the people asked him, saying, g what shall we do then?

11 He answereth and saith unto them, b he that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none, and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 Then came also Publicans, to be baptized and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?

13 And he said unto them, exact no more then that which is appointed you.

14 And the souldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, ‖ Do violence to no man, neither ‖ accuse any falsly, and be content with your ‖ wages.

15 And as the people were in expectation, and all men ‖ mused in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ or not.

16 John answered, saying unto them all, f I indeed baptize you with water, but one mightier then I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose, he shall baptize you with the holy Ghost, and with fire.

17 Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner, but the chaffe he will burn with fire unquenchable.

18 And many other things in his exhortation preached he unto the people.

19 a But Herod the Tetrarch being reproved by him, for Herodias his brother Philips wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done,

CHAP. IIII.

AND a Jesus being full of the holy Ghost, returned from Jordan, and was b led by the spirit into the c wildernesse,

2 Being fourty dayes tempted of the devil, and in those dayes he did eat nothing : and when they were ended, he afterward hungred.

3 And the devil said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

4 And Jesus answered him, saying, It is d written, that man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.

5 And the devil taking him up into an e high mountain, shewed unto him f all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

6 And the devil said unto him, all this power will I give thee, and the glory of them : for that is g delivered unto me, and to whomsoever I will, I give it.

7 If thou therefore wilt ‖ worship me, all shall be thine.

8 And Jesus answered, and said unto him, Get thee behinde me, Satan : for it is h written, Thou shalt † worship the Lord thy God, and him i only shalt thou serve.

9 And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinicle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thy self down from hence.

10 For it is k written, he shal give his angels charge over thee to keep thee.

11 And in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Jesus answering, said unto him, l It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him m for a season.

14 And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee, and there went out a fame of him thorow all the region round about.

15 And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.

16 And the came to n Nazareth where he had been brought up, and as his custome was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and o stood up for to read.

17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias : and when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,

18 The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the Gospel to the poor, he hath sent me to heal the broken hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blinde, to set at liberty them that are bruised :

19 To preach the a acceptable yeer of the Lord.

20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister : and b he sat down ; and the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue, were c fastened on him.

17 ¶ And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the sea-coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: k for there went vertue out of him, and healed them all.

20 ¶ And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, l Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God

21 m Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. n Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.

22 o Blessed are ye when men shall hate you, and when they shall p separate you from your company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the son of mans sake.

23 Rejoyce ye in that day, and leap for joy: for behold, your reward is great in heaven; for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

24 q But wo unto you that are rich: for ye have received your consolation.

25 a Wo unto you that are full: for ye shall hunger: wo unto you that laugh now: for ye shall mourn & weep

26 b Wo unto you when all men shal speak well of you; for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27 ¶ c But I say unto you which hear: Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you.

28 Bless them that curse you, and p pray for them that despitfully use you

29 e And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek, offer also the other: f and him that taketh away thy cloak, forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 Give to every man that asketh of thee, and g of him that taketh away thy goods, ask them not again.

31 b And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

32 i For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

33 And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? For sinners also do even the same

34 k And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35 But love you your enemies, and do good, and lend, l hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the highest: m for he is kinde unto the unthankful, and to the evil.

36 n Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

37 o Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive and ye shall be forgiven.

38 p Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, prefsed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye meet withal, it shall be measured to you again.

39 And he spake a parable unto them: q Can the blinde lead the blinde? shall they not both fall into the ditch?

43 t For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit, neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

44 For every tree is known by his own fruit: for of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble-bush gather they grapes.

45 a A good man out of the good treasure of his heart, bringeth forth that which is good: and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart, bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Feare not beleeve onely, and she shall be made whole.

17 And they did eat, and d were all filled. And there was taken up of ‖fragments that remained to them, twelve baskets.

18 ¶ e And it came to passe, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying. Whom say the people that I am?

19 They answering, said, John f the baptist: But some say, g Elias. and others say, That one of the old prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answering said, The Christ of God.

21 And he straightly charged them and commanded them to h tell no man that thing.

22 Saying, i The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and chief priests, and scribes, and be slain, and be raised the third day.

23 ¶ k And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his l crosse daily, and follow me.

24 For whosoever will save his life, shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

25 m For what is a man advantaged if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

26 n For whosoever shall be ashamed of me, and of my words, of him shall the son of man be ashamed when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Fathers, and of the holy angels.

27 o But I tell you of a truth, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death till they see the kingdom of God.

28 ¶ p And it came to passe about an eight dayes after these ‖sayings, he took Peter, and John, and James, and went up into a mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistering.

30 And behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias.

31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his †decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter, and they that were with him, were a heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to passe, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is ‖good for us to be here, and let us make three ‖tabernacles, one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and b over-shadowed them, and they feared as they entred into the cloud.

35 And there came c a voice out of the cloud saying, this is my d beloved son, e hear him.

36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone: and they kept it close, and told no man in those dayes any of those things which they had seen.

37 ¶ f And it came to passe, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him.

38 And behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee look upon g my son, for he is my onely childe.

39 And lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out, and it teareth him, that he foameth again, and bruising him, hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy disciples to cast him out, and they could not.

41 And Jesus answering, said, O faithlesse and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him: and Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the childe, and delivered him again to his father.

43 ¶ And they were h all amazed at the mighty power of God, but while they wondred every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples,

44 i Let these sayings ‡ sink down into your eares: for the son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to aske him of that saying.

46 ¶ k Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 And Jesus perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him,

48 And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this childe in my Name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth him that sent me: For he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 ¶ l And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy Name, and we forbade him, because he followed not with us.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: For he that is not against us, is for us.

51 ¶ And it came to passe, when the time was come that he should be received up, he ‖ stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem.

52 And sent messengers before his face, and they went and entred into a village of the Samaritanes to make ready for him.

53 And they did not receive him, because a his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.

54 And when his disciples, James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as b Elias did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.

CHAP. X.

AFter a these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city, and place, whither he himself would come.

2 Therefore said he unto them, b The harvest truly is ‖ great, but the labourers are few, pray ye therefore the Lord of g harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

3 Go your ways: c Behold, I send you forth as lambs among d wolves.

4 Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes, and salute no man by the way.

5 e And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house:

6 And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.

7 And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the a labourer is worthy of his hire: Go not from house to house:

8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you.

9 And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, the b kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

10 But into whatsoever city ye enter and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say,

11 Even the very c dust of your city which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you, notwithstanding, be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

12 But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.

13 d Woe unto thee Chorazin! woe unto thee Bethsaida: for if the mighty works had been done in e Tyre and f Sidon, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 But it shall be g more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgement, than for you.

15 And thou Capernaum, which art exalted to heaven, shalt be thrust down to hell.

16 b He that heareth you, heareth me: and he that despiseth you, despiseth me: and he that despiseth me, despiseth him that sent me.

17 ¶ And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy Name.

18 And he said unto them; I beheld, f Satan as lightning fall from heaven.

19 Behold, I give unto you k power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 Notwithstanding in this rejoyce not, that the spirits are subject unto you, but rather rejoyce, because l your names are written in heaven.

21 m In that hour Jesus rejoyced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto ‖ babes: even so Father, for so it seemed good in thy sight.

22 n ‖ All things are delivered to me of my Father, and no man knoweth who the son is, but the Father: and who the Father is, but the son, and he to whom the son will reveal him.

23 ¶ And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, o Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see.

24 For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them, and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

25 And behold a certain lawyer stood up and tempted him, saying, p Master what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said unto him:

26 a What is written in the law? How readest thou?

27 And he answering, said, b Thou shalt love the Lord thy God, with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind, and c thy neighbour as thy self.

28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right; d this do, and thou shalt live.

29 But he willing to justifie himself, said unto Jesus: And who is my neighbour?

30 And Jesus answering, said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among theeves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way, and when he saw him, he passed by on e the other side.

33 But a certain Samaritane as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him.

34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oyl and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inne, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow, when he departed, he took out two f pence and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him, and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

IN a the mean time, when there were gathered together an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisie.

2 b For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed: neither hid, that shall not be known.

CHAP. XVIII.

AND he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought a always to pray, and not to || faint:

2 Saying, there was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man.

3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of my adversary

4 And he would not for a while; but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man:

5 Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her importunity coming she, weary me.

6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith

7 And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you that c he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the son of man cometh, shall he finde faith on the earth?

9 And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves || that they were righteous, and despised others:

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray, the one a Pharisee, and the other a Publicane.

11 The d Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself: God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this Publicane.

12 I fast || twice in the week, I give e tithes of all that I possesse.

13 And the Publicane standing d a far off, would e not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven: but f smote up on his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you this man went down to his house g justified rather then the other: h for every one that exalteth himself, shall be abased, and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

15 i And they brought unto him also || infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them unto him and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily I say unto you, k Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little childe shall in no wise enter therein.

18 And a certain l ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherite eternall life?

19 And Jesus said unto him; Why callest thou me good? none is good save one, that is God.

20 Thou knowest the commandments, m Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witnesse, Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I n kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him: Yet lackest thou one thing: Sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven, and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowfull; for he was very rich

24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowfull, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God?

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needles eye, then for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it, said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, the things which are unpossible with men, o are possible with God.

28 p Then Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily, I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren or wife, or children, for the kingdom of Gods sake.

30 Who shall not receive manifold q more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.

31 r Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man, shall be accomplished

32 For he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and || spitefully intreated and s spit on

33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death, and the third day he shall rise again.

34 And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

35 t And it came to passe, that as he was come nigh unto Jericho, a certain blinde man sat by the way side begging.

36 And hearing the multitude passe by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they told him that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by.

38 And he cried, saying, Jesus thou Son of David, have mercy on me.

39 And they which went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried so much the more, Thou g Son of David have mercy on me.

40 And Jesus stood and commanded him to be brought unto him: and when he was come neer, he asked him,

41 Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? and he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.

42 And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight, thy faith hath saved thee.

CHAP. XX.

A Nd it a came to passe, that on one of those dayes, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him, with the elders,

2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, ‖ by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

3 And he answered, and said unto them b I will also ask you one thing, and answer me.

4 c The baptisme of John, was it from heaven, or of men?

5 And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, d From heaven, he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

6 But and if we say, Of men, e all the people will stone us: for they be perswaded that John was a prophet.

7 And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you ‖ by what authority I do these things.

9 Then began he to speak to the people this parable: f A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.

10 And at the season, he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent g another servant, and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.

12 And again he sent h the third, and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13 Then said the Lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my i beloved son: it may be they will reverence him, when they see him.

14 k But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir, come let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He shall come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid.

17 And he beheld them, and said, l What is this then that is written, l The stone which the builders rejected the same is become the m head of the corner.

18 Whosoever shall n fall upon that stone, shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grinde him to powder.

19 ¶ And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him, and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

20 And they watched him, and sent forth spies which should faine themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governour.

21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither accepteth thou the person of any, but teacheth the way of God ‖ truly.

22 Is it lawfull for us to give tribute unto Cesar, or no?

23 But he perceived their craftinesse, and said unto them, Why tempt ye me?

24 Shew me a o peny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cesars.

25 And he said unto them, p Render therefore unto Cesar, the things which be Cesars, and unto God, the things that be Gods.

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people, and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 ¶ q Then came to him certain of the Sadducees (which deny that there is r any resurrection) and they asked him,

28 Saying, Master, s Moses wrote unto us, If any mans ‖ brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brethren, and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childlesse.

31 And the third took her, and in like manner the seven also. And they left no children and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection, whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage,

35 But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage.

36 Neither can they die any more, for they are equall unto the angels, and are the g children of God, being the children of the resurrection.

37 Now that the dead are raised, h even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord, The God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.

38 For he is not a God of the dead but of the living: for all live unto him.

answering, said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And after that, they durst not ask him any question at all.

41 And he said unto them: i How say they that Christ is Davids son.

42 And David himself saith in the a book of Psalms, The Lord said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand,

43 Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

44 David therefore calleth him Lord, b how is he then his son?

45 Then in the audience of all the people, he said unto his disciples,

46 c Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts:

47 Which d devour widows houses, and for a ‖ shew make long prayers: the same shall receive the greater damnation.

CHAP. XXI.

A Nd he looked up, a and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the b treasurie.

2 And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two c mites.

3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in d more then they all:

4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penurie hath cast in all the living that she had.

5 ¶ e And as some spake of the temple how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said,

6 As for these things which ye behold, the dayes will come, in the which there shall not be left f one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what signe will there be, when these things shall come to passe?

8 And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come g in my Name, saying, I am Christ, and the time draweth neer: go ye not therefore after them.

9 But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must come to passe, but the end is not by and by.

10 h Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:

11 And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and i famine, and k pestilences, and fearfull fightes, and great signes shall there be from heaven.

12 But before all these, l they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues and into prisons, being brought m before kings and rulers for my Names sake.

13 And it shall turn to you for n a testimony.

14 o Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer,

15 For I will p give you a mouth, and wisedom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gain-say, nor resist.

16 And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends, and some of you shall they cause to be put to death.

17 And ye shall be hated of all men for my Names sake.

18 a But there shall not a hair of your head perish.

19 b In your patience possesse ye your soules.

20 c And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

21 Then let them which are in Judea, flee to the mountains, and let them which are in the midst of it, depart out, and let not them that are in the countreys, enter thereinto.

22 For these be the dayes of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 But wo unto them that are with childe, and to them that give suck in those dayes, for there shall be great distresse in the land, and wrath upon this people.

24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations, and Jerusalem shall be troden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled:

25 ¶ e And there shall be signes in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars, and upon the earth distresse of nations, with perplexity, the sea, and the waves roaring,

26 Mens hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: For the f powers of heaven shall be shaken.

27 And then shall they see the Son of man g coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to passe, then ‖ look up, and lift up your heads, for your redemption draweth nigh.

29 And he spake to them a parable. h Behold the figtree, and all the trees.

30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand:

31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to passe, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.

32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not passe away, till all be fulfilled.

33 i Heaven and earth shall passe away, but k my words shall not passe away.

34 ¶ And l take heed to your selves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with ‖ surfeiting, and drunkennesse, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares:

35 For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.

36 Watch ye therefore and pray alwayes, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to passe, and n to stand before the Son of man.

37 And in the day time he was teaching in the temple, and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of olives.

CHAP. XXII.

NOw a the feast of vnleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the passeover

2 And the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him, for they feared the people

3 ¶ Then entred Satan into Judas, surnamed Iscariot, being one of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way and communed with the chief priests and captaines, how he might betray him vnto them

5 And they were glad, and couenanted to giue him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him vnto them in the absence of the multitude.

7 ¶ Then came the day of vnleavened bread, when the passeover must be killed

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go, and prepare vs the passeover, that we may eat.

9 And they said vnto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

10 And he said vnto them, Behold, when ye are entred into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water, follow him into the house where he entreth in.

11 And ye shall say vnto the good man of the house, The Master saith vnto thee, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passeover with my disciples?

12 And he shall shew you a large vpper room furnished, there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said vnto them, and they made ready the passeover.

14 ¶ And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him

15 And he said vnto them, with desire I haue desired to eat this passe ouer with you before I suffer.

16 For I say vnto you, I will not any more eat thereof, vntill it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the cup, and gaue thanks, and said, Take this, and diuide it among your selues.

18 For I say vnto you, g I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, vntill the kingdom of God shall come.

19 ¶ And he took bread and gaue thanks: and brake it: and gaue vnto them, saying,* This is my body which is giuen for you; this do in remembrance of me

20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you

21 h But behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me, is with me on the table.

22 And truely the Son of man goeth as it was c determined, but wo vnto that man by whom he is betrayed.

23 And they began to enquire among themselues, which of them it was, that should do this thing.

24 ¶ And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

25 d And he said vnto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship ouer them, and they that exercise authority vpon them, are called e benefactors.

26 But ye shall not be so; but he that f is greatest among you, let him be as the younger, and he that is chief, as he that doth serue.

27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serueth? Is not he that sitteth at meat? But I am among you as he that serueth.

28 Ye are they which haue continued with me in g my temptations.

29 And I appoint vnto you a kingdom, as my father hath appointed vnto me:

30 That ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, h and sit vpon thrones, iudging the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold i Satan hath desired to haue you, that he may k sift you as wheat:

32 But I haue prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art conuerted l strengthen thy brethren.

33 And he said vnto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison and to death

34 m And he said, I tell thee Peter, the cocke shall not crow this day, before that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 n And he said vnto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said he vnto them, But now he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.

37 For I say vnto you, That this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, o And he was reckoned among the transgressours: for the things concerning me haue an end.

38 And they said, Lord, Behold, here are two swords. And he said vnto them, It is enough.

39 ¶ And he came out, and went as he was wont, to the mount of Olives, and his disciples also followed him.

40 ¶ And when he was at the place, he said vnto them, b Pray, that ye enter not into temptation.

41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stones cast, and kneeled down and prayed,

42 Saying, Father, ‖ if thou be willing, remoue this cup from me: nevertheless, not my will, but d thine be done.

43 And there appeared e an angel vnto him from heauen, strengthening him.

44 And being in f an agony, he prayed more earnestly, and his sweat was as it were great ‖ drops of blood falling down to the ground

45 And when he rose vp from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow,

46 And said vnto them, Why sleep ye? Rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 ¶ As

47 ¶ And while he yet spake, g behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to h kisse him.

48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kisse?

49 When they which were about him, i saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord shall we smite with the sword?

50 ¶ And one of them smote the k servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear and k healed him.

52 Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and l captains of the temple, and the elders which were come to him, Be ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darknesse

54 ¶ m Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priests house, and Peter followed afar off

55 n And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him

57 And he denied him, saying, woman I know him not.

58 And after a little while, another saw him, and said, thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour after, another confidently affirmed, saying, of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a Galilean.

60 And Peter said, Man I know not what thou sayest: And immediately while he yet spake, the cock crew.

61 And the Lord turned and looked upon Peter; and Peter remembred the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, o Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

62 And Peter d went out and b wept bitterly.

63 ¶ And the men that held Jesus, c mocked him, and smote him.

64 And when they had blind-folded him, they strook him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophesie who is it that smote thee?

65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him

66 d And assoon as it was day, the elders of the people, and the chief priests, and the scribes came together, and led him into their [Or. councell, or, Sanhedrin. Matth. 26. 31.] counsell, saying,

67 Art thou the Christ? Tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, you will not believe.

68 And if I also ask you, you will not answer me, nor let me go.

69 e Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on f the right hand of the power of God.

70 Then said they all. Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am.

71 And they said, What need we any further witnesse? For we our selves have heard of his own mouth.

CHAP. XXIII.

AND the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, we found this fellow b perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cesar, saying, That he himself is Christ a King.

3 c And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it.

4 Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, I finde d no fault in this man.

5 And they were [The Syriack renders it, they made the greatest noyse] more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jury, beginning from Galilee to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And assoon as he knew that he belonged unto Herods jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time.

8 ¶ And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad, for he was desirous to see him of a long season; because he had heard many things of him, and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words, but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests, and scribes stood, and vehemently accused him.

11 And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.

12 ¶ And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together, for before they were at enmity between themselves.

13 ¶ a And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests, and the rulers, and the people,

14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people, and behold, I having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man, touching those things whereof ye accuse him.

15 No, nor yet Herod; for I sent you to him, and lo, nothing worthy of death is done unto him.

16 I will b therefore c chastise him, and release him.

17 d For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.

18 And they cryed out e all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release unto us Barabbas.

19 (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast in prison.)

20 Pilate therefore willing to release Jesus, spake again unto them:

21 But they cryed, saying, Crucifie him, crucifie him.

22 And he said unto them the f third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him, I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.

23 And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified: and the voices of them

24 And Pilate ‖ gave sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And he released unto them, him that for sedition, & murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired: but he delivered Jesus to their will.

26 g And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the countrey, and on him they laid the crosse, that he might bear it h after Jesus.

27 And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also i bewailed, and lamented him.

28 But Jesus turning unto them, said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but k weep for your selves, and for your children.

29 For behold the dayes are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck.

30 l Then shall they begin to say to the mountaines, Fall on us, and to the hils, Cover us.

31 m For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

34 Then said Jesus, Father, forgive a them, for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and b cast lots.

35 c And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided him, saying, d He saved others, let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God.

36 And the souldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him e vinegar.

37 And saying, if thou be the king of the Iews, save thy self.

38 And a superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latine, and Hebrew THIS IS THE KING OF THE IEWS.

45 And the sun was darkened, and ‖ the vail of the temple was rent in the midst.

46 ¶ And when Jesus had cryed with a loud voice, he said, i Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit, and having said thus, he gave up the Ghost.

47 Now when the k Centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, l smote their breasts, and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

50 ¶ m And behold, there was a man named Ioseph, a counsellor, and he was a good man, and a just:

51 (The same had not n consented to the counsel, and deed of them) he was ‖ of Arimathea, a city of the Iews (who also himself waited for the kingdom of God.)

52 This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus,

53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulcre that was hewen in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.

55 And the women also which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and prepared spices, and ointments, and rested the sabbath day, a according to the commandment.

2 And they found c the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

3 And they entred in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it came to passe, as they were much perplexed there about, behold, d two men stood by them in shining garments.

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: e Remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

7 Saying, the Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinfull men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

8 And they remembred his words.

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and all the rest.

10 It was Mary Magdalen, and f Ioanna, and Mary the mother of Iames, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles.

11 And their words seemed to them as ‖ idle tales, and they believed them not.

to the ſepulchre, and ſtooping down, he beheld the linnen clothes laid by themſelves, and departed, wondring in himſelf at that which was come to paſſe.

12 ¶ b And behold two of them went that ſame day to a village called Emaus, which was from Jeruſalem about † threeſcore furlongs

14 ‡ And they talked together of all theſe things which had happened.

15 And it came to paſſe, that while they communed together, and reaſoned, Jeſus himſelf drew neer, and went with them.

16 But their eyes were held, that they ſhould not know him

17 And he ſaid unto them, What manner of communications are theſe that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are ſad?

18 And the one of them, whoſe name was k Cleophas, anſwering, ſaid unto him, Art thou only a ſtranger in Jeruſalem, and haſt not known the things which are come to paſſe there in theſe dayes?

19 And he ſaid unto them, What things? And they ſaid unto him Concerning Jeſus of Nazareth, which was a prophet, a mighty in deed, and word b before God, and all the people.

20 And how the chief prieſts and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 But we ‖ truſted that it had been he which ſhould have † redeemed Iſrael: and beſide all, to day is the third day ſince theſe things were done.

22 Yea and certain women alſo of our company made us aſtoniſhed, which were early at the ſepulchre:

23 And when they found not his body, they came, ſaying, that they had alſo ſeen a viſion of angels, which ſaid that he was alive.

24 And certain of them which were with us went to the ſepulchre, and found it even ſo as the women had ſaid, but him they ſaw not

25 Then he ſaid unto them, O fools, and ſlow of heart to beleeve all that the prophets have ſpoken:

26 c Ought not Chriſt to have ſuffered theſe things, and to enter into his glory?

27 And d beginning at Moſes, and all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the ſcriptures the things concerning himſelf.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and he made as though he would have gone further.

29 But they conſtrained him, ſaying, Abide with us, for it is towards evening, and the day is far ſpent: and he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to paſſe, as he ſat at meat with them: he e took bread and f bleſſed it, and brake, and gave to them.

31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew him, and he ‖ vaniſhed out of their ſight:

32 And they ſaid one anoſſier, Did not our hearts burn within us while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the ſcriptures?

33 And they roſe up the ſame hour, and returned to Jeruſalem, and found the eleven gathered together and them that were with them,

34 Saying, the Lord is riſen indeed, and hath appeared b to Simon.

35 And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread.

36 ¶ ‡ And as they thus ſpake, Jeſus himſelf ſtood in the midſt of them, and ſaith unto them, k Peace be unto you.

37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and ſuppoſed that they had ſeen a ſpirit.

38 And he ſaid unto them, Why are ye troubled, and why do thoughts ariſe in your hearts?

39 Behold my hands, and my feet, that it is I my ſelf: ‡ handle me and ſee, for a ſpirit hath not fleſh and bones, as ye ſee me have.

40 And when he had thus ſpoken, he ſhewed them his hands, and his feet.

41 And while they yet beleeved not for joy, and wondered, he ſaid unto them, a have ye here any meat.

42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fiſh, and of an hony comb

43 And he took it, and did eat before them.

44 And he ſaid unto them. b Theſe are the words which I ſpake unto you, while I was yet with you; that all things muſt be fulfilled which were written in the law of Moſes, and in the prophets, and in the Pſalms, concerning me.

45 Then c opened he their underſtanding, that they might underſtand the ſcriptures,

46 And ſaid unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Chriſt to ſuffer, and to riſe from the dead the third day:

47 And that repentance and remiſſion of ſins ſhould be preached in his Name a among all nations, b beginning at Jeruſalem.

48 And c ye are witneſſes of theſe things.

49 ¶ d And behold, I ſend e the promiſe of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jeruſalem, until ye be endued with power from on high.

50 And he led them out as far as to Bethania, and he lift up his hands, and bleſſed them.

51 And it came to paſſe, while he bleſſed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.

52 ¶ And they worſhipped him, and returned to Jeruſalem, with great joy:

53 And were continually in the temple, praiſing and bleſſing God. Amen.

The gospel according to saint IOHN.

CHAP. 1.

IN a the beginning was the word, and the word was with God, and the word was God.

2 b The same was in the beginning with God

3 c All things were made by him, and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 d In him was life, and the life was the light of men

5 e And the light shineth in darkenesse, and the darkenesse f comprehended it not

6 g There was a man sent from b God, whose name i was Iohn

7 The same came for a witnesse, to bear witnesse of the light, that all men through him might beleeve.

8 He was k not that light, but was sent to beare witnesse of that light:

9 That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that commeth into the woorld.

10 He was in the world, and l the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.

11 He came unto his own, and his own received him not

12 But as many as received him, to them gave he ‖ power to become the sons of God, even to them that beleeve on his Name.

13 Which were born, not of bloud, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God

14 m And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us (and we n beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father o full of grace and truth.

15 Iohn bare witnesse of him, and cried, saying: This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me, for he was before me.

16 And of his p fulnesse have all we received, and grace for grace:

17 For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Iesus Christ.

18 q No man hath seen God at any time, the onely begotten Son, which is in r the bosome of the Father, he hath declared him.

19 ¶ And this is the record of Iohn, when the Iewes sent Priests and Levites from Ierusalem to aske him, s Who art thou?

20 And he confessed, and denied not, but confessed, I am not the Christ.

21 And they asked him, What then? t Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. t Art thou u that prophet? And he answered, No.

22 Then said they unto him, Who art thou, that we may give an answer to them that sent us? What sayest thou of thy self?

23 v He said, I am the voice of one crying in x the wildernesse, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias.

24 And they which were sent, were of the y Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him why baptizest thou then, if thou be not the Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?

26 Iohn answered them, saying, b I baptize with water, but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

27 i He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me: whose shoes latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done in z Bethabara beyond Iordan, where Iohn was baptizing.

29 ¶ The next day Iohn seeth Iesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the l lamb of God, which ‖ taketh away the sin of the world

30 This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man, which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.

32 m And Iohn bare record saying, I saw the spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the spirit descending and remaining on him, the same is he which baptiz th with the holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record, that this is the Son of God.

35 ¶ Again the next day after Iohn stood, and two of his disciples

36 And looking upon Iesus as he walked, he saith behold the lamb of God.

37 And the two disciples heard him speak and they followed Iesus.

38 Then Iesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, what seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say being interpreted, Master) where ‖ dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and ‖ saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was ‖ about the tenth hour.

40 One of the two which heard Iohn speak, and followed him, was Andrew Simon Peters brother.

41 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, we have found the Messias, which is being interpreted ‖ the Christ.

42 And he brought him to Iesus. And when Iesus beheld him, he said, thou art Simon the son of Iona, thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation ‖ a stone.

43 The day following, Iesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, follow me.

44 Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him; we have found him of whom a Moses in the law and the prophets did write, Iesus of Nazareth, the son of Ioseph.

48 Nathaneel saith unto him, whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered, and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree I saw thee.

49 Nathaneel answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God, thou art the c King of Israel.

50 Jesus answered, and said unto him, because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these.

51 And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the d angels of God ascending, and descending upon the Son of man.

CHAP. II.

AND the third day there was a marriage in Cana of a Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there.

2 And both Jesus was called, and his disciples to the marriage.

3 And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.

4 Jesus saith unto her, b Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

6 And there were set there six e water pots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three ‖ firkins a piece.

7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the d governour of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was, (but the servants which drew the water knew) the governour of the feast called the bridegroom,

10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11 This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory, and his disciples ‖ believed on him.

12 After this he went down to e Capernaum, he, and his mother, and f his brethren, and his disciples, and they continued there not many days.

13 And the g Jews passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

14 h And found in the temple those that i sold oxen, and sheep, and doves, and the changers of money, sitting.

15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen, and poured out the changers money, and overthrew the tables;

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence, make not my Fathers house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembred that it was written, k The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

18 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, What signe shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these thing?

19 Jesus answered and said unto them, l Destroy this temple, and in three dayes I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Jews, Fourty and six yeers was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three dayes?

21 But he spake of the m temple of his body.

22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembred that he had said this unto them: and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 ¶ Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passeover in the feast day, many n beleeved in his Name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

24 o But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men.

25 And needed not that any should testifie of man: for he knew what was in man.

CHAP. III.

THere was a man of the Pharisees named, Nicodemus, a a ruler of the Jews.

2 The same came to Jesus p by night and said unto him, ‖ Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.

3 Jesus answered, and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born ‖ again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, q How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mothers womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, r Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, s he can not enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh, t is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit, is u spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must ‖ be born again.

8 The winde bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tel whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered, and said unto him, How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered, and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

12 If I have told you earthly things and ye believe not: how shall ye believe if I tell you of heavenly things?

13 And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven.

14 b And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wildernesse: even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

15 That whosoever believeth in him, should not perish: but have eternal life.

16 ¶ i For God so loved the world, that he gave his onely begotten Son, k whosoever believeth in him, should not perish, but have everlasting life.

17 k For God sent not his Son into the world l to condemn the world: but that the world through him might be saved.

18 He that believeth on him, is not condemned: but he that believeth not, a is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the Name of the onely begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the condemnation, b that light is come into the world, and men loved darknesse rather then light, because their deeds were evil.

20 For every one that doth evil, c hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be † reproved.

21 But he that doth truth, cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

22 After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judea, and there he tarried with them, d and baptized.

23 ¶ And John also was baptizing in ‖ Aenon, neer to Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

24 For John was not yet cast into prison.

25 Then there arose a question between some of Johns disciples, and the Jews about purifying.

26 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, e to whom thou barest witnesse, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 John answered and said, f A man can ‖ receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

28 Ye your selves bear me witnesse, that I said, g I am not the Christ, but I am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bride, is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom which standeth and heareth him, rejoyceth greatly because of the bridegrooms voice: This my joy therefore is fulfilled.

30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that cometh from above, is above all: he that is of the earth, is earthly, and b he speaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven is above all.

32 And what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth, and no man receiveth his testimony.

33 He that hath received his testimony, i hath set to his seal, that God is true.

34 For he whom God hath sent, speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the Spirit k by measure unto him.

35 l The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand.

36 m He that believeth on the Son, hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son, shall not see life, but n the wrath of God abideth on him.

CHAP. III.

WHen therefore the ‖ Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made, and baptized more disciples then John,

2 (Though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples:)

3 He left Judea, and departed again into Galilee.

4 And he must needs go thorow Samaria.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called ‖ Sychar, neer to the parcel of ground, a that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.

6 Now Jacobs well was there. Jesus therefore being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.

7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

8 For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.

9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? b For the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.

10 Jesus answered, and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink, thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee c living water.

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 Art thou greater then our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattel?

13 Jesus answered, and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water, shall thirst again.

14 But whosoever drinketh d of the water that I shal give him, e shal never thirst, but the water that I shall give him, shall be in him a well of water, springing up into everlasting life.

15 The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered, and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband.

18 For thou hast had five husbands, and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband, in that saidst thou truly.

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in ‖ this mountain; and ye say, that f in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Jesus saith unto her, woman believe me, the hour cometh when ye shall neither in this mountain, g nor yet at Jerusalem worship the Father.

22 h Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for i salvation is of the Jews.

23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father k in spirit, and l in truth: for the Father, seeketh such to worship him.

24 m God is a Spirit, and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit and in truth.

25 The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he a will tell us all things.

26 Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee, am he.

27 ¶ And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked b with the woman: yet no man said, what seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and c saith to the men,

29 Come see a man, which told me all things that ever I did, d is not this the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

31 ¶ In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master eat.

32 But he said unto them, e I have meat to eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?

34 Jesus saith unto them, f my meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.

35 Say not ye, there are four months and then cometh harvest? Behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields: g for they are white already to harvest.

36 And he that reapeth, h receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth, and he that reapeth may rejoyce together.

37 And herein is that saying true: one soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: i other men laboured, and ye are entred into their labours.

39 And many of the k Samaritans of that city believed on him, for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40 So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they k besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

41 And many more believed, because of his own word:

42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying, for we have heard him our selves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.

43 m Now after two dayes he departed thence, and went into Galilee.

44 For Jesus himself testified that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.

45 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

46 So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, n where he made the water wine. And there was a certain ‖ nobleman whose son was sick at Capernaum.

47 When he he heard that Jesus was come out of Judea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down and heal his son for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see signes and wonders, ye will not believe.

49 The noble man saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my childe die.

50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way, o thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, p saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then he enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend? and they said unto him, Yester-day at the seventh hour the fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth, and himself believed, and q his whole house.

54 This it again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judea into Galilee.

CHAP. V.

A Fter a this there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep ‖ market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of blinde, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in, was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity b thirty and eight yeers.

6 When Jesus saw him lie, and c knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, d wilt thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another stepeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made

15 The man departed and c told the Jews, that it was Jesus which had made him whole.

16 And b therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

17 But Jesus answered them, c My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.

18 Therefor the Jews sought the more to kill him, not only because he had broken the sabbath, but said also, that God was ‖ his Father, making himself equal with God.

19 Then answered Jesus, and said unto them, Verily, verily I say unto you, d The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: For what things soever he doth, these also doth the Son likewise.

20 For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doth: and he will shew him greater works then these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickneth them: even so the Son quickneth whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man: but e hath committed all judgement unto the Son.

23 That all men should honour the Son f even as they honor the Father. He that honoureth not the Son, honoureth not the Father which hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily I say unto you, He that heareth my word g and beleeveth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation: but is passed from death unto life.

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when h the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear, shall live.

26 For as the Father hath life i in himself: so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself.

27 And hath given him ‖ authority to execute judgement also, because he is the Son of man.

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice.

29 ¶ And shall come forth, k they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life, and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

30 I can of mine own self do nothing: l as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just: because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.

31 m If I bear witnesse of my self, my witnesse is not true.

32 ¶ n There is another that beareth witnesse of me, and I know that the witnesse that he witnesseth of me, is true.

33 Ye sent unto John, o and he bare witnesse unto the truth.

34 But I receive not testimoney from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved,

35 He was a burning and a p shining light, and ye were willing for a season to rejoyce in his light.

36 But a I have greater witnesse then that of John, for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witnesse of me, that the father hath sent me.

37 And the father himself which hath sent me, b hath born witnesse of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, c nor seen his shape.

38 And ye have not his word abiding in you, for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

39 Search the scriptures, for in them ye think ye have eternal life, and they are they which testifie of me.

40 And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

41 I receive not honour from men.

42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.

43 I am come in my Fathers name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.

44 d How can ye beleeve which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God onely?

45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses in whom ye trust.

46 For had ye beleeved Moses, ye would have beleeved me: e for he wrote of me.

47 But if ye beleeve not his writings, how shall ye beleeve my words?

CHAP. VI.

AFter these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias:

2 And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased.

3 And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

4 And the a passover, a feast of the Jews was nigh.

5 b When Jesus then lift up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto c Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these may eat?

6 And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.

7 Philip.

7 Philip answered him ‖ Two hundred penyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take a little.

8 One of his disciples, Andrew Simon Peters brother, saith unto him,

9 There is a lad here, which hath five barly loaves, and two small fishes: d but what are they among so many?

10 And Jesus said, make the men sit down. Now there was much grasse in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.

11 And Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given a thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down, and likewise of the fishes, b as much as they would.

12 When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, c that nothing be lost.

13 Therefore they gathered them together, and d filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves which remained over and above, unto them that had eaten.

14 Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that e Prophet that should come into the world.

15 When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, f to make him a king, he g departed again into a mountain himself alone.

16 h And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea.

17 And entred into a ship, and went over the sea towards Capernaum: and it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them.

18 And the sea arose, by reason of a great winde that blew.

19 So when they rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid.

20 But he saith unto them, ‖ it is I, be not afraid.

21 Then they willingly received him into the ship, and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went.

22 ¶ The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea, saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto the disciples were entred, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone.

23 Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they did eat bread after that the Lord had given thanks.

24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Jesus answered them, and said, Verily, verily I say unto you, ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves and were filled.

27 † Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then said they unto him, what shall we do that we might work the works of God?

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, this is the work of God: that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

30 They said therefore unto him, what c signe shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?

31 d Our fathers did eat ‖ Manna in the desert, as it is written, he gave them bread from heaven to eat.

32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven, but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.

33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

34 Then said they unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.

35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me, shall never hunger, and he that believeth on me, shall never thirst.

36 But I said unto you, that ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37 All that the Father giveth me, shall come to me: and him that cometh to me, I will in no wise cast out.

38 For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me, I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one that seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.

41 ¶ The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, is not this Jesus the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven.

43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among your selves.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me, draw him and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 ‖ It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father cometh unto me:

46 Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily I say unto you, He that believeth on me, hath everlasting life.

48 I am that bread of life.

49 Your fathers did eat Manna in the wilderness, and are dead

50 This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, f and not die.

51 I am the ‖ living bread, which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give, is my flesh, which I will give a for the life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore ‖ strove amongst themselves, saying, b how can this man give us his flesh to eat?

53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily I say unto you, c Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood hath eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the d living father hath sent me, and I live by the father: so, he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat Manna and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.

59 These things said he in the Synagogue as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying, who can hear it?

61 When Jesus knew in himself, that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, doth this offend you?

62 a e What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?

63 It is the Spirit that quickneth, the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

64 But there are some of you that beleeve not. For Jesus knew from the beginning, who they were that beleeved not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were f given unto him of my Father.

66 ¶ From that time many of his disciples g went back, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve b will ye also go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? Thou hast the i words of eternal life.

69 ‖ And we believe, and are sure that thou art k that Christ ‖ the Son of the living God

70 Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a k devil?

71 He spake of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

CHAP. VII.

AFter these things Jesus walked in Galilee, for he would not walk in Jury, a because the Jews sought to kill him.

2 b Now the Jews feast of tabernacles was at hand.

3 a His brethren therefore said unto him, depart hence, and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doth any thing in secret, and he himself ‖ seeketh to be known ‖ openly: If thou do these things shew thy self to the world.

5 For neither did his brethren beleeve in him.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready.

7 b The world cannot hate you, but me it hateth, c because I testifie of it, that the works thereof are evil.

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast, d for my time is not yet full come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

10 But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, e not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, where is he?

12 And there was much ‖ murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, he is a good man, others said, Nay, but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him, f for fear of the Jews.

14 Now about the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

15 And the Jews marvelled saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?

16 Jesus answered them and said, My doctrine is not mine: but his that sent me.

17 If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of my self.

18 He that speaketh of himself, seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him

19 g Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? why go ye about to kill me?

20 The people answered, and said, i thou hast a devil: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

22 k Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision, (not because it is of Moses, l but of the fathers) and ye on the sabbath day circumcise a man receive circumcision, that the law of Moſes ſhould not be broken: are ye angry at me, becauſe I have made a man every whit whole on the ſabbath day?

25 Then ſaid ſome of them of Jeruſalem, Is not this he whom they ſeek to kill?

26 But lo he ſpeaketh boldly, and they ſay nothing unto him: Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Chriſt?

27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when Chriſt cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jeſus in the temple as he taught, ſaying, Ye both know me, and ye know a whence I am: and I am not come of my ſelf: but he that ſent me is true, whom ye know not.

29 But I know him: for I am from him, and he hath ſent me.

30 Then they ſought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, becauſe b his hour was not yet come.

31 And many of the people believed on him, & ſaid, When Chriſt cometh, will he do more miracles than theſe which this man hath done?

32 The Phariſees heard that the people murmured ſuch things concerning him: and the Phariſees and chief prieſts ſent officers to take him.

33 Then ſaid Jeſus unto them, yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that ſent me.

34 Ye ſhall ſeek me, and ſhall not finde me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.

35 Then ſaid the Jews among themſelves, Whither will he go that we ſhal not finde him? Will he go unto the diſperſed among the ‖ Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?

36 What manner of ſaying is this that he ſaid, Ye ſhall ſeek me, and ſhall not finde me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 d In the laſt day, that great day of the feaſt, Jeſus ſtood and cryed, ſaying, If any man thirſt, let him come unto me, and drink.

38 e He that believeth on me, as the ſcripture hath ſaid, out of his belly ſhall flow rivers of living water.

39 f (But this ſpake he of the Spirit, which they that believe on him, ſhould receive. For the holy Ghoſt was not yet given, becauſe that Jeſus was not yet glorified.)

41 Others ſaid, This is the Chriſt. But ſome ſaid, Shall Chriſt come out of Galilee?

42 h Hath not the ſcripture ſaid, That Chriſt cometh of the ſeed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem where David was?

43 So there was a diviſion among the people becauſe of him.

44 And ſome of them would have taken him, but no man laid hands on him.

45 Then came the officers to the chief prieſts and Phariſees, and they ſaid unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers anſwered, i Never man ſpake like this man.

47 Then anſwered them the Phariſees. Are ye alſo deceived?

53 And every man went unto his own houſe.

CHAP. VIII.

JEſus went a unto the mount of Olives.

2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him, and he ſate down and taught them.

3 And the ſcribes and Phariſees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery, and when they had ſet her in the midſt,

4 They ſaid unto him, Maſter, this woman was taken in adultery, † in the very act.

5 b Now Moſes in the law commanded us, that ſuch ſhould be ſtoned: but what ſayeſt thou?

6 This they ſaid, tempting him, that they might have to accuſe him: But Jeſus ſtooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.

7 So when they continued aſking him, he lift up himſelf, and ſaid unto them, c He that is without ſin among you, let him firſt caſt a ſtone at her.

8 And again, he ſtooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they which heard it, being † convicted by their own conſcience, d went out one by one, beginning at the eldeſt even unto the laſt. And Jeſus was left alone, and the woman ſtanding in the midſt.

10 When Jeſus had lift up himſelf, and ſaw none but the woman, he ſaid unto her, Woman, where are thoſe thine accuſers? Hath no man condemned thee?

11 She ſaid, No man, Lord. And Jeſus ſaid unto her, e neither do I condemn thee: go and ſin no more.

12 ¶ Then ſpake Jeſus again unto them, ſaying, f I am the light of the world: he that followeth me, ſhall not walk in darkneſſe, but ſhall have the light of life.

13 The Phariſees therefore ſaid unto him, Thou beareſt record of thy ſelf, thy record is not true.

26 I have many things to say, and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true, and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jesus unto them, f When ye have lift up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of my self: but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And he that sent me, is with me: the Father hath not left me alone: for I do alwayes those things that please him.

31 Then said Jesus to those Jewes which beleeved on him, g If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed.

32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you h free.

33 They answered him, we be Abrahams seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily I say unto you, i Whosoever committeth sin, is the servant of sin.

35 And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the son abideth ever.

36 If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are † Abrahams seed, but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no ‖ place in you.

38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father: & ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

39 They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abrahams children, ye would do the works of Abraham.

40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Ye do the deeds of a your father: Then said they to him, we be not born of fornication, we have b one Father, even God.

42 Jesus said unto them, if God were your Father, ye would love me, for I proceeded forth, and came from God: neither came I of my self, but he c sent me.

43 Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.

44 d Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do: he was † a murderer from e the beginning, and f abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the g father of it.

45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.

46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do you not beleeve me?

47 h He that is of God, heareth Gods words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Jews, & said unto him, Say we not well, that thou art i a Samaritan, and k hast a devil?

49 Jesus answered, I have not a devil: but I l honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

50 And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

51 Verily, verily I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never † see death.

52 Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil: Abraham is dead, and the prophets, and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never † taste of death.

CHAP. IX.

AND as Jesus passed by, he saw a man * which was a blinde from his birth. 2 And his disciples asked him, saying a Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blinde? 3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: b but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

* Acts 3. 2 a Exod. 20. 5. 2 Sam. 12. 14. b Exod. 4. 11. Rom. 9.

4 I must work the works of him that sent me, c while it is day: f night cometh when no man can work.

5 As long as I am in the world, d I am the light of the world.

6 When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he ‖ anointed the eyes of the blinde man with the clay,

7 And said unto him, e Go wash in the pool of f Siloam (which is by interpretation, Sent) He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

8 ¶ The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him, that he was blinde, said, Is not this he that sat and g begged?

9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered, and said, A man that is called Jesus, made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

13 ¶ They brought to the Pharisees him that afore time was blinde.

14 And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, & I washed, & do see.

16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner, do such miracles? and there was h a division among them.

17 They say unto the blinde man again: What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is i a prophet.

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blinde, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blinde? how then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them and said, we know that this is our son, and that he was born blinde:

21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not, or who hath opened his eyes we know not, he is of age, ask him: he shall speak for himself.

22 These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had ‖ agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age, ask him.

24 Then again called they the man that was blinde, and said unto him, a Give God the praise, we know that this man is a sinner.

25 He answered, and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that whereas I was blinde, now I see.

26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? How opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would you hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple, but we are Moses disciples.

29 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered and said unto them, why, herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.

31 Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God and doth his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the world began was it not heard, that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blinde.

33 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

34 They answered, and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out, and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?

36 He answered and said, Who is he Lord, that I might believe on him?

37 And Jesus said unto him: Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee.

38 And he said, Lord, I believe, and he worshipped him.

39 ¶ And Jesus said, For judgement I am come into this world, that they which see not, might see, and that they which see, might be made blinde.

40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blinde also?

41 Jesus said unto them, If ye were blinde, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see: therefore your sin remaineth.

God might be glorified thereby.
5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, e and Lazarus.
6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two dayes still in the same place where he was.
7 Then after that saith he to his disciples, Let us go into Judea again.
8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee, and goest thou thither again?
9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not be-he stumbleth, because there is no light

ciples, c Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lien in the grave four dayes already.

18 (Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, | about fifteen furlongs off:)

19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, d to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, assoon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him, but Mary sat still in the house.

21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22 But I know, that even now whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.

23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.

24 Martha saith unto him, e I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Jesus said unto her, f I am the resurrection, and the g life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live.

26 And whosoever liveth and h believeth in me, shall never die. Believest thou this?

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord, | I believe that thou art the Christ the son of God, which i should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come and calleth for thee.

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the ‡ town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her; when they saw Mary that she arose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave, to weep there.

32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and ‡ was troubled,

34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They say unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 a Jesus wept.

36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him.

37 And some of them said, Could not this man which opened the eyes of the blinde, have caused that even man should not have died?

38 Jesus therefore again groaning in himself, cometh to the grave: It was b a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four dayes.

40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that if thou wouldest c believe, thou should see the glory of God?

41 d Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lift up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by, I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

43 And when he had thus spoken, he cried with a e loud voice, Lazarus come forth.

44 And he that was dead came forth bound hand and foot with grave-clothes, and his face was bound about with a napkin: Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went their wayes to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 ¶ f Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, what do we? for this man doth many miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, g all men will believe on him, and h the Romans shall come, and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them named Caiaphas, being the high priest i that same yeer, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all.

50 k Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that yeer, l he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation:

52 m And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one, the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that day forth, they | took counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews, but went thence into a country neer to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 And the Jews | passeover was nigh at hand, and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passeover, to n purifie themselves.

56 Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

CHAP. XII.

THen Jesus six dayes before the passeover, came to | Bethany, where Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should b betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and c given to the poor?

6 d This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and e had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone, against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 f For the poor always ye have with you, but me ye have not always.

9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 ¶ But the chief priests consulted, that they might g put Lazarus also to death.

11 Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 ¶ h On the next day, much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem,

13 i Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, k Hosanna, Blessed is the king of Israel that cometh in the Name of the Lord.

14 And Jesus when he had found a young asse, sate thereon, as it is written,

15 k Feare not daughter of Sion, behold thy king cometh sitting on an asses colt.

16 These things understood not his disciples a at the first: but when Jesus b was glorified, then remembred they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that was with him, when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record.

18 For this cause the people also met him, for that they had heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? Behold, the world is c gone after him.

20 ¶ And there were certain ‖ Greeks among them, that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

22 Philip cometh and e telleth Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip told Jesus.

23 ¶ And Jesus answered them saying, The hour is come that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a grain of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 f He that loveth his life shall lose it: and g he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me: and h where I am, there shall also my servant be: If any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 Now is my soul troubled, and what shall I say? Father, i save me from this hour, but k for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, glorifie thy Name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorifie it again.

29 The people therefore that stood by and heard it, said that it thundred: others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jesus answered, and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the judgement of this world: now shall l the prince of this world be m cast out.

32 And I, if I be n lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.

33 (This he said, signifying what death he should die.)

34 The people answered him, We have heard o out of the law, that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, the Son of man must be lift up? Who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you: walk while ye have the light, lest darknesse come upon you: for he that walketh in darknesse, knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, beleeve in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus and departed, and did hide himself from them.

37 ¶ But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they beleeved not on him:

38 That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled which he spake, p Lord, who hath beleeved our report? and to whom hath the ‖ arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they b could not beleeve, because that Esaias said again,

40 c He hath blinded their eyes, and hardned their heart, that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.

41 These things said Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 ¶ Nevertheless, among the chief rulers also many believed on him: but because of the Pharisees they did not confesse him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue.

43 e For they loved the praise of men more then the praise of God.

44 ¶ Jesus cried and said, He that beleeveth on me, beleeveth not on me, but on him that sent me.

45 And f he that seeth me, seeth him that sent me.

46 g I am come a light into the world, that whosoever beleeveth on me, should not abide in darknesse.

47 h And if any man hear my words and beleeve not, I judge him not; for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

48 He that refuseth me, and receiveth

25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.

26 But the Comforter, which is the holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my Name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

27 Peace I leave with you, f my peace I give unto you, not as the world giveth, give I unto you: let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

28 Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoyce, because I said, I go unto the Father; for my Father g is greater then I.

29 And now I have told you before it come to passe, that when it is come to passe, ye might believe.

30 Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for h the prince of this world cometh, and hath i nothing in me.

31 But that the world may know that I love the Father: and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do: Arise let us go hence.

C. 15. A. P. XV.

I Am the true Vine, and my Father is the k husbandman.

2 a Every branch in me, that beareth not fruit, he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 b Now ye are clean c through the word which I have spoken unto you.

4 d Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of it self, except it abide in the vine: no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the Vine, ye are the branches. He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: ‖ for without me ye can e do nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered, and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 If ye abide in me, and f my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 g Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit, so shall ye be my disciples.

9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you; continue ye in my love.

10 h If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love, even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.

12 i This is my commandment, that ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 Greater love hath no man then this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye are k my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15 Henceforth I call you not my servants; for the servants know not what his lord doth, but I have called you friends: for ‖ all things that I have

4 I have glorified thee on the earth; I have c finished the work which d thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorifie thou me, with thine own self, with the glory which I had with thee e before the world was.

6 I have manifested thy Name unto the men which thou gavest me f out of the world: g thine they were, and thou gavest them me, and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me, are of thee.

9 I pray for them, I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast given me, for they are thine.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in my name: those that thou gavest me. I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the l son of perdition: m that the scripture might be fulfilled.

24 c Father, I will that they also whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am, that they may behold my glory which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me d before the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Father, the world hath e not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.

26 And I have declared unto them thy Name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me, may be in them, and f in them.

CHAP. XVIII.

WHen Jesus had spoken these words, a he went forth with his disciples over the brook b Gedron, where was a garden, into the which he entred and his disciples.

2 And Judas also which betrayed him, Knew the place: for Jesus oftimes resorted thither with his disciples.

3 c Judas then having received a band of men, and officers from the chief priests and pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns, and torches, and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore knowing all things d should come upon him, went forth and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, e I am he. And Judas also which betrayed him, stood with them.

6 Assoon then as he had said unto them, I am he, they went backward, and f fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: If therefore ye seek me, ‖ let these go their way.

9 That the saying might be fulfilled which he spake, g Of them which thou gavest me, have I lost none.

10 Then Simon Peter having a sword, drew it, and smote the high priests servant, and cut off his right ear, the servants name was Malchus.

11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath? the cup cup which my Father b hath given me, shall I not drink it?

12 Then the band and the captain, and officers of the Jews, took Jesus, a and bound him,

13 And led him away to Annas first, (For he was father in law to Caiaphas) which was the high priest that same yeer.

14 a Now Caiaphas was he which gave counsell to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 ¶ b And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple, that disciple ‖ was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.

16 But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

17 Then saith the damosell that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also one of this mans disciples? He saith, c I am not.

18 And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals, (for it was cold,) and they d warmed themselves: & Peter e stood with them and warmed himself.

19 ¶ The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his doctrine.

20 Jesus answered him, I spake openly ‖ to the world, I ever taught in the Synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews alwayes resort, and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why askest thou me? f ask them which heard me, what I have said unto them: Behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by, g strook Jesus with ‖ the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witnesse of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 h Now Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high Priest.

25 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself: i They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denyed it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the servants of the high priest (being his kinsman, whose ear Peter cut off) saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?

27 Peter then denied again, and immediately the cock crew.

28 ¶ k Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas, unto ‖ the hall of judgement, and it was early. l And they themselves went not into the judgement hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they m might eat the Passeover.

29 Pilate then went out unto them, and said, what accusation bring you against this man?

30 They answered and said unto him, n If he were not a malefactour, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawfull for us to put any man to death.

32 That the sayings of Jesus might be fulfilled which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 p Then Pilate entred into the judgement hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the king of the Jews?

34 Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thy self? or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation, and a the chief priests, have delivered thee unto me? What hast thou done?

36 Jesus answered, ‖ My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would b my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witnesse unto the truth: every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

38 Pilate saith unto him, c what is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find ‖ in him d no fault at all.

39 e But ye have a custome, that I should release unto you one at the passeover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

40 f Then cried they all again saying, Not this man, but ‖ Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

CHAP. XIX.

THen a Pilate therefore took Jesus and b scourged him.

2 And the souldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe,

3 And said, Hail King of the Jews: and they smote him with their ‖ hands.

4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I finde no fault in him.

5 Then came Jesus forth c wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe: and Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man.

6 When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucifie him, crucifie him: Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him and crucifie him: for I finde no fault in him.

7 The Jews answered him, d We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.

8 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid.

9 And went again into the judgement hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus e gave him no answer.

10 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not, that I have power to crucifie thee and a have power to release thee.

11 Jesus answered, Thou couldst have no power at all against me,

12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Cesars friend: whosoever maketh himself a king, speaketh against Cesar.

13 ¶ When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sate down in the judgement seat, in a place that is called the ‖ pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 And it was the preparation of the Passeover, and about the sixth hour, and he saith unto the Jews, d Behold your king.

15 But they cryed out, e Away with him, away with him, crucifie him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucifie your king? The chief priests answered, We have no king but f Cesar.

16 g Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away.

17 And he h bearing his crosse, went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew, ‖ Golgotha.

18 Where they i crucified him, and k two other with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.

19 ¶ And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the crosse. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified, was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latine.

21 Then said the chief Priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The king of the Jews: but that he said, I am king of the Jews.

22 Pilate answered, What I have written, I have written.

23 ¶ l Then the souldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, (and made four parts, to every souldier a part) and also his coat: Now the coat was without seam, ‖ woven from the top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let not us rent it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: m that the scripture might be fulfilled which saith, they parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the souldiers did.

25 ¶ Now there stood by the crosse of Jesus, his mother, and his mothers sister, Mary the wife of ‖ Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene.

26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, n whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son.

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother: And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home.

28 ¶ After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, o that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

29 Now there was set ‖ a vessel full of vinegar: And they filled a spunge with vinegar, and put it upon b hyssope, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar he said, c It is finished, and he bowed his head, and d gave up the ghost.

31 The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the crosse on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the ‖ souldiers and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs.

34 But one of the souldiers with a spear, ‖ pierced his side, and forthwith came thereout blood and water.

35 And he that saw it, bare record, and his record is true, and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 For these things were done, p that the scripture should be fulfilled; A bone of him shall not be broken.

37 And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 ¶ And after this, Joseph of Arimathea (being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews) besought Pilate, that he might take away the body of Jesus, and Pilate gave him leave: he came therefore and took the body of Jesus.

39 And there came also Nicodemus, which at the first came to Jesus by night, and brought a mixture of myrrhe and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen clothes, with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now in the place where he was crucified, there was a garden, and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

42 There laid they Jesus therefore, because of the Jews preparation day, for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

CHAP. XX.

THe a first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early when it was b yet dark, c unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2 Then she runneth and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the d other disciple whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 Peter therefore went forth, and e that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together, and the other disciple did out-run Peter, and came first to the sepulchre,

5 And he stooping down and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying, yet went he not in.

25 ¶ Now there stood by the crosse of Jesus, his mother, and his mothers sister, Mary the wife of ‖ Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene.

26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, n whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son.

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother: And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home.

28 ¶ After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, o that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

29 Now there was set ‖ a vessel full of vinegar: And they filled a spunge with vinegar, and put it upon b hyssope, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar he said, c It is finished, and he bowed his head, and d gave up the ghost.

31 The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the crosse on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the ‖ souldiers and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs.

34 But one of the souldiers with a spear, ‖ pierced his side, and forthwith came thereout blood and water.

35 And he that saw it, bare record, and his record is true, and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 For these things were done, p that the scripture should be fulfilled; A bone of him shall not be broken.

37 And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 ¶ And after this, Joseph of Arimathea (being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews) besought Pilate, that he might take away the body of Jesus, and Pilate gave him leave: he came therefore and took the body of Jesus.

39 And there came also Nicodemus, which at the first came to Jesus by night, and brought a mixture of myrrhe and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen clothes, with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now in the place where he was crucified, there was a garden, and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

42 There laid they Jesus therefore, because of the Jews preparation day, for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

CHAP. XX.

THe a first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early when it was b yet dark, c unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2 Then she runneth and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the d other disciple whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 Peter therefore went forth, and e that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together, and the other disciple did out-run Peter, and came first to the sepulchre,

5 And he stooping down and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying, yet went he not in.

6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie.

8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and ‖ beleeved.

9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

11 ¶ But Mary stood without at the sepulchre, b weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre,

12 And seeth two angels c in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lyen.

13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

14 And when she had thus said, she turned her self back, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? she supposing him to be the gardiner, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have born him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary; She turned her self, and saith unto him, ‖ Rabboni, which is to say, Master.

17 Jesus saith unto her, d Touch me not, for I am not yet ascended to my father: but go to my e brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto f my Father, and g your Father, and to my God, and your God.

18 Mary Magdalen came and told the disciples, that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her.

19 ¶ h Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the i doors were shut, where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews came Jesus, and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, k Peace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples l glad when they saw the Lord.

21 Then said Jesus unto them again, peace be unto you: As m my father hath sent me, even so send I you.

22 And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the holy Ghost.

23 m Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them, and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.

24 ¶ But Thomas one of the twelve, called ‖ Didimus, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord: But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, a I will not beleeve

26 ¶ And after eight dayes, again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.

27 Then saith he to Thomas, b Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands, and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side, and be not faithless, but beleeving.

28 And Thomas answered, and said unto him, c My Lord, and my God

29 Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast beleeved; blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have beleeved.

30 ¶ d And many other signes truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book.

AFter these things Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias, and on this wise shewed he himself

2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didimus, and a Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.

3 b Simon Peter saith unto them, ‖ I go a fishing. They say unto him, we also go with thee. They went forth and entred into a ship immediately, and that night they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.

5 Then Jesus saith unto them, ‖ Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.

6 And he said unto them, c Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall finde. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved, saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked) and did d cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little ship (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three; and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus then cometh, & taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

The Acts of the APOSTLES.

CHAP. I.

THE former treatise have I made, O a Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,

2 Until the day in which he was taken taken up, after that he through the holy Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles, whom he had chosen.

3 To whom also he shewed himself alive after his passion, by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty dayes, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God.

4 And ‖ being assembled together with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the father, b which saith he, ye have heard of me.

5 c For John truly baptized with water, but ye shall be baptized with the holy Ghost, not many dayes hence.

6 When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again d the kingdom to Israel?

7 And he said unto them, e It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.

8 f But ye shall receive ‖ power, after that the holy Ghost is come upon you, and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

9 g And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up, and a cloud received him out of their sight.

10 And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparell;

11 Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, h shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

12 Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath dayes journey.

13 And when they were come in, they went up into an upper room, where abode both Peter and James, and John and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alphus, and Simon Zelotes, and John Judas the brother of James.

14 These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, a with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus: and with his ‖ brethren.

15 And in those dayes Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (The number of the names together were about an hundred and twenty)

16 Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, a which the holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, which was d guide to them that took Jesus.

17 For he was numbred with us, and had obtained part of this ministery.

22 Beginning from the baptisme of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witnesse with us of his resurrection.

23 And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.

24 And they prayed, and said, Thou Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen,

25 That he may take part of this ministery and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to g his own place.

3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sate upon each of them.

4 And they were all filled with the holy Ghost, and began to speak with b other tongues, as the spirit gave them ‖ utterance.

5 And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 Now † when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were ‖ confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own language.

18 And on my servants, & on my handmaidens I will powr out in those dayes of my spirit, and they shall prophesie.

19 And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signes in the earth beneath: blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke.

20 f The sun shall be turned into darknesse, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come.

21 g And it shall come to passe, that whosoever shall call on the Name of the Lord, shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Israel hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth a man approved of God among you, by miracles, wonders and signes, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye your selves also know.

23 Him being delivered by the h determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified, and slain.

24 Whom God hath † raised up, having loosed the paines of death, because it was not possible that he should be holden from it.

26 Therefore did my heart rejoyce, and † my tongue was glade moreover also, my flesh shall rest in hope.

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine holy One to see c corruption.

28 Thou hast made known to me the wayes of life, thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

29 Men and brethren, ‖ let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, ŷ he is both dead and buried, & his sepulchre is with us unto this day.

30 Therefore being a prophet, e and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne,

31 He seeing this, spake of the resurrection of Christ, f that his soul was not left ‖ in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption.

32 This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses.

33 Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

34 For David is not ascended into the heavens, but he saith himself, g The Lord said unto my Lord, h Sit thou on my right hand, heard b [the word,] beleeved, and the number of the men was about five thousand.

5 ¶ And it came to passe on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes,

6 And Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kinred of the high priest, were c gathered together at Jerusalem.

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, by what power or by what name have ye done this?

8 Then Peter filled with the holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel.

9 If we this day be e examined of the good deed done to the impotent man by what means he is made whole

10 f Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

11 g This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the h head of the corner.

12 Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other Name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be i saved.

13 Now when they saw the k boldnesse of Peter, and John, and perceived that they were † unlearned, and ignorant men, they marvelled, and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

14 And beholding the men which was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the councell, they conferred among themselves,

16 Saying, l What shall we do to these men? For that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us straightly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this Name.

18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all, nor teach in the Name of Jesus.

19 But Peter and John answered, and said unto them, m Whether it be right in the sight of God, to hearken unto you more then unto God, judge ye.

20 For we cannot, but speak the things which we have seen and heard.

21 So when they had further threatned them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done,

22 For the man was above fourty yeers old, on whom this miracle of healing was shewed.

23 ¶ And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

24 And when they heard that, they lift up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God which hast made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is.

25 a Who by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, ‖ Why did the heathen † rage, and the people imagine vain things?

32 And the multitude of them that beleeved: were e of one heart, and of one soul: neither said any of them, that ought of the things which he possessed, was his own, but they had all things common.

33 And with great power gave the apostles witnesse of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great grace was upon them all.

34 Neither was there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessours of lands, or houses, sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold.

8 And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

10 Then fell she down b straightway at his feet, and i yeelded up the ghost: and the young men came in, & found her dead, and carrying her forth, buried her by her husband:

11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 ¶ And by the hands of the apostles were many k signes and wonders wrought among the people. (And they were all with one accord in Solomons porch.

13 And of the rest durst no man joyn himself to them: but the people l magnified them.

14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men m and women.)

15 Insomuch that they brought forth the sick into ‖ the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at lest the n shadow of Peter passing by, might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Ierusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 ¶ Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is the sect of the Sadducees) and were filled with ‖ indignation,

18 And laid their hands on the apostles, & put them in the common prison.

19 But the o angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said,

20 Go stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of p this life.

21 And when they heard that, they entred into the temple early in the morning, and taught: but the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the counsel together, and all the estate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, & the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the high priest, and the captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison, are standing in the temple, and q teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the counsel, and the high priest asked them,

28 Saying, b Did not we straitly command you, that you should not teach in this name? and behold, we have c filled Ierusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this mans blood upon us.

29 ¶ Then Peter, and d the other apostles answered, and said, We ought to obey God rather then men.

30 e The God of our fathers raised up Iesus whom f ye slew, and * hanged on a tree:

31 Him hath God, g exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Sviour, for to give repentance to Israel, and forgivenesse of sins.

32 And we are his witnesses of these things, and so is also the holy Ghost, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 ¶ When they heard that, they were ‖ cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then stood there up one in the counsel, a Pharisee, named h Gamaliel a doctour of law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little space.

35 And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to your selves, what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For before these dayes rose up Theudas, boasting himself to be some body, to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joyned themselves: who was slain, and all, as many as i obeyed him, were scattered and brought to nought.

37 After this man rose up Iudas of Galilee, in the dayes of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished, and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, refrain from these men, and let them alone, for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought.

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it, lest happily ye be found even to fight against God.

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and k beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the Name of Iesus and let them go.

41 ¶ And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoycing, that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his Name.

42 And dayly in the temple, and in every house, they l ceased not to teach and preach Iesus Christ.

7 For unclean ſpirits, crying with loud voice came out of many that were poſſeſſed with them, and many taken with palſies, and that were lame were healed.

8 And there was great e joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, called Simon, which before time in the ſame city uſed ſorcery, and bewitched the people, f ſaying that himſelf was ſome great one.

10 To whom they all gave heed from the leaſt to the greateſt, Saying, This man is the g great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, becauſe that of long time, he had bewitched them with ſorceries.

12 But when they beleeved Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the Name of Jeſus Chriſt, they were h baptized both men and women.

13 Then Simon him himſelf i believed alſo: and when he was baptized he k continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and ſignes that were done.

14 Now when the apoſtles which were at Jeruſalem, heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they ſent unto them Peter and John.

15 Who when they were come down e prayed for them, that they might receive the holy Ghoſt.

16 For as yet he was fallen upon none of them: onely they were baptized in the Name of the Lord Jeſus.

17 Then by they their hands on them, and they received the holy Ghoſt.

18 And when Simon ſaw that through laying on of l apoſtles hands the holy Ghoſt was given, he offered them l money.

19 Saying, m Give me alſo this power, that on whomſoever I lay hands, he may receive the holy Ghoſt.

20 But Peter ſaid unto him, f thy money periſh with thee, becauſe thou haſt thought that the gift of God may be purchaſed with money.

21 Thou haſt neither part nor lot in this matter, g for thy heart is not right in the ſight of God.

22 h Repent therefore of this thy wickedneſſe and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thine heart may be forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in the i gall of bitterneſſe, and in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then anſwered Simon, and ſaid, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of theſe things which ye have ſpoken, come upon me.

25 And they, when they had teſtified, and preached the word of the Lord, returned unto Jeruſalem, and preached the goſpel in many villages of the Samaritans.

26 And the angel of the Lord ſpake unto Philip, ſaying, Ariſe, and go toward the ſouth, unto the way that goeth down from Jeruſalem unto Gaza which is deſert.

27 And he aroſe, and went, and behold a man of Ethiopia an l eunuch of m great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians who had the charge of all her treaſure, and n had came to Jeruſalem for to worſhip.

28 Was returning, and ſitting in his chariot read Eſaias the prophet.

29 Then the Spirit ſaid to Philip, Go neer, and joyn thy ſelf to this chariot.

30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Eſaias: and ſaid, underſtandeſt thou what thou readeſt?

31 And he ſaid, How can I, except ſome man ſhould guid o me? And he deſired Philip, that he would come up, and ſit with him.

32 The place of the ſcripture, which he read, was this. o he was led as ſheep to the ſlaughter, and like a lamb dumb before the ſheerer, ſo opened he not his mouth:

33 In his p humiliation, his judgment q was taken away, and who ſhall declare his generation? For his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch anſwered Philip, and ſaid, f I pray thee, of whom ſpeaketh the prophet this, of himſelf, or of ſome other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth and began at the ſame ſcripture, and preached unto him Jeſus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water, and the eunuch ſaid, ſee, here is water, what doth hinder me to be baptized.

37 And Philip ſaid, if thou beleeveſt with all thine heart, r thou mayeſt. And he anſwered, and ſaid, s I beleeve that Jeſus Chriſt is the Son of God.

38 And he commanded the chariot to ſtand ſtill: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, the ſpirit of the Lord u caught away Philip, that the eunuch ſaw him no more: and he went on his way x rejoycing.

40 But Philip was found at Azotus: and paſſing thorow he preached in all the cities, till he came to Ceſarea.

15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, n what God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up again into heaven.

17 Now while Peter doubted in himself, what this vision, which he had seen, should mean: behold the men which were sent from Cornelius had made enquiry for Simons house, and stood before the gate.

18 And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there?

22 And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel, to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

AND the Apostles and brethren that were in Judea, heard that the a Gentiles had also b received the word of God.

2 And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision c contended with him.

3 Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

4 But Peter d rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it by order vnto them, saying,

5 I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision, a certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet let down from heaven by f four corners, and it came even to me

6 Upon the which when I had fastned mine eyes, I considered, and saw four footed beasts of the earth, and ‖ wilde beasts, and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

7 And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise Peter. slay and eat.

8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entred into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, what God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

10 And this was done three times, and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And behold immediately, there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent from Cesarea unto me:

12 And the g spirit bad me go with them, nothing doubting; Moreover these six brethren accompanied me, and we entred into the mans house:

13 And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house which stood and said unto him, send men to Joppa, and call for Simon whose sur name is Peter:

14 Who shall tell thee words whereby thou, and all thy house shall be h saved.

15 And as I began to speak, the holy Ghost fell on them, i as on us at the beginning.

16 Then remembred I the word of the Lord, how that he said, * John indeed baptized with water: but ye shall be baptized with the holy Ghost

17 For as much then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who beleeved on the Lord Jesus Christ what was I that I could withstand God?

18 When they heard these things, they held their peace, and a glorified God, saying, then hath God also to the b Gentiles, granted repentance unto life

19 ¶ b Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Steven, c travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none, but unto the Jews onely.

20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and d Cyrene, which when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Grecians, preaching the e Lord Jesus.

21 And f the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number beleeved, and turned unto the Lord

22 ¶ Then tidings of these things f came g unto the eares of the Church which was in Jerusalem, and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch.

23 Who when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord.

24 For he was a good man, and full of the holy Ghost, i and of faith, and much people was added unto the Lord.

25 Then departed Barnabas, to Tarsus to seek Saul.

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to passe, that a whole yeer they assembled themselves ‖ with the church and taught much people, and the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

27 ¶ And in these dayes came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch.

28 And there stood up one of them, l named Agabus, and m signified by the spirit, that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to passe in the dayes of Claudius Cesar.

29 Then the disciples n every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judea.

30 Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of p Barnabas, and Saul.

18 Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of ‖ world.

19 Wherefore my ſentence is, n that we trouble not them which from among the Gentiles are turned to God.

20 But that we write unto them o that they abſtain from ‖ pollutions of p idols, and from fornication, and from things ſtrangled, and from blood.

23 And wrote letters by them after this manner. The apoſtles, and elders, and brethren, ſend greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch, and Syria, and Cilicia.

24 Foraſmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, ‖ ſubverting your ſouls, ſaying, Ye muſt be circumciſed, and keep the law, to whom we gave no ſuch commandment;

25 It ſeemed good unto us, being aſſembled with one accord, to ſend choſen men unto you, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,

26 Men that † have hazarded their lives q for the Name of our Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

27 We have ſent therefore Judas and Silas, who ſhall alſo tell you the ſame things by mouth.

29 That ye abſtain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things ſtrangled, and from fornication; from which if ye keep your ſelves, ye ſhall do well. Fare ye well.

30 So when they were diſmiſſed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epiſtle.

31 Which when they had read, they rejoyced for the ‖ conſolation.

32 And Judas and Silas, being, b prophets alſo themſelves, exhorted the brethren with many words, and c confirmed them

33 And after they had ‖ tarried there a ſpace, they were let go in peace from the brethren unto the apoſtles.

34 Notwithſtanding it pleaſed Silas to abide there ſtill.

35 Paul alſo and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching r the word of the Lord, with many others alſo.

35 ¶ And ſome dayes after, Paul ſaid unto Barnabas, Let us go again and viſit our brethren, in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and ſee how they do.

37 And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whoſe ſirname was Mark.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, c who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.

39 And the ‖ contention was ſo ſharp between them, that they departed aſunder one from the other, and ſo Barnabas took Mark, and ſailed unto Cyprus.

40 And Paul choſe Silas, and departed, being recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God.

41 d And he went thoro s Syria, and Cilicia, confirming the churches.

15 And when she was baptized, and her houſhold, ſhe beſought us, ſaying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my houſe, and abide there. And ſhe conſtrained us.

16 ¶ And it came to paſs as we went to prayer, a certain damoſel poſſeſſed with b a ſpirit of ‖ divination, met us: which brought her maſter much gain by ſooth-ſaying.

17 The ſame followed Paul and us, and cried, ſaying, Theſe men are the ſervants of the moſt high God, which ſhew unto us the way of ſalvation.

18 And this did ſhe many dayes: but i Paul being grieved, turned and ſaid to the ſpirit, I command thee in the Name of Jeſus Chriſt, to come out of her. And he came out the ſame hour.

19 ¶ And when her maſter ſaw that k the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the ‖ market-place unto the rulers.

20 And brought them to the magiſtrates, ſaying, Theſe men being Jews do exceedingly l trouble our city.

21 And teach cuſtoms which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to obſerve, being Romans.

22 And the multitude roſe up together againſt them, and the magiſtrates rent off their clothes, a and commanded to beat them.

25 ¶ And at midnight Paul and Silas b prayed, and ſang praiſes unto God: and the priſoners heard them.

26 And ſuddenly there was a great earthquake, ſo that the foundations of the priſon were ſhaken, and immediately c all the doors were opened, and every ones bands were looſed.

27 And the keeper of the priſon awaking out of his ſleep, and ſeeing the priſon doors open, he drew out his ſword and would have killed himſelf, ſuppoſing that the priſoners had been fled.

28 d But Paul cried with a loud voice, ſaying, Do thy ſelf no harm, for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and ſprang in and came e trembling, and fell f down before Paul and Silas.

30 And brought them out, and ſaid, Sirs, what muſt I do to be ſaved?

31 And they ſaid, Beleeve on the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and thou ſhalt be ſaved g and thine houſe.

32 And they h ſpake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his houſe.

33 And he took them the ſame hour of the night, and waſhed their ſtripes, and was baptized, he, and all his ſtraightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his houſe, he ſet meat before them, and rejoyced, beleeving in God with all his houſe.

35 And when it was day, the magiſtrates ſent the ſergeants, ſaying, i Let thoſe men go.

36 And the keeper of the priſon told this, ſaying to Paul; The magiſtrates have ſent to let you go. Now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul ſaid unto them, They have k beaten us openly uncondemned being Romanes, and have caſt us into priſon, and now do they thruſt us out privily? Nay verily, but let them come themſelves and fetch us out.

38 And the ſergeants told theſe words unto the magiſtrates: and they feared when they heard that they were Romanes.

39 And they came & beſought them, and brought them out, and deſired them to depart out of the city.

40 And they went out of the priſon, and entred into the houſe of Lydia, and when they had ſeen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAP. XVII.

NOw when they had paſſed thorow ‖ Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Theſſalonica, where was a ſynagogue of the Jews.

2 And Paul, a as his manner was, went in unto them, and three ſabbath dayes reaſoned with them b out of the ſcriptures:

3 Opening and alledging, that Chriſt c muſt needs have ſuffered, and riſen again from the dead, & that this Jeſus whom I preach unto you is Chriſt.

4 And ſome of them d beleeved, & conſorted with Paul and Silas: and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

5 ¶ But the Jews which beleeved not, moved with envy, took unto them certain lewd fellows of the e baſer ſort, and gathered a company, and ſet all the city on an uproar, and aſſaulted the houſe of Jaſon, and ſought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they drew Jaſon, and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, f theſe that have turned the world upſide down, are come hither alſo.

7 Whom Jaſon hath received: and g theſe all do contrary to the decrees of Cæſar, ſaying, That there is another king, one Jeſus.

8 And they troubled the people, and the rulers of the city, when they heard theſe things.

9 And when they had taken ſecurity of Jaſon, and of the other, they let them go.

10 ¶ And the brethren immediately ſent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the ſynagogue of the Jews.

11 Theſe were more noble than thoſe in Theſſalonica, in that they received the word with all readineſs of mind, and k ſearched the ſcriptures daily, whether thoſe things were ſo.

12 Therefore many of them beleeved: alſo of honourable women which were Greeks, and of men not a few.

3 And becauſe he was of the ſame craft, he b abode with them, and c wrought: (for by their occupation they were tent-makers.)

4 And he reaſoned in the ſynagogue d every ſabbath, and perſwaded the Jews and the e Greeks.

5 And when Silas and Timotheus were come from Macedonia, Paul was f preſſed in ſpirit, and teſtified to the Jews, that Jeſus was Chriſt.

6 And when they oppoſed themſelves, and blaſphemed, g he ſhook his raiment, and ſaid unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads. I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles.

7 ¶ And he departed thence, and entred into a certain mans houſe, named Juſtus, one that worſhipped God, whoſe houſe joyned hard to the ſynagogue.

8 h And Criſpus the chief ruler of the ſynagogue, believed on the Lord with all his houſe: and many of the Corinthians hearing, believed, and were baptized.

19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entred into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.

20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not.

21 But bad them farwell, saying, I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but I will return again unto you, a if God will; and he sailed from Ephesus.

22 And when he had landed at ‖ Cesarea, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch.

23 And after he had spent some time there he departed, and went over all the country of b Galatia, and Phrygia, in order, c strengthening all the disciples.

24 ¶ d And a certain Jew, named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures came to Ephesus.

25 This man was ‖ instructed in the way of the Lord, and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing onely the baptisme of John.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue, whom when Aquila, and Priscilla had heard, e they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more perfectly.

27 And when he was disposed to passe into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him, who when he was come he p d them much which had beleeved f through grace.

CHAP. XIX.

AND it came to passe, that a while Apollos was at Corinth Paul having passed thorow the upper coasts, came to Ephesus, and finding certain disciples,

2 He said unto them, Have ye received the b holy Ghost since ye beleeved? And they said unto him, we have not so much as heard ‖ whether there be any holy Ghost.

3 And he said unto them, Vnto what then were ye bapt zed? And they said, Vnto c Johns baptisme.

4 Then said Paul, d John verily baptized with the baptisme of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is on Christ Jesus.

5 When they heard this, they were bap ized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had e laid his hands upon them, the holy Ghost came on them, & they f spake g with tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly, for the space of three moneths, disputing and perswading the things concerning a the kingdom of God.

9 But when divers were hardened, b and believed not, but spake evill b of the way before the multitude, he departed from them, and c separated the disciples: disputing daily in the schoole of one Tyrannus.

10 And this continued by the space of two yeers, so that all they which dwelt in Asia, heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And God wrought d special miracles by the hands of Paul:

12 So that from his body were brought unto the sick, handkerchiefs, or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evill spirits went out of them.

13 ¶ Then certain of the ‖ vagabond Jews e exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evill spirits, the Name of the Lord Jesus, saying, we adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so.

15 And the evill spirit answered, and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evill spirit was: leapt on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, f so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus: and fear fell on them all, and the Name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

18 And many that beleeved, came and g confessed, & shewed their deeds.

19 Many also of them which used curious arts, brought their books together, and burned them before all men; and they counted the price of them, and found it ‖ fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 h So mightily grew the word of God, and prevailed.

21 ¶ After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed thorow i Macedonia and k Achaia, to go to Jerusalem saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministred unto him: Timotheus and l Erastus: but he himself m stayed in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no small stir about the way.

24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silver smith, which made ‖ silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen:

25 Whom he called together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath perswaded and turned away much people, saying, that they be no gods which are made with hands.

AND after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples and imbraced them, and departed for to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them b much exhortation, he came into Greece.

3 And there ‖ abode three moneths: and when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

4 And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater a of Berea, and of the Thessalonians Aristarchus, and Secundus, and Gaius b of Derbe, and Timotheus, and of Asia c Tychicus, and Trophimus.

5 These going before tarried for us at d Troas:

6 And we sailed away from e Philippi, after the dayes of f unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five dayes, where we abode seven dayes.

7 And upon the g first day of the week, when the disciples came together b to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow, and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were i many lights in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep, and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, and fell on him, and imbracing him, said, trouble not your selves, for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 And we went before to ship, and sailed unto ‖ Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself so go a foot.

14 And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to † Mitylea.

15 And we sailed thence and came the next day over against Chios, and the next day we arrived at ‖ Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium, and the next day we came to ‖ Miletus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia; for he hasted, if were possible for him to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.

17 ¶ And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know k from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of minde, and with many teares and temptations which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews.

20 l And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publikely, and from house to house,

21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, m repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 And now behold, I go n bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there.

23 Save that the holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying, That bonds for me and afflictions ‖ abide me.

24 o But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto my self: so that I might a finish my course with joy, and the ministery which I have received of the Lord Jesus, fus, to testifie the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 b For I have not shunned to declare unto you c all f counsel of God.

28 ¶ Take heed therefore unto d your selves, and to all the flock, over the which the holy Ghost hath made you overseers to feed the church of God which he hath purchased with his e own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing, shall f grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.

31 Therefore watch, and remember that by the space of g three years, I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able b to build you up, and i to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.

33 I have coveted no mans silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yea, your selves know, k that these hands have ministred unto my necessities, & to them l were with me.

35 l I have shewed you all things, how that so labouring, ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the m words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 ¶ And when he had thus spoken, he n kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, and o fell on Pauls neck, and kissed him.

38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

CHAP. XXI.

AND it came to passe, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto ‖ Coos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto ‖ Patara.

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto a Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed unto Syria, and landed at b Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding disciples, we tarried there seven dayes: who said to Paul through the spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.

5 And when we had accomplished those dayes: we departed, and went our way, and they all a brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we kneeled down b on the shore and prayed.

9 And when we had taken out leave one of another, we took ship, and they returned home again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to ‖ Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next day we that were of Pauls company departed, and came unto c Cesarea: and we entred into the house of d Philip the evangelist, (e which was one of the seven) and abode with him.

9 And the same man had four f daughters, virgins, which g did prophesie.

10 And as we tarried there many dayes, there came down from Judea a certain prophet named h Agabus.

11 And when he was come unto us, i he took Pauls girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem binde the man that oweth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.

12 And when we heard these things both we, & they of the place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep, & to ‖ break mine heart? for I am ready, not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem, for the Name of the Lord Jesus.

14 And when he would not be perswaded, we ceased, saying, k The will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those dayes we took up our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem.

16 There went with us also certain of the disciples of Cesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the day following, Paul went in with us l unto James, and all the elders were present.

19 And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things m God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministery.

20 And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many ‡ thousands of Jews there are which beleeve, and they are n all zealous of the Law.

21 And they are informed of thee that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles, o to forsake Moses, saying, That they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: p we have four men which have a vow on them.

24 Thou take, and purifie thy self with them, and be q at charges with them, that they may a shave their heads: and all may know that those things whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing, but that thou thy self also walkest orderly, and keepest the Law.

25 As touching the Gentiles which beleeve, b we have written and concluded, That they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them, entred into the temple, d to signifie the accomplishment of the dayes of purification, untill that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven dayes were almost ended e the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and f laid hands on him.

28 Crying out, Men of Israel help: this is the man that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place; and further brought Grecks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place.

29 (For they had seen before with him in the city, Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple)

30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple, and forth with the doors were shut.

31 And g as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.

32 Who immediately took souldiers, and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain, and the souldiers, they left beating of Paul.

33 Then the chief captain came neer, and took him, and commanded him to be h bound with two chains, and i demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was that he was born of the souldiers for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, k Away with him.

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain: May I speak unto thee? who said: Canst thou speak Greek?

38 l Art not thou that Egyptian which before these dayes madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderneſſe four thousand men that were murderers?

39 But Paul said, I am a man which am a Jew of m Tarsus a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people.

40 And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckned with the hand unto the people, and when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying.

CHAP. XXII.

MEn, brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence which I make now unto you.

2 (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith,)

3 b I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at d the feet of Gamaliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and was e zealous towards God, as ye all are this day.

4 f And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women:

5 As also the high priest g doth bear me witneſſe, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received h letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there, bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished.

6 And it came to passe, that as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus, about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice, saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, who art thou, Lord? and he said unto me, I am k Jesus of Nazareth whom thou persecutest.

9 And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid: but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, l what shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus, and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus:

12 And one Ananias a devout man according to the law, having a m good report of all the Jews which dwelt there,

13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and n see that just One, and shouldest o heare the voice of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his witneſſe unto all men of p what thou hast seen q and heard.

16 And now why tarriest thou? Arise, and be baptized, and a wash away thy sins, b calling on the Name of the Lord.

17 And it came to passe, that when I was come again to Jerusalem, even c while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance,

18 And saw him saying unto me, Make haſt, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem, for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord they know that I imprisoned, and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty whereof he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands and commanded the chief priests, and all their † councel to appear, and b brought Paul down, and set him before them.

CHAP. XXIII.

AND Paul earnestly beholding the councel, said, Men and brethren, a I have lived in all good conscience b before God until this day.

2 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him, c to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul unto him, * God shall smite thee, thou b whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten c contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by, said, Revilest thou Gods high priest?

5 Then said Paul, ‖ I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: For it is written, d Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were Saducet, and the other Pharisees, he cryed out in the councel, Men and brethren, e I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: f of the hope & resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a diffention between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the g multitude was divided.

8 b For the Sadducees say, that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees ‖ confesse both.

9 And there arose a great cry: and the Scribes that were of the Pharisees part arose, and strove, saying, We finde no evil in this man; but if a spirit, or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God.

10 And when there arose a great diffention, the chief captain fearing left Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the souldiers to go down, and take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good chear, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witnesse also at Rome.

12 And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves † under a curse, saying, That they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more then fourty which had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound our selves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing till we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye with the councel, signifie to the chief captain, that he bring him down to you to morrow, as though ye would enquire somthing more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come neer, are ready to kill him.

16 And when Pauls sisters son heard of their laying in wait, he went and entred into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul † prisoner called me to him, & prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath somthing to say unto thee.

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee, that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into the councel, as though they would enquire fewmhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more then fourty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now are they ready looking for ‖ a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man, that thou hast shewed these things to me.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governour Felix, sendeth greeting.

27 This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: Then came I with an army and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman.

28 And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth unto their councill:

29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death, or of bonds.

30 And when it was told me: how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also, to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

35 I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herods judgement hall.

CHAP. XXIIII.

AND after five dayes Ananias the high priest descended a with the elders, and with a certain Oratour named Tertullus who informed the governour against Paul.

2 And when he was called forth Tertulus began to accuse him, saying. Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietnesse, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence;

3 We accept it always, and in all places, ‖ most noble Felix, with all thankfulnesse.

4 Notwithstanding, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 For we have found this man a † pestilent fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ring-leader of the ‡ sect of the Nazarens.

6 Who also hath gone about to a prophane the temple: Whom we took b and would have judged according to our law.

7 c But the chief captain Lysias came upon us & with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come unto thee, by examining of whom thy ſelf mayest take knowledge of all these things whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented saying, that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the governour had beckned unto him to speak answered: Forasmuch as I do know, that thou hast been of many yeers a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for my self.

11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve dayes since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship.

12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the ſynagogues, nor in the city.

13 Neither can they ‖ prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this d I confesse unto thee, that after the way which † they call heresie, ſo worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law, and the prophets.

15 And have hope toward God, which they themselves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the e just and unjust.

16 And herein do I exercise my ſelf to have always a conſcience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 f Now after many yeers, I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 ‖ Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.

21 Except it be for this one voice that I cried standing among them, b Touching the resurrection of the dead, I am called in question by you this day.

22 And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them and said, when Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermoſt of your matter.

23 And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and so let him a have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance b to minister, or come unto him,

24 And after certain dayes, when Felix came with his wife ‖ Drusilla which was a Jew, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.

25 And as he reasoned of righteousnesse, temperance, and judgement to come, c Felix trembled and answered, Go thy way for this time, when I have a convenient season I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that d money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him, wherefore he sent for him the oftner, and communed with him.

8 While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against e Cesar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Festus willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cesars judgement seat where I ought to be judged, to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them, f I appeal unto Cesar.

17 Therefore when they were come hither without any delay, on the morrow I sat on the judgement seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

17 For therein is the d righteousnesse of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, e The just shall live by faith.

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodlinesse, and unrighteousnesse of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousnesse.

19 Because that which may be known of God, is manifest in them, for God f hath shewed it unto them.

20 For the invisible things of him: from the creation of the world, are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and God-head, so that they are without excuse:

21 Because that when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankfull, but became vain in their ‖ imaginations, and their foolish heart was a darkned.

22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools.

23 And b changed the glory of the uncorruptible God, into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping things:

24 Wherefore God also ‖ gave them up to c uncleanesse ‖ through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves:

25 Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature ‖ more then the Creator, who is blessed for ever, Amen.

26 For this cause God gave them up unto d vile affections, for even their women did change the naturall use into that which is against nature.

27 And e likewise also the men, leaving the naturall use of the woman burned in their lust one towards another, men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was meet.

28 And even as they did not like ‖ to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to ‖ a reprobate minde, to doe those things which are not convenient:

29 Being filled with all unrighteousnesse, fornication, wickednesse, covetousnesse, maliciousnesse, full of f envie, murder, debate, deceit, malignity, whisperers,

30 Backbiters, haters of God, despitefull, proud, boasters, inventers of evil things, disobedient to parents,

31 Without understanding, covenant breakers, without naturall affection, implacable, unmercifull:

32 Who knowing the judgement of God (that they which commit such things are worthy of death) not onely do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

CHAP. II.

THerefore ‖ thou art inexcusable O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thy self: for thou that judgest, doest the same things.

2 ‖ But we are sure that the judgement of God is according to truth, against them which commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the ‖ judgement of God?

4 Or despisest thou the riches of his goodnesse and forbearance, and long suffering, not knowing that the goodnesse of God leadeth thee to ‖ repentance?

5 But after thy hardnesse, and impenitent heart, b treasurest up unto thy self wrath against the a day of wrath, and revelation of the righteous judgement of God:

6 b Who will render to every man according to their deeds:

7 To them, who ‖ by patient continuance in well doing, seek for glory, and honour, and immortality; eternall life.

8 But unto them that are ‖ contentious, and do not obey the c truth but obey unrighteousnesse, indignation, and wrath.

9 ‖ Tribulation, and anguish upon every soul of man that ‖ worketh evil, of the d Jew first, and also of the ‖ Gentile

10 But glory, honour, and peace to every man that ‖ worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the ‖ Gentile.

11 For there is e no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without law, shall also perish without law, and as many as have sinned in the law, shall be judged by the law.

13 For f not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

14 For when the Gentiles which ‖ have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law: these having not the law, are a law unto themselves,

15 Which shew the work of the law written in their hearts, their ‖ conscience also bearing witnesse, and their thoughts ‖ the mean while accusing or else excusing one another.

16 In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ, according to my Gospel.

17 Beh-ld thou art called a Jew, and restest in the law, and makest thy boast of God.

18 And knowest his will, and ‖ approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law.

19 And art confident that thou thy self art a guide of the blinde, a light of them which are in darknesse,

20 An instructer of the foolish, a teacher of babes: which hast the forme of knowledge and of the truth in the law.

21 Thou therefore which teachest another: teachest thou not thy self? thou that preachest a man should not steal, doest thou steal?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, doest thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, doest thou commit sacrilege?

23 Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking of the law dishonourest thou God?

24 For the Name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles, through you, as it is written.

if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.

26 Therefore if the circumcision keep the righteousnesse of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?

27 And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgresse the law?

28 For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:

29 But he is a Jew which is one inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and a not in the letter, whose praise is b not of men but of God.

CHAP. III.

WHat advantage then, hath the Jew, or what profit is there of circumcision?

2 Much every way, ‖ chiefly, because that unto them were committed the a oracles of God.

3 For what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?

4 † God forbid: yea, let God be true, but b every man a liar, as it is written, c That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest d overcome when thou art ‖ judged.

5 But if our unrighteousnesse commend the righteousnesse of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous, who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man.)

6 God forbid: for then how shall God judge the world?

7 For if the truth of God hath more abounded ‖ through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?

8 And not rather as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm, that we say, Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.

9 What then? are we better than they? ‖ No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin.

10 As it is written, There is e none righteous, no not one:

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that f seeketh after God.

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable, there is none that doth † good, no not one.

13 Their g throat is an open sepulchre, with their tongues, they have used deceit, the h poyson of asps is under their lips:

14 i Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitternesse.

15 k Their feet are swift to shed blood:

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways.

17 And the way of peace have they not known:

18 There is no l feare of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what thing soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

20 Therefore by the deeds of the law, there shall no flesh be a justified in his sight: for by the law, is the knowledge of sin.

21 But now the righteousnesse of God without the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets.

22 Even the righteousnesse of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all, and upon all them that believe: for there is no † difference:

23 For all have sinned, and ‖ come short of the b glory of God.

24 Being justified freely by his grace: through the redemption that is in Jesus Christ:

25 Whom God hath ‖ set forth to be a propitiation, through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousnesse for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God.

26 To declare, I say at this time his righteousnesse: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus.

27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude, that a man is justified by faith, without the deeds of the law.

29 Is he the God of the Jewes only? Is he not also of the Gentiles? Yea, of the Gentiles also:

30 Seeing it is one God which shall justifie the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law.

CHAP. IIII.

WHat shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh hath found?

2 For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath wherof to glory, but not before God.

3 For what saith the scripture? Abraham b believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousnes.

4 ‖ Now to him that worketh, is the reward ‖ not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but beleeveth on him that justifieth the ungodly, * his faith is counted for righteousnesse.

6 Even as David also describeth the blessednesse of the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousnesse without works,

7 Saying, a Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

9 Cometh † this blessednesse then upon the circumcision onely, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say, that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousnesse.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And he received the signe of circumcision, a seal of the righteousnesse of the faith, which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe,

I serve, that then be not circumcised; that righteousnesse might be a imputed unto them also:

12 And the father of circumcision, to them who are not of the circumcision onely, but also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet unsircumcised.

13 For the promise that he should be the b heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed through the law but through the righteousnesse of faith.

14 For if they which are of law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect.

15 Because the law ‖worketh wrath: † for where no law is, there is no transgression.

16 c Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace: to the end the promise might ‖ be sure to † all the seed, not to that onely which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all.

17 (As it is written, d I have made thee a father of many nations) ‖ before him whom he believed, even God who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not, as though they were.

18 Who ‖ against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations: according to that which was ‖ spoken, e So shall thy seed be.

19 And being not weak in faith, f he considered not his own body g now dead, when he was about an hundred yeare old, neither yet the deadnesse of Sarahs womb.

20 He ‖ staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief: but was strong in ‖faith, giving glory to God.

21 And being fully perswaded, that ‖ what he had promised, he was able also to perform.

22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousnesse.

23 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him.

24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, ‖ if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord, from the dead;

25 Who was delivered for our † offences, and was raised again for our h justification.

CHAP. V.

THerefore being justified by faith we have peace with God a through our Lord Jesus Christ.

2 a By whom also we have accesse by faith, into this grace wherein we stand and † rejoyce in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not onely so, but we glory in ‖ tribulations also, b knowing that tribulation † worketh patience.

4 And patience experience: and † experience, hope:

5 And hope maketh not ashamed: because the love of God is ‖ shed abroad in our hearts, by the holy Ghost, which is given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without † strength in c due time Christ died for the ungodly.

7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 But God commendeth his love toward us, in that while we were d yet sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved † from wrath through him.

10 For if when we were enemies, we † were reconciled to God, by the death of his son, much more being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.

11 And not onely so, but we also † joy in God, ‖ through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the ‖ atonement.

12 Wherefore, as e by one man sin entred into the world, and death by sin: and so death ‖ passed upon all men † for that all † have sinned.

13 For untill the law sin was in the world: but sin is not † imputed when † there is no law.

14 † Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adams transgression. Who is the figure of him that was to come.

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift: For if through the offence of one many be dead: much more the grace of God, and ‖ gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many.

16 And not as it was ‖ by one that sinned. So is the gift: for the judgement was by one to condemnation: but the free gift is of many offences unto justification.

17 For if ‖ by one mans offence, death reigned by one, much more they which receive abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteousnesse, shall † reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.

18 Therefore as by the offence of one judgement came upon all men to condemnation: even so by the ‖ righteousnesse of one, the free gift came upon all men: unto justification of life.

19 For as by one mans disobedience many were made sinners: so by the obedience of one, shall many be made righteous.

20 Moreover the law entred, that the offence might abound: but where sin abounded, grace did much more abound.

21 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace † reign through righteousnesse unto eternall life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VI.

WHat shall we say then? Shall we † continue in sin, that grace may abound.

2 † God forbid: how shall we that are dead to sin live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not a that ‖ many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ, were baptized into his death.

4 Therefore we † are buried with him by baptisme into death: b that as Christ was raised up from the dead ‖ by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newnesse of life

‖ The Greek word meaneth that we grow up together with Christ as we see mosse ivy and such like grow up by the tree and are nourished with the juyce thereof

5 For if we have been ‖ planted together in the likenesse of his death: we shall be also in the likenesse of his resurrection.

6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin

7 For he that is dead is † freed from sin.

8 Now if we be dead with Christ, we beleeve, that we shall also live with him.

9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead, dieth no more, death hath no more dominion over him.

10 For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise reckon ye also your selves to be dead indeed unto sin: but alive unto God, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

12 Let not sin † reign therefore in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.

13 Neither yeeld ye your members as † instruments of unrighteousnesse unto sin: but yeeld your selves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousnesse unto God.

14 For sin shall not have dominion over you, for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

15 What then? shall we sin because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid.

16 Know ye not, that to whom ye yeeld your selves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto death, or of obedience unto righteousnesse?

17 But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin: but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine, which was delivered to you.

18 Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousnesse.

19 I speake after the manner of men, because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yeelded your members servants to uncleanesse, and to iniquity, unto iniquity: even so now yeeld your members servants to righteousnesse, unto holinesse.

20 For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free † from righteousnesse.

21 What fruit had ye then in those things, whereof ye are now ashamed: for the ‖ end of those things is death.

22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, ye have your fruit ‖ unto holinesse, and the end everlasting life.

23 For the wages of sin is death: but the gift of God is eternall life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAP. VII.

KNow ye not brethren (for I speak to them that know the law) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For the † woman which hath an husband, is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth: but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of the husband.

3 So then, if while her husband liveth, she be married to another she shall be called an adulteresse: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law, so that she is no adulteresse, though she be married to another man.

4 Wherefore my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ, that ye should be married to another: even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring b forth fruit c unto God.

5 For when we were d in the flesh, † the motions of sins which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death.

6 But now we are ‖ delivered from the law, ‖ that being dead wherein we were ‖ held, that we should serve in newnesse of spirit, and not in the e oldnesse of the letter.

7 What shall we say then? is the law sin? God forbid: Nay, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known Lust, except the law had said, f Thou shalt not covet.

8 But sin taking occasion by the ‖ commandment, wrought in me all manner of ‖ concupiscence: for without the law sin was dead.

9 † For I was alive without the law once, but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sin taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy and just, and good.

13 Was that then which is good, ‖ made death unto me? God forbid: But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good: that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin.

15 For that which I do, † I allow not: for a what I would, that do I not: but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law, that it is † good.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know, that in me (that is, in my flesh) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me: but how to perform that which is good, I finde not.

19 For the good that I would, I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 b I finde then a law, that when I would do good, evil is present with me.

‖ The word signifieth one that wrestled with trouble stirs and continuall combats.

CHAP. VIII.

THere is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the spirit.

2 For the law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son, in the likeneſſe of ‖ sinful flesh, and ‖ for sin condemned sin ‖ in the flesh.

4 That the righteouſneſſe of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh but after the spirit.

5 For they that are after the flesh, do minde the things of the flesh: but they that are after the spirit the things of the spirit.

6 For † to be carnally minded, is death: but † to be spiritually minded, is life and peace:

7 Because the carnal minde is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.

8 So then, they that are in the flesh, cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the spirit, if so be that the spirit of God dwell in you. † Now if any man have not the spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And a if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin: but the spirit is life, † because of righteouſneſſe.

11 But if the spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead, dwell in you, the that raised up Christ from the dead, b shall quicken your mortal bodies, by his spirit that dwelleth in you?

12 Therefore brethren, we are debters, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

13 For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the spirit do mortifie the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For as many as are led by the spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to feare: but ye have received the c Spirit of adoption, † whereby we cry Abba, Father.

16 The Spirit it self beareth witneſſe with our spirits that we are the children of God,

17 And if children then heirs, heirs of God, and joynt-heirs with Christ: if so be that we suffer with him that we may also be glorified together.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared † with the glory, which shall be revealed in us.

19 For the earnest expectation of the creature, waiteth for the d manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same ‖ in hope

21 Because the creature it self also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travelleth in pain together, untill now.

23 † And not onely they, but our selves also which have the e first fruits of the Spirit, even we our selves groan within our selves, waiting for the adoption, to wit the redemption of our bodies.

24 For we are saved by hope, but hope that is seen is not hope, for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought, but the Spirit it self maketh intercession for us, with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the minde of the Spirit, because he maketh the intercession for the Saints, according to the will of God.

28 And we know that all things work together for good, to them that love God, to them who are the called, according to his purpose.

29 For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate, to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the first born amongst many brethren.

30 Moreover, whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?

32 He that a spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of Gods elect? It is God that justifieth.

34 Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall ‖ tribulation, or distreſſe, or persecution, or famine, or nakednesse, or perill, or sword?

36 (As it is written, b for thy sake we are killed all the day long, we are accounted as sheep † for the slaughter.

CHAP. X.

BRethren, my hearts desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them record, that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For they being ignorant of Gods righteousnesse, and going about to establish their own righteousnesse, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousnesse of God.

† Gr. to righteousness a Lev.

4 For Christ is the end of the law † for righteousnesse to every one that believeth.

5 For Moses describeth the righteousnesse which is of the law, that a Ezek. man which doth those things shall 20. 11. live by them. Gal. 3.

6 But the righteousnesse which is of faith, speaketh on this wise: b Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? That is, to bring Christ down from above.

b Deut. 30. 12. 7 Or,

7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? That is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.

8 But what saith it? c The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is the word of faith which we preach.

9 That if thou shalt confesse with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt beleeve in thine heart, that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man † beleeveth unto righteousnesse, and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

11 For the scripture saith, d Whosoever beleeveth on him shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no † difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all, is rich unto all that call upon him

13 e For whosoever shall call upon the Name of the Lord shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not beleeved? and how shall they beleeve in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written: f How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias saith, g Lord, who hath beleeved † our report?

17 h So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes, verily, a their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world.

19 But I say, † Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, b I will provoke you to jealousie by them that are no people, c and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Esaias is very bold, and saith, e I was found of them that sought me not: † I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Israel he saith, d All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gain-saying people.

CHAP. XI.

I Say then, hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Wot ye not what the scripture saith † of Elias? how ‖ he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,

3 a Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thy altars and I am left alone, and they seek my † life.

4 But what saith the † answer of God unto him? b I have reserved to my self seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.

5 Even so then † at this present time also d there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

6 e And if by grace, then it is no more of works, otherwise grace is no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace, otherwise work is no more work.

7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for, but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were ‖ blinded.

8 According as it is written f God hath given them the spirit of ‖ slumber, eyes that they should not see; and ears that they should not hear unto this day.

9 And David saith, h Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling block, and a recompence unto them.

10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back alway.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid: But rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousie.

12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles: how much more their fulnesse?

13 For I speak to you Gentiles, in as much as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnifie my ministe.

14 If by any means I may provoke to emulation, them which are my flesh, and might save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be but life from the dead?

16 For if the a first fruit be holy, the lump is also holy; and if b the root be holy, so are the branches.

17 † And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou being a wilde olive-tree wert graffed in † among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatnesse of the olive tree:

18 Boast not against the branches: but if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, the branches were broken off, that I might be graffed in.

20 Well † because of unbelief they were broken off and thou standest by faith. Be not high minded but fear.

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the goodnesse and severity of God: on them which fell, severity; but towards thee, goodnesse, if thou continue in his goodnesse: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.

23 And they also, if they bide not still in unbelief, shall be graffed in: for God is able to graffe them in again.

24 For if thou were cut out of the olive-tree which is wilde by nature, and were graffed † contrary to nature into a good olive-tree: how much more shall these which be the naturall branches, be graffed into their own olive tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery (lest ye should be wise in your own con-

20 b Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? Hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

25 Because the foolishnesse of God is wiser then men: and the weaknesse of God is stronger then men.

26 For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble are called.

27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to ‖ confound the wise: and God hath chosen the weak things of the world, to ‖ confound the things which are mighty.

2 For I ‖ determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 And I was with you in weaknesse and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And my speech, and my preaching was not with a enticing words of mans wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit, and of power:

5 That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

6 Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are b perfect, yet c not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought:

7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom which God ordained before the world unto our glory:

8 Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the † Lord of glory.

9 But as it is written, b Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entred into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

10 But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the † deep things of God.

11 For what man knoweth † things of of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him: Even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

12 Now we have received not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God, that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

13 e Which things also we speak, not in the words which mans wisdom teacheth, but which the holy Ghost teacheth, comparing ‖spiritual things with spiritual.

14 But ‖ the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishnesse unto him: neither can he know them, because they are ‖ spiritually discerned.

15 e But he that is ‖spiritual ‖ judgeth all things, yet he himself is ‖ judged of no man.

16 f For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he ‖ may instruct him? But we have the minde of Christ.

CHAP. III.

AND I, brethren, could not ‖ speak unto you as unto ‖spiritual, but as unto carnal, even as unto a babes in Christ.

2 I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

3 For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, & strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk ‖ as men?

4 For while one saith, I am of Paul, and another, I am of Apollo, are ye not carnal?

5 Who then is Paul? and who is Apollo? but ministers in whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man.

6 I have planted, Apollo watered: but God gave the increase.

7 ‖ So then neither is he that planteth any thing: neither he that watereth: but God that giveth the increase.

8 Now he that planteth, and he that watereth, are one, b and every man shall receive his own reward, according to his own labour.

9 For we are labourers together ‖ with God, ye are Gods ‖ husbandry, ye are Gods building.

10 According to the grace of God which is given unto me, as a wise master-builder I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon: But let every man take heed how he ‖ buildeth thereupon.

11 For other foundation can no man lay, than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

12 Now if any man build on this foundation, gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;

13 Every mans work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it ‖ shall be revealed ‖ by fire, and the fire shall try every mans work of what sort it is.

14 If any mans work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

15 If any mans work shall be burnt, he shall ‖ suffer losse, but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.

16 b Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God ‖ destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.

18 Let no man deceive himself: If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, c let him become a fool, that he may be wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishnesse with God: for it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftinesse.

20 And again, d The Lord knoweth the ‖ thoughts of the wise that they are vain.

21 Therefore let no man glory in men, for all things are yours.

22 Whether Paul, or Apollo, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; e all are yours.

23 And f ye are Christs, and Christ g is Gods.

CHAP. IIII.

LET a man so account of us, as of the ‖ ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.

2 Moreover, ‖ it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very ‖small thing that I should be judged of you, or of mans ‖ judgement: yea, I judge not mine own self.

4 For I know nothing by my self, yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 * Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkenesse, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, I have a in a figure transferred to my self, and to Apollo, for your sakes: that ye might learn in us not ‖ to think of men, above that which is ‖ written, that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.

7 For who ‖ maketh thee to differ from another? And b what hast thou that thou didst not receive it? Now if thou didst receive it, why doest thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

8 Now c ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us, and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were ‖ appointed to death: For we are made a ‖ spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 We are fools for Christs sake, but ye are wise in Christ: We are weak, but ye are strong: ye are honourable, but we are ‖ despised.

11 Even unto this present hour we both hunger and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted; and have no certain dwelling place.

12 d And labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless: ‖ being persecuted, we suffer it.

13 e Being defamed, ‖ we intreat, we are made as the filth of the world, and are the off-scouring of all things unto this day.

CHAP. VII.

NOw † concerning † things whereof ye wrote unto me; It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 Nevertheleſſe, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.

3 Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewiſe alſo the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife hath not power over her own body, but the husband: and likewiſe alſo the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.

5 ‖ Defraud you not one the other, except it be with conſent for a time, that ye may † give your ſelves to faſting and prayer, and † come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency.

6 But I ſpeak this by permiſſion, and not † of commandment.

7 For I would that all men were even as I my ſelf: but every man hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 I ſay therefore to the unmarried and widows: It is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 And unto the married I command yet not I, a but the Lord † Let not the wife depart from her husband:

11 But and if ſhe † depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the reſt ſpeak I, not the Lord, If any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and be pleaſed to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

13 And the woman which hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleaſed to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the unbelieving husband is ſanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is ſanctified by the husband: elſe were your children unclean, b but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbelieving † depart, let him depart: A brother or a ſiſter is not under bondage in ſuch caſes: but God hath called us † to peace.

16 For what knoweſt thou, O wife, whether thou ſhalt ſave thy husband? or how knoweſt thou, O man, whether thou ſhalt ſave thy wife?

17 But as God hath diſtributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, ſo let him walk, and ſo ordain I in all churches.

18 Is any man called being circumciſed? let him not become uncircumciſed? is any called in uncircumciſion? let him not be circumciſed.

19 Circumciſion is nothing, and uncircumciſion is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 Let every man abide in the ſame calling wherein he was called.

21 Art thou called being a ſervant? care not for it: but if thou mayeſt be made free, uſe it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a ſervant, is the Lords † freeman: likewiſe alſo he that is called being free, is Chriſts ſervant.

23 Ye are † bought with a price, d be not ye the ſervants of men.

24 Brethren, let every man wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins. I have no commandment of the Lord, yet I † give my judgement as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.

26 I ſuppoſe therefore that this is † good for the preſent diſtreſſe, I ſay that it is good for a man ſo to be.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? ſeek not to be looſed. Art thou looſed from a wife? ſeek not a wife.

28 But and if thou marry, thou haſt not ſinned, and if a virgin marry, ſhe hath not ſinned, nevertheleſſe, ſuch ſhall have † trouble in the fleſh: but I ſpare you.

29 But this I ſay, brethren, the † time is ſhort, it remaineth, that both they that have wives, be as though they had none:

30 And they that weep, as though they wept not: and they that rejoyce, as though they rejoyced not: and they that buy, as though they poſſeſſed not:

31 And they that uſe this world, as not abuſing it: for the ‖ faſhion of this world a paſſeth away.

32 But I would have you without carefulneſſe. He that is unmarried, careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may pleaſe the Lord.

33 But he that is married, careth for the things that are of the world, how he may pleaſe his wife.

34 There is difference alſo between a wife, and a virgin. the unmarried woman careth for the things of † the Lord, that ſhe may be holy, both in body, & ſpirit: but ſhe that is married, careth for the things of the world, how ſhe may pleaſe her huſband.

35 And this I ſpeak for your own profit, not that I may caſt a ſnare upon you: but for that which is comely, and that you may attend upon the Lord without diſtraction.

36 But if any man think that he behaveth himſelf uncomely toward his virgin, if ſhe paſſe the flower of her age, and need ſo require, let him do what he will, he ſinneth not: let them marry.

37 Nevertheleſſe, he that ſtandeth ſtedfaſt in his heart, having no neceſſity, but hath power over his own will, and hath ſo decreed in his heart, that he will keep his virgin, doth well.

38 So then, he that † giveth her in marriage doth well: but he that giveth her not in marriage, doth better.

39 The † wife is bound by the law, as long as her husband liveth: but if her husband † be dead ſhe is at liberty to be married to whom ſhe will, only in the Lord.

40 But ſhe is happier if ſhe ſo abide, after my judgement: and I think alſo that I have the Spirit of God.

ing of those things that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that d an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.

5 For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven, or in earth (as there be gods many, and lords many:)

6 But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we ‖ in him, and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.

7 Howbeit, there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol unto this hour, eat it as a thing offered unto an idol, and their conscience being weak is defiled.

8 a But meat commendeth us not to God: for neither if we eat, ‖ are we the better: neither if we eat not ‖ are we the worse.

9 But take heed lest by any means this ‖ liberty of yours become a stumbling blocks to them that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee which hast knowledge, sit at meat in the idols temple: shall not the conscience of him which is weak, be † emboldned to eat those things which are offered to idols?

11 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish for whom Christ died?

12 But when ye b sin so against the brethren, and † wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.

13 Wherefore if meat make my brother † to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to ‖ offend.

CHAP. IX

AM I not an apostle? am I not free? a have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are not you my work in the Lord?

2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtlesse I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 Mine † answer to them that do examine me, is this?

4 Have we not power to eat and to drink?

5 Have we not power to lead about a sister a ‖ wife as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

6 Or I only and Barnabas, have not we power to forbear working?

7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 Say I these things † as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

9 For it is written in the law of Moses, b Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn: c doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? for our sakes no doubt this is written: that he that ploweth, should plow in hope: and that he that threshed in hope, should be partaker of his hope.

11 d If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnall things?

12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless, we have not used this power, but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 e Do ye not know, that they which minister about holy things, live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar, are partakers with the altar.

14 Even so hath the Lord ordained, that a they which preach the gospel, ‖ should live of the gospel.

15 But I have used none of these things, neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were † better for me to die, then that any man should make my glorying void.

16 For † though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me, yea, woe is unto me if I preach not the Gospel

17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation of the gospel is ‖ committed unto me.

18 What is my reward then? Verily, that when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without † charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.

19 For though I be free from all men, yet have I made my self servant unto all, that I might gain the more.

20 And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews: to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law.

21 To them that are without laws as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ) that I might gain them that are without law.

22 To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak, † I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the gospels sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you.

24 Know ye not that they which run in a race, run all, but one receiveth the price? so run, that ye may obtain.

25 † And every man that striveth for the mastery, is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown: but we an incorruptible.

26 I therefore so run, not as uncertainly: so fight I, not as one that beateth the aire:

27 But I † keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I my self should be a † cast-away.

ples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things a as they also lusted.
7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them, as it is written; b The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.
8 Neither let us commit fornication as some of them committed, and c fell in one day three and twenty thousand.
9 Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, d and were destroyed of serpents.
10 Neither murmure ye, as some of them also murmured, and were e destroyed of the destroyer.

12 Wherefore let him that ‖ thinketh he standeth, take heed lest he fall.
13 There hath no † temptation taken you, but such as is ‖ common to man: but God is faithfull, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that you are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.
14 Wherefore my deerly beloved, flee from idolatry.
15 I speak as to wise men: judge ye what I say.
16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?
17 For wee being many are one bread, and one body: for wee are all partakers of that one bread.
18 Behold, Israel ‖ after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices, partakers of the altar.
19 What say I then, that the idol is any thing? or that which is offered in sacrifice to g idols is any thing.
20 But I say that h the things which the Gentiles * sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with divels.
21 Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lords table, and of the table of devils.
22 Do we provoke the Lord to jealousie? are we stronger then he?
23 All things are lawfull † for me, but all things † are not expedient, all things are lawfull † for me: but all things edifie not.
24 Let no man seek his own: but every man another wealth.
25 Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience take.
26 For i the earth is the Lords, and the fulnesse thereof.
27 If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go: whatsoever is set before you eat, asking no question for conscience sake.
28 But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake. The earth is the Lords and the fulnesse thereof.
29 Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the others, for why is my liberty judged of another mans conscience?
30 For if I by † grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of, for that for which I give thanks?
31 a Whether therefore ye eat or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God.
32 † Give none offence, neither to the Jewes, nor to the † Gentiles, nor to the church of God.
33 Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

CHAP. XI.

Be ye ‖ followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.
2 a Now I praise you, brethren, that you remember me in all things, and keep the ‖ ordinances as I delivered them to you.
3 But I would have you know, that the b head of every man is Christ: and the head of the woman is the man, and the head of Christ is God.
4 Every man praying, b or prophecying, having his head covered dishonoureth his head.
5 But every woman that prayeth, or c prophesieth with her head uncovered, dishonoureth her head, for that is even all one as if she were shaven.
6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.
7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the d image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.
8 For the man is not of the woman: but the woman of the man.
9 Neither was the man e created for the woman: but the woman for the man.
10 For this cause ought the woman to have power ‖ on her head, f because of the angels.
11 Nevertheless, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man in the Lord.
12 For as the woman is of the man: even so is the man also by the woman: but all things of God.
13 Judge in your selves, is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?
14 Doth not even nature it selfe teach you, that if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?
15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a † covering.
16 But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

2 Ye know that ye were gentiles, ‖ carried away unto these b dumb idols, even as ye were led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand: that no man speaking by the Spirit of God, calleth Jesus ‖ accursed: & that no man can say, that Jesus is the Lord, but by the holy Ghost.

4 Now there are c diversities of gifts but the same Spirit.

5 And there are differences of ‖ administrations, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of ‖ operations, but it is the same God, which worketh all in all.

11 But all these worketh that one and the self-same Spirit, dividing to every man severally, as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body, ‖ so also is Christ.

‖Gr. Greekes.

13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or ‖ Gentiles, whether we be bond or free: and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of ‖ body: is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body: is it therefore not of the body.

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again, the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary.

23 And those members of the body which we think to be less honourable, upon these we ‖ bestow more abundant honour, and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

‖Or, put on.

24 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked.

‖Or, division.

25 That there should be no ‖ schism in the body, but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it: or one member be honoured, all the members rejoyce with it.

27 Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

28 And a God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily ‖ prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, ‖ diversities of tongues.

2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and ‖ understand all ‖ mysteries, and all knowledge, and though I have a all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have † no charity, I am nothing.

† Greek, not charitie.

3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body † to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

† Greek, that I be burned.

4 Charity suffereth long, and is kinde: charity envieth not: charity ‖ vaunteth not it self, is not puffed up

‖ Or, is not rash.

5 Doth not behave it self unseemly; seeketh not her owne, is † not easily provoked, ‖ thinketh no evil.

8 Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail: whether there be tongues, they shall cease: whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophecy in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I ‖ thought as a child, but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see thorow a glasse darkly, but then face to face: now I know in part, but then shall I know, even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three, but the greatest of these is charity.

CHAP. XIIII.

FOllow after charity, and † desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesie.

† Gr. be zealous after or, zealously addicted to them.

2 For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue, speaketh not unto men but unto God: for no man † understandeth him: howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.

† Gr. heareth ‖ Or, in vers fashion.

3 But he that prophesieth, speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue, edifieth himself: but he that prophesieth, edifieth the church.

5 I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth, than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.

6 Now brethren, if I come unto you, speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you, ‖ either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophecying, or by doctrine?

‖ Or, sounds.

7 And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the ‖ sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

‖ Or, tunes.

8 For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battel?

9 So likewise you, except ye utter by the tongue words † easie to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the aire.

† Gr. a significant speech ‖ Or, dumb.

10 There are, it may be so many kindes of voices in the world, & none of them are without ‖ signification.

12 Even so ye, for as much as ye are zealous † of spirituall gifts, seek that ye may excell to the edifying of the church.

† Gr. of spiritus. a Rom. 15. 22. b Mat. 18. 3.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue, pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitfull.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and will pray with understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

16 Else when thou shalt blesse with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned, say, Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well: but the other is not edified.

18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more then you all.

19 Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, then ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren be not children in understanding: howbeit, in malice b be children, but † in understanding be men.

21 In the law it is c written, with men of other tongues, and † other lips will I speak unto this people: and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 Wherefore tongues are for a signe, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe.

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into some place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesie, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned: he is convicted of all, he is judged of all.

25 And thus are the a secrets of his heart made manifest, and so falling down on his face, he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.

26 † How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation: let all things be done unto edifying.

29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the ‖ other b judge.
30 If any thing be revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.
31 For ye may all prophesie one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.
32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.
33 For God is not the author of † confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the Saints.
34 c Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak: but they are commanded to be under obedience: as also saith the d law.
35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.
36 What? came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you only?
37 If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge, that the things that I write unto you, are the commandments of the Lord.
38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.
39 Wherefore brethren, ‖ covet to prophesie, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

CHAP. XV.

MOreover brethren, I declare unto you the gospel, which I preached unto you, which also you have received, and wherein ye stand.
2 By which also ye are saved, if ye ‖ keep in memory † what I preached unto you, unless ye have believed in vain.
3 For I delivered unto you first of all, that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins a according to the scriptures:
4 And that he was buried, and that he arose again the third day b according to the scriptures.
5 And that he was c seen of Cephas, then of the twelve.
6 After that he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once: of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.
7 After that he was seen of James, then of all the apostles.
8 And last of all, he was d seen of me also, as of † one born out of due time.
9 e For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.
10 But by the grace of God I am f what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me, was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: g yet not I, but the grace of God, which was with me.
11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.
12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you, that there is no resurrection of the dead?
13 But if there be b no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen.
14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.
15 Yea and we are found false witnesses of God, because we have testified of God, that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.
16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised.
17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.
18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.
19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, k we are of all men most miserable.
20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become l the first fruits of them that slept.
21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.
22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.
23 But every man in his own order, Christ the first fruits, afterward they that are Christs at his coming.
24 Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God even the Father, when he shall have ‖ put down all rule, and all authority and power.
25 For he must reign, m till he hath put all his enemies under his feet.
26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed, is death.
27 For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith, All things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.
28 And when all things shall be subdued unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.
29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?
30 And why stand we in jeopardy every hour?
31 I Protest by ‖ your rejoycing, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.
32 If ‖ b after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? c Let us eat and drink, for to morrow we die.
33 Be not deceived: † evil communications corrupt good manners.
34 † Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God; I speak this to your shame.
35 But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?
36 Thou fool, that which thou sowest, is not quickened except it die.
37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of sayings wheat or of some other grain.
38 But God giveth it a body, as it hath hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption:

43 It is sown in dishonour, it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power.

44 It is sown † a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written: The first man Adam † was made a living soul; ‖ last Adam was made a † quickening spirit.

46 Howbeit, that was not first which is spiritual: but that which is natural, and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 The first man is of the earth, earthy: The second man is the Lord from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they that are earthy, and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

49 And as we have born the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 ¶ Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdome of God: neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I shew you a mysterie; we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,

52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, a at the last trump (for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed)

53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortall must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortall shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to passe the saying that is written, b Death is swallowed up ‖ in victory.

55 c O death, where is thy sting? O ‖ grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is sin, d and the strength of sin is the law.

57 But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory, ‖ through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, alwayes abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as you know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

3 And when I come, whomsoever you shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring † your ‖ liberality unto Jerusalem.

4 And if it be meet that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come unto you, when I shall passe through Macedonia: for I do passe through Macedonia.

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.

7 For I will not see you now † by the way, but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.

9 For a great doore and effectuall is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.

10 Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without feare: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 Let no man therefore despise him, but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren, but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

13 Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.

14 Let all your things be done with charity.

CHAP. I.

PAul an apostle of Jesus Christ, by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, unto the church of God, which is † at Corinth, with all the Saints which are in all Achaia.

†Gr. in Corinth.

2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

a Ephe. 1. 3. 1 Pet. 1. 3. In the Original it is word for word.

3 a Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the b Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort

4 Who † comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort wherewith we our selves are comforted of God.

5 For as the sufferings of Christ † abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which † is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer; or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing that as you are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For we would not brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble d which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life.

9 But we had the ‖ sentence of death in our selves, that we should not trust in our selves, but in God which raised the dead.

10 Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us:

11 b You also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons, thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

12 For our rejoycing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity, and † godly sincerity, not † with fleshly wisedom, but † by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-wards.

13 For we write none other things unto you, then what you read, or acknowledge, and I trust you shall acknowledge even to the end.

14 As also you have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoycing, even as ye also are ours, in the day of the Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that you might have a second ‖ benefit.

16 And to passe by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judea.

17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightnesse? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be † yea, yea, and nay, nay?

18 But as God is † true, our † word toward you, was not yea, and nay.

19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me, and Sylvanus, and Timotheus, was not yea, and to God nay: but in him was yea

20 For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him, Amen, unto the † glory of God by us.

21 Now he which stablisheth us with you, in Christ, and hath a anointed us, is God:

22 Who hath also sealed us, and given the † earnest of † Spirit in our hearts.

23 Moreover, I call God for a record upon my soul, that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

24 Not for that we have ‖ dominion over your faith, but are ‖ helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

BUt I determined this with my self, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.

2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?

3 And I wrote this same unto you, lest when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice, having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.

4 For out of much affliction, and anguish of heart, I wrote unto you with many tears, not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you.

5 But if any hath caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part: that I may † not overcharge you all.

7 But if the ministration of death † written, and ingraven in stones, was † glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses, for the glory of his countenance, which glory was to be done away,

8 How shall not the ministration of the Spirit be rather glorious?

†Gr. part. †Gr. in this. ‖Or, What, Exod. 2. 33. John 6. 59. Rom. 11. 7. 25. †Gr. turned in a-bout. my hardnesse. d Rom. 10. 4. Gal. 3. 24.

9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousnesse exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious, had no glory in this † respect, by reason of the glory that excelleth.

11 For if that which is done away, † was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.

12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great ‖ plainnes of speech.

13 And not b as Moses, which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:

14 But their c minds were † blinded: for until this day remaineth the same vail untaken away, in the reading of the old testament; which vail is d done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the vail † is upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.

17 Now the Lord is that Spirit, and † where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.

†Gr. having we fainted not. †Gr. Or.

THerefore seeing we † have this ministery, as we have received mercy, we faint not;

2 But have renounced the hidden things of † dishonesty, not walking in craftinesse, nor handling the word of God a deceitfully, but by manifestation of the truth, commending our selves to every mans conscience, in the sight of God.

4 Phil. 1. 15. 16.

3 But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost:

4 In whom the b God of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the † light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the c image of God, should shine unto them.

b John 12. 31. †Gr. the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, c Heb. 1. 3. †Gr. sent to.

5 For we preach not our selves but Christ Jesus the Lord, and our selves your servants for Jesus sake.

6 For God who † commanded the light to shine out of darkenesse, hath shined in our hearts to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God, in the d face of Jesus Christ.

d John 1. 14. ‖Or, in presence of.

7 But we have this treasure in ‖ earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8 We are troubled on every side, yet not † distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;

†Gr. in straits. ‖Or, vessels of these. Matth. 13. 46. †Gr. a word signifies to be so pressed by a throng in a narrow place so that we cannot passibly go out.

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed.

10 Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we which live, are alway delivered unto death for Jesus sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortall flesh.

12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, e I believed, and therefore have I spoken: we also believe, and therefore speak.

‖Or, not altogether without help, or, meanwhile e Psalm 116. 10.

14 Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus, shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many, redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not, but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is f renewed day by day.

f Isaiah 40. 31.

17 For our light affliction which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternall weight of glory;

18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen, are temporall: but the things which are not seen, are eternall.

CHAP. V.

FOr we know, that if our earthly house of this a tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternall in the heavens.

a Job 4. 19. Psalm 39. 12. Job 7. 1.

2 For in this we groan earnestly, desiring to be clothed upon with our house, which is from heaven:

‖ Or, since that †Gr. For that we would not be. 2 Cor. 5. 3. 4

3 If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened † not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.

5 Now he that hath wrought us for the self same thing, is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 There-

6 Therefore we are alwayes confident knowing that whilest we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord.

7 (For we walk by faith, not by sight)

8 We are confident I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore we ‖ labour, that whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.

10 For we must † all appear before the judgement seat of Christ, that every one may receive the things † done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the terrour of the Lord, we perswade men; but we are made manifest unto God, and I trust also, are made manifest in your consciences.

12 For we commend not our selves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that you may have somewhat to answer them, which glory in appearance, and not in heart

13 For whether we be besides our selves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is † for your cause.

14 For the love of Christ † constraineth us, because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:

15 And that he died for all, that they which live, should not hereafter live unto themselves, but unto him which died for them, and rose again.

16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have † known Christ after the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more.

17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, ‖ he is a new creature: * old things are past away, behold, all things are † become new.

18 And all things are of God, a who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation,

19 To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them, and hath † committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are ambassadours for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us; we pray you † in Christs stead, be ye reconciled to God

21 For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin, that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

CHAP. VI.

WE then as workers together with him, beseech you also, that ye receive not the grace of God in vain:

2 (For he saith, * I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time, behold, now is the day of salvation)

3 a Giving no offence in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:

4 But in all things † approving our selves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings.

6 † By pureness, † by knowledge, † by long-suffering, † by kindness, † by the holy Ghost, † by love unfeigned,

7 † By the word of truth, † by the power of God, by the † armour of righteousness, on the right hand, and on the left,

8 By † honour and dishonour, by evil report, and good report, as deceivers, and yet true:

9 As unknown, and yet † well known: as dying, and behold, we live: as chastened, and not killed:

10 As † sorrowful, yet alway rejoycing: as poor, yet making many rich: as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitned in us, but ye are straitned in your own bowels.

13 Now † for a recompence in the same (I speak as unto my children) be ye also enlarged.

14 Be ye not † unequally yoked together with unbelievers: † for what † fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

15 And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?

16 And what agreement hath the b temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God, as God hath said, * I will dwell in them, and walk in them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 * Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing, and I will receive you,

18 * And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters saith the Lord Almighty.

CHAP. VII.

HAving therefore these promises (dearly beloved) let us cleanse ‖ our selves from all † filthiness of the flesh and spirit, † perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 a Receive us, we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

3 I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that you are in our hearts to die, and live with you.

4 Great is my boldness † of speech toward you, great is † my glorying of you, I am filled with comfort, I am † exceeding joyful in all our tribulations.

5 For when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were † troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless, God that comforteth those that are † cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus.

7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your † fervent mind toward me, so that I rejoyced the more.

3 For to their power (I bear record) yea, and beyond their power, they were willing of themselves:

4 Praying us with much intreaty, that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministring to the Saints.

5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us, by the will of God.

6 Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

7 Therefore (as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us) see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardnesse of others, † and so prove the sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be † rich.

10 And herein I give my advice, for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not onely to do, but also to be † forward a yeer ago.

† Gr. willing.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it, that as there was a readinesse to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which you have.

12 For if there be first a willing minde, it is d accepted according to d Luke 21. 3. that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and you burdened:

14 But by an equality: that now at this time, your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want, that there may be equality.

15 As it is written, He that had e gathered much, had nothing over, and he that had gathered little, had no lack. e Exod. 16. 18.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

CHAP. X.

NOw I Paul my self beseech you by the meeknesse and gentlenesse of Christ who ‖ in presence am † base among you, but being absent, am bold toward you:

2 But I beseech you that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us, as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we † walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:

4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnall, but a mighty through God, to the pulling down of strong holds:)

5 Casting down ‖ imaginations, and † every high thing that exalteth it self against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of † Christ.

6 And having in a readinesse to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

7 Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christs, let him of himself think this again, that as he is Christs, even so are we Christs.

8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority (which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction) I should not be ashamed.

9 That I may not seem as if I could terrify you by letters.

10 For his letters (say they) are weighty and powerful, but his † bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.

11 Let such an one think this, that his body such as we are in word by letters is weak when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

12 For we dare not make our selves of the number, or compare our selves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves † by themselves, and comparing themselves † amongst themselves, ‖ are not wise.

13 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the ‖ rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you

14 For we stretch not out our selves beyond our measure as though we reached not unto you. for we are come as far as to you also, in preaching the gospel of Christ,

15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, † of other mens labours, but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be ‖ enlarged by you, according to our rule abundantly,

16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another mans ‖ line of things made ready to our hand:

17 * But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

18 For, not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom a the Lord commendeth.

CHAP. XI.

2 For I am jealous over you with † godly jealousie: for I have ‖ espoused you to one husband that I may present you as a chast virgin to Christ.

3 But I feare lest by any meanes, as § serpent beguiled Eve ‖ through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth e another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not received, ye might well bear with him.

5 For I ‖ suppose, I was not a whit behinde the very † chiefest apostles.

6 But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge, but we have been throughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed an offence in abasing my self that you might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely.

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me, the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied, and in all things I have kept my self from being burdensome to you, and so will I keep my self.

13 For such are false apostles, deceitful ‖ workers, † transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvell, for Satan himself is transformed into an a angel of light.

29 b Who is weak, & I am not weak? † who is offended, and I burn not?

30 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.

32 a In Damascus the governour under Aretas the king, kept the city with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me.

33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAP. XII.

IT is not expedient for me, doubtlesse, to glory, † I will come to a visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 ‖ I knew a man in Christ above fourteen yeers ago, whether in the body, I cannot tell, or whether out of the body, I cannot tell, God knoweth: such a one caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I knew such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell, God knoweth.)

4 How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard † unspeakable words, which it is not ‖ lawfull for a man to utter.

5 Of such a one will I glory, yet of my self I will not glory, but in mine infirmities.

6 For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool: For I will say the truth. But now I forbeare, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a ‖ thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weaknesse. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore † I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christs sake: for when I am weak, b then am I strong.

11 I am become a fool in glorying, ye have compelled me. For I ought to have been commended of you, for in nothing † am I behind the very chiefest Apostles, though I be nothing.

12 Truly the signes of an Apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signes, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 For what is it wherein ye were inferiour to other churches, except it be that I my self was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not yours, but c you; for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And I will very gladly spend and be spent for † you, though the more abundantly I love you, the lesse I be loved.

16 But be it so: I did not burden you: nevertheless being crafty, I caught you with guile.

17 Did I † make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 I desired Titus: and with him I sent a brother: did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 Again, think ye that we excuse our selves unto you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.

20 For I fear lest when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wrathes, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:

21 And lest when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleannesse and fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

13 This is the third time I come to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

2 I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that if I come again, I will not spare:

3 Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you.

4 For though he was crucified through weaknesse, yet he liveth by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.

5 Examine your selves whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Iesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

6 But I trust that ye shall know that we are not reprobates.

7 Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates.

8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we are glad when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even your perfection.

10 Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpnesse, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.

11 Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace, and the God of love and peace shall be with you.

12 Greet one another with a holy kiss.

13 All the saints salute you.

3 For I testifie again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debter to do the whole law.

4 Christ is become of no effect unto you: whosoever of you are c justified by the law: ye are fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith

6 For d in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing nor uncircumcision, but e faith which worketh by love.

7 Ye did run well: ‖ who did hinder you, that ye should not obey the truth?

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed ye be not consumed one of another.

16 † This I say then, c Walk in the Spirit, and ‖ ye shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh.

BRethren, ‖ if a man be † overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, † restore such a one in the spirit of meekness, considering thy self, lest thou also be tempted.

2 Bear ye one anothers burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.

3 For if a man think himself to be some thing, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoycing in himself alone, and not in another.

5 For b every man shall bear his own burden.

6 Let him that is taught in the word, communicate unto him that teacheth, in all good things.

7 Be not deceived God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap

8 For he that soweth to his flesh, shall of the flesh reap corruption: but he that soweth to the spirit, shall of the spirit reap life everlasting.

9 And let us not be weary in well doing: for a in due season we shall reap if we faint not.

10 As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the b houshold of faith.

11 Ye see how large a letter I have written unto you with ‖ mine own hand.

12 As many as desire to make a † fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised: only lest they should suffer persecution for the crosse of Christ.

13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised, keep the law, but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should glory, save in the crosse of our Lord Jesus Christ, † by whom the world is crucified unto me, & I unto the world

15 For in Christ Jesus, neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a a new creature.

16 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy and upon the b Israel of God.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ;

21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus,

22 That ye put off, concerning the former conversation, the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;

23 And be a renewed in the spirit of your minde:

24 And that ye b put on the c new man, which after God is created in righteousnesse, and ‖ true holinesse.

25 Wherefore putting away lying, d speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.

26 Be ye angry and sin not, let not the sun go down upon your wrath.

27 Neither give place to the devil.

28 Let him that stole, steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have ‖ to give to him that needeth.

29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good ‖ to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

30 And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

31 Let all bitternesse, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil-speaking be put away from you, with all malice.

32 * And be ye kinde one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christs sake hath forgiven you.

CHAP. V.

BE ye therefore followers of God, as deer children.

2 And a walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet smelling savour.

3 b But fornication, and all uncleanesse, or covetousnesse, let it not be once named amongst you, as becometh saints:

4 Neither ‖ filthinesse, nor foolish talking, ‖ nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.

5 For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ, and of God.

6 Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of ‖ disobedience.

7 Be not ye therefore c partakers with them.

8 For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye d light in the Lord: walk as children of light.

9 (For the fruit of the spirit is in all goodnesse and righteousnesse, and truth)

10 Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord.

11 And have no e fellowship with ‖ unfruitful workes of darknesse, but rather reprove them.

12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

13 But all things that are ‖ reproved, are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest, is light:

14 a Wherefore he saith, b Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall ‖ give thee light.

15 ‡ See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise,

16 ‡ Redeeming the time because the c dayes are evil.

17 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.

18 And be d not drunk with wine, wherein is ‖ excesse: but be filled ‡ with the Spirit,

19 Speaking to your selves in psalms and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord.

20 Giving thanks always for all things unto God, and the Father, in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

21 Submitting your selves one to another in the fear of God.

22 e Wives submit your selves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord.

23 For the husband is the f head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the Saviour of the body.

24 Therefore as the church is ‡ subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

25 Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it:

26 That he might sanctifie & cleanse it with the washing of water, by the word.

27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing: but that it should be holy and without blemish.

28 So ought men to love their wives, as their own bodies: he that loveth his wife, loveth himself.

29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh: but nourisheth & cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church.

30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.

21 ‖ For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shal chuse, I wote not;

23 For I am in a straight betwixt two, having a desire ‖ to depart, and to be with Christ, which is far better.

24 Nevertheless, to abide in the flesh, is more needful for you.

25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all, for your furtherance and joy of faith,

26 That your rejoycing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ † for me, by my coming to you again.

27 b Onely let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one minde striving together for the faith of the gospel.

28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries, which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God.

29 For unto you it is † given in the behalf of Christ, not onely to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake.

30 Having the ‖ same conflict which ye saw in me, and now here to be in me.

CHAP. II.

IF there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the spirit, if any bowels and mercies;

2 Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be alike minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one minde.

3 Let nothing be done through strife, or vain glory, but in lowlinesse of minde let each esteem other better than themselves.

4 † Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 ‖ Let this minde be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6 Who being in the form of God, thought it not a robbery to be equal with God:

7 But made † himself † of no reputation, and took upon him the b form of a servant, and was made in the ‖ likenesse of men.

8 And being found in ‖ fashion as a man, he c humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the crosse.

9 Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a Name which is above every name:

10 That d at the Name of Jesus every knee should bow, ‖ of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth:

11 And that every tongue should confesse that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father:

12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence onely, but now much more in my absence: e work out your own salvation with f fear and trembling.

13 For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do, of his good pleasure.

14 Do all things without murmurings, and disputings:

15 That ye may be blamelesse, and ‖ harmlesse, the sons of God, without rebuke in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ‖ ye shine as lights in the world:

16 Holding forth the word of life, that I may rejoyce in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

17 Yea, and if ‖ I be † offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy and rejoyce with you all

18 For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoyce with me.

19 ‖ But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For ‖ I have no man ‖ like minded who will naturally care for your state.

21 For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christs.

22 But ye know the proof of him, that as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.

23 Him therefore ‖ I hope to send presently, so soon as ‖ I shall see how it will go with me.

24 But ‖ I trust in the Lord, that ‖ also my self shall come shortly.

25 Yet ‖ I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus my brother and companion in labour, and fellow souldier but your messenger, and he that ministred to my wants.

26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heavinesse, because that ye had heard that he had been sick.

27 For indeed he was sick nigh unto death, but God had mercy on him: and not on him only, but on me also, lest ‖ I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 ‖ I sent him therefore the more † carefully, that when ye see him again, ye may rejoyce, and that ‖ I may be the † lesse sorrowfull.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladnesse, and ‖ hold such in reputation:

30 Because for the a work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service toward me.

1 Beware of dogs, beware of a evil workers, beware of the concision.

3 For we are the circumcision which b worship God in the spirit: and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

5 Circumcised the eight day, of the c stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews, as touching the law, d a Pharisee.

6 Concerning zeal, e persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.

8 Yea doubtless, and I count all things but loss, for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ

9 And f be found in him, not having mine own righteousness which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ: the righteousness which is of God by faith.

10 That I may know him, and the g power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

11 If by any means I might attain unto the b resurrection of the dead.

12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also i I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.

13 Brethren, I count not my self to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and † reaching forth unto those things which are before,

14 I press toward the k mark, for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us therefore, as many as be a perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.

17 Brethren, be b followers together of me, and mark them which walk so, as ye have us for an ensample.

18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even c weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:

19 Whose d end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose e glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.)

20 For our conversation is in heaven, from whence also we f look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ:

21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working, whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.

CHAP. III.

Therefore, my brethren, dearly beloved, and longed for, a my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.

2 I beseech Euodias: and beseech Syntiche, that they be of the same minde in the Lord.

3 And I intreat thee also true yokefellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow labourers, b whose names are in the book of life.

4 c Rejoice in the Lord alway: and again I say rejoice.

5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is d at hand.

6 Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God.

7 And the f peace of God which passeth all understanding shall keep your hearts and minds ‖ through Christ Jesus.

8 Finally brethren whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are ‖ honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report: if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9 Those things which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoice ‖ in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me ‖ hath flourished again, wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.

12 I know both how to ‖ be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am ‖ instructed, both to be full, and to be hungry, both to abound, and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things † through Christ which strengtheneth me.

14 Notwithstanding, ye have well done that ye did communicate with my affliction.

15 Now ye Philippians, know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me, ‖ as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.

16 For even in Thessalonica ye sent once & again unto my necessity.

17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.

18 But ‖ I have all, and abound. I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smell, b a sacrifice acceptable, well pleasing to God.

19 But my God shall supply all your need, according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

20 Now unto God, and our Father, be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus: the brethren which are with me greet you.

22 All the saints salute you, chiefly they that are of † Cesars household.

23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

The epistle of PAUL the Apostle to the COLOSSIANS

CHAP. I.

PAul an apostle of Jesus Christ a by the will of God and Timotheus our brother.

2 To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ, which are at Colosse, grace be unto you, and b peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We give thanks c to God, and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you.

4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have d to all the saints.

5 For the e hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel.

6 Which is come unto you, as it is in all the world, & bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth.

7 As ye also learned of Epaphras our dear fellow servant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ:

8 Who also declared unto us your love in the spirit.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will, g in all wisdom and spiritual understanding:

10 That ye might h walk worthy of the Lord ‖ unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God

11 Strengthened with all might according to † his glorious power, unto all patience and long-suffering i with joyfulness

12 Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the † inheritance of the saints in k light.

13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his † dear Son:

14 In whom we have e redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins.

15 Who is the f image of the invisible God, the first born of every creature.

16 For by him were all things created that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers, all things were created by him, and for him.

17 * And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.

18 And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the first born from the dead, that ‖ in all things he might have the preeminence

19 For it pleased the Father, that in him should all fulness dwell

20 And (‖ having made peace through the blood of his cross) by him to reconcile all things unto himself: by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.

21 And you that were sometimes alienated, and enemies † in your mind by wicked works: yet now hath he reconciled,

22 In the body of the flesh, through death, to present you holy and unblameable, and unreprovable in his sight:

23 If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven, whereof I Paul am made a minister.

24 Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you and fill up that which is behinde of the afflictions of b Christ in my flesh, for his bodies sake, which is the church,

25 Whereof I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God, which is given to me for you, † to fulfil the word of God:

26 Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages, and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints

27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ ‖ in you, the hope of glory:

28 Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus.

29 Whereunto I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me † mightily.

CHAP. II.

FOr I would that ye knew what great ‖ conflict I have † for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my ‖ face in the flesh:

2 That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, & unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ.

3 † In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

4 And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.

5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit: joying and beholding your order, and the stedfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him.

7 Rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein † with thanksgiving.

8 Beware lest any man spoil you ‖ through philosophy & vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the ‖ rudiments of the world, and a not after Chriſt.

9 For in him dwelleth all the fulneſſe of the Godhead bodily.

10 And ye are compleat in him, which is the head of all b principality and power.

11 In whom alſo ye are circumciſed with the c circumciſion made without hands, in putting off the body of the ſins of the fleſh, by the circumciſion of Chriſt:

12 d Buried with him in baptiſm, wherein alſo you are riſen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raiſed him from the dead.

13 And you being e dead in your ſins, and the uncircumciſion of your fleſh, hath he quickned together with him, having forgiven you all treſpaſſes.

14 f Bloating out the hand writing of ordinances that was againſt us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his croſs.

15 And having g ſpoiled principalities and powers, he made a ſhew of them openly, triumping over them ‖ in it.

16 Let no man therefore judge you, ‖ in meat, or in drink, or ‖ in reſpect of an holy day, or of the new moon, or of the ſabbath dayes:

17 Which are a ſhadow of things to come, but the body is of Chriſt.

18 Let no man ‖ beguile you of your reward + in a voluntary humility, and worſhipping of angels, intruding into thoſe things which he hath not ſeen, vainly puft up by his fleſhly minde.

19 And not holding the head, from which all the body by joynts & bands having nourithment miniſtred, & knit together, increaſeth with the increaſe of God.

20 Wherefore if ye be dead with Chriſt from the ‖ rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye ‖ ſubject to ordinances?

21 (Touch not, taſte not, handle not:

22 Which all are to periſh with the uſing) after the commandments and doctrines of men?

23 Which things have indeed a ſhew of wiſdom in will-worſhip and humility, and ‖ neglecting of the body, not in any honour to the ſatisfying of the fleſh.

CHAP. III.

IF ye then be riſen with Chriſt, ſeek thoſe things which are above, where Chriſt a ſitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Set your ‖ affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3 For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Chriſt in God.

4 When Chriſt, who is our life, ſhall ‖ appear, then ſhall ye alſo appear with him in glory.

5 Mortifie therefore your b members which are upon the c earth: d fornication, uncleanneſs, + inordinate affection, evil concupiſcence, and e covetouſneſſe, which is idolatry.

6 For which things ſake, the wrath of God cometh on the children of diſobedience.

7 In the which ye alſo walked ſometime, when ye ‖ lived in them.

8 But now ‖ you alſo put off all theſe, anger, wrath, malice, blaſphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

9 Lie not one to another, ſeeing that ye have put off the f old man with his deeds:

10 And have g put on the new man, which is renewed + in knowledge, after the image of him that created him.

11 Where there is neither b Greek nor Jew, circumciſion, nor uncircumciſion, Barbarian, Scythian, bond, nor free: but i Chriſt is all, and in all.

12 Put on therefore (as the elect of God, holy and beloved) bowels of mercies, kindneſſe, humbleneſſe of minde, meekneſſe, long ſuffering,

13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man have a ‖ quarrel againſt any: even as Chriſt forgave you, ſo alſo do ye.

14 And above all theſe things, put on charity, which is the k bond of perfectneſſe.

15 And let the l peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which alſo ye are called in one body: and be ye thankful.

16 Let the word of Chriſt dwell in you richly, in all wiſdom, teaching & admoniſhing one another in pſalms, and hymns, and ſpiritual ſongs, ſinging with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

17 And whatſoever ye do in word or deed, a do all in the Name of the Lord Jeſus, giving thanks to God, and the Father by him.

18 b Wives, ſubmit your ſelves unto your own huſbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

19 c Huſbands, love your wives, and be not bitter againſt them.

20 d Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is well pleaſing unto the Lord.

21 e Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, leſt they be diſcouraged.

22 f Servants, obey in all things your maſters according to the fleſh, not + with eye ſervice, as men pleaſers, but in ſingleneſſe of heart, fearing God.

23 And whatſoever ye do, do it + heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men.

24 Knowing that of the Lord ye ſhall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye ſerve the Lord Chriſt.

25 But he that doth wrong, ſhall receive for the + wrong which he hath done: and g there is no reſpect of perſons.

CHAP. IIII.

MAſters, give unto your ſervants + that which is † juſt and equal, knowing that ye alſo have a Maſter in heaven.

2 a Continue in prayer, and watch in the ſame with thank-giving;

3 Withal, b praying alſo for us, that God would open unto us a c dore of utterance, to ſpeak the myſterie of Chriſt, for which I am alſo in bonds.

i Psal. 24.2. Zech. 8.21. John 4.39.

PAul and Silvanus, and Timotheus unto the church of the a Thessalonians, which is in God the Father, and in the Lord Jesus Christ: grace be unto you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.
2 b We give thanks to God always for you all, c making mention of you in our prayers;
3 Remembring without ceasing, your d work of faith and e labour of love, and f patience of hope † in our Lord Jesus Christ in the sight of God and our Father:
4 Knowing brethren ‖ beloved, your election of God.
5 For our gospel came not unto you in word only but also g in power, and in the holy Ghost, and in much ‖assurance, as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.
6 And ye became h followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the holy Ghost.
7 So that i ye were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia, and Achaia.
8 For k from you sounded out the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia, and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to God ward is spread abroad, so that we need not to speak any thing.
9 For they themselves shew of us what manner of entring in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols, l to serve the living and true God.
10 And m to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus which delivered us from the wrath to come.

k Mat. 24.6. John 17.3. m 2 Pet. 3.12. Psal. 83.7.

CHAP. II.

FOr your selves brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain.
2 But even after that we had suffered before, and were shamefully intreated, as ye know, † at Philippi, we were ‖ bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God † with much contention.
3 For our exhortation was b not of deceit, nor of uncleanesse: nor in † guile:
4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak, not as pleasing men, but God which ‖ trieth our hearts.
5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak of covetousnesse, God is witnesse:
6 Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have ‖ been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.
7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children
8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.
9 For ye remember brethren our labour and travell: for c labouring night and day, because we would not d be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.
10 We are witnesses, and God also, e how holily and justly, and unblameably we behaved our selves among you that believe:
11 As you know how we exhorted and comforted, and † charged every one of you, f as a father doth his children,
12 That ye would g walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.
13 For this cause also thank we

5 For this cauſe when I could no longer forbear, I ſent to know your faith, leſt by ſome meanes the tempter have tempted you, and our labour be in vain.

6 But now when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, deſiring greatly to ſee us, as we alſo to ſee you:

7 Therefore brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and diſtreſſe, by your faith.

‖Or, requeſt, or, beſeech.

FUrthermore then we ‖ beſeech you, brethren, and ‖ exhort you by the Lord Jeſus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk, and to pleaſe God, ſo ye would abound more and more.

4 That every one of you ſhould know how to ‖ poſſeſſe his veſſell in ſanctification and honour.

5 Not in the ‡ luſt of concupiſcence, even as ‡ Gentiles which know not God:

6 That no man go beyond and ‖ defraud his brother ‖ in any matter: becauſe that the Lord is the avenger of all ſuch; as we alſo have forewarned you, and teſtified.

7 For God hath not called us unto uncleanneſſe, but ‡ unto holineſſe.

8 He therefore that ‖ deſpiſeth, deſpiſeth not man but God, who hath alſo given unto us his holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love, ye need not that I write unto you: for ye your ſelves are b taught of God to love one another.

10 And indeed ye do it towards all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we beſeech you, brethren, that ye increaſe more and more:

11 And that ye ſtudy to be quiet, and to do your c own buſineſſe, and to work with your own hands (as we commanded you:)

12 That ye may ‡ walk honeſtly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack ‖ of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren concerning them d which are aſleep: that ye ſorrow not, even as others which have no hope.

14 For if we believe that Jeſus died and roſe again, even ſo e them alſo which ſleep in Jeſus, will God bring with him.

15 For this we ſay unto you ‡ by the word of the Lord, That we which are f alive, and remain unto the coming of the Lord, ſhall not prevent them which are aſleep.

16 For the Lord himſelf ſhall deſcend from heaven with a ſhout, with the voice of the arch-angel, and with the trumpe of God: and the dead in Chriſt ſhall riſe firſt.

17 Then we which are alive and remain, ſhall be caught up together with them in the cloudes, to meet the Lord in the aire: and ſo ſhall we ever be with the Lord.

18 Wherefore ‖ comfort one another with theſe words.

BUt of the a times and the ſeaſons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you:

2 For your ſelves know perfectly, that the b day of the Lord ſo cometh as a thief in the night.

b Mat. 24.43. 2 Pet. 3.10.

3 For when they ſhall ſay, Peace and ſafety: then ſudden deſtruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with childe, and they ſhall not eſcape.

4 But ye, Brethren, are not in darkneſſe, that that day ſhould overtake you as a theef.

5 Yeare all the a children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkneſſe:

6 Therefore let us b not ſleep, as do † others: but let us watch and be ſober.

7 For they that ſleep, ſleep in the night: and they that be drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let us who are of the day, be ſober, c putting on the breſt-plate of faith and love: and for an helmet, the hope of ſalvation.

9 For God hath not appointed us d to wrath: but to † obtain ſalvation by our Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

10 Who died for us, that whether we wake or ſleep, we ſhould live together with him.

11 Wherefore ‖ comfort your ſelves together, and e edifie one another, even as alſo ye do.

12 And we beſeech you brethren to e know them which labour among you and are f over you in the Lord, and admoniſh you:

14 Now we ‖ exhort you, brethren, warn them that are ‖ unruly, comfort the feeble minded, ſupport the weak, be patient towards all men.

CHAP. I.

PAul and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Theſſalonians, a in God our Father, and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt:

2 Grace unto you, and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt.

3 We are bound to thank God alwayes for you brethren, as it is meet, becauſe that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all towards each other aboundeth.

4 So that we our ſelves glory in you in the churches of God, for your patience and faith in all your perſecutions and tribulations that ye endure:

13 But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren, beloved of the Lord: because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation, through sanctification of the spirit, and belief of the truth,
14 Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of the Lord Jesus Christ.
15 Therefore brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word or our epistle.
16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation, and good hope through grace,
17 Comfort your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work.

3 But the Lord is faithfull, who shall stablish you, and keep you from evil.
4 And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do, and will do the things which we command you.
5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into ‖ the patient waiting for Christ.
6 Now we command you, brethren, in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye * withdraw your selves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which ye received of us.
7 For your selves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not our selves disorderly among you.
8 Neither did we eat any mans bread a for nought: but wrought with labour and travell night and day, that we might not be † chargeable to any of you.
9 Not because we have not power, but to make our selves an ensample unto you to follow us.
10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.
11 For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are b busie-bodies.
12 Now them that are such we command, and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietnesse they work, and eat their own bread.
13 But ye, brethren, ‖ be not weary in well doing.
14 And if any man obey not our word, by this epistle, ‖ note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.

CHAP. I.

†Gr. according. Tit. 1. 3. a 1 Cor. 4.14. 15. † Greek, in b Gal. 1.8 9. c Ons. 4. 7. and 6 4. d Tim. 1.4. e 2 Tim. 2.23. Tit. 1.14. & 3.9.

PAul an apostle of Jesus Christ † by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope.
2 Unto Timothie my † own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God our Father, and Jesus Christ our Lord.
3 As I besought thee to abide still † at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they b teach no other doctrine
4 Neither give c heed to fables and endlesse genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith, so do.
5 Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart: and of a good conscience: and of faith unfained.
6 From which some ‖ having swarved, have turned aside unto vain jangling,
7 Desiring to be teachers of the law, understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.
8 But we know that the law is good, a if a man use it lawfully.
9 Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawlesse and disobedient, for the ungodly, and for sinners, for unholy, and profane, for murderers of fathers, and murderers of mothers, for man-slayers,
10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with man kinde, for ‖ men-stealers, for liers, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine.
11 According to the ‖ glorious gospel

pel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me: for that he counted me faithfull, putting me into the ministery.

13 Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecuter, and ‖ injurious. But I obtained mercy because I did it ignorantly, in unbelief,

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant, with faith, and love, which is in Christ Jesus.

15 This is a faithfull saying, and worthy of all acceptation, That Christ Jesus b came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first, Jesus Christ might shew forth all long-suffering, for a patern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto the † eternall, immortall, invisible, the onely wise God, be honour and glory † for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit unto thee son Timothy, according to the prophesies which went before on thee: that thou by them mightest war a good warfare.

19 Holding faith, and a good conscience, which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwrack.

20 Of whom is c Hymeneus and Alexander, whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

CHAP. II.

I † Exhort therefore, that first of all ‖supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for a all men.

2 b For kings, and for all that are in † authority, that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godlinesse and honesty.

3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour.

4 Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the c knowledge of the truth.

5 For there is one God, and one mediatour between God and men, the man Christ Jesus.

6 Who gave himself a a ransom for all, ‖ to be testified in due time.

7 b Whereunto I am ordained a Preacher and an apostle (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not) a c teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefastnesse and sobriety; not with ‖ broidred hair, or gold, or pearles, or costly array.

10 But which becometh women professing godlinesse with good works.

11 Let the woman learn in silence † with all subjection.

12 But d I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be † in silence.

13 For Adam was e first formed, then Eve.

14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.

15 Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childe-bearing, If they continue in faith and charity, and holinesse with sobrietie.

CHAP. III.

THis is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, he desireth a a good work.

2 b A bishop then must be ‖blameles, the husband of one wife, vigilant, b Tit. sober, ‖ of good behaviour, given to 1.6. hospitality, apt to teach.

3 Not † given to wine, no striker; c 1 Cor. not greedy of filthy lucre: but patient, not a brawler, not † covetous: 5.8 Luke

4 One that ruleth well his own 1.6. house, having his children in subjection with all † gravity?

5 (For if a man know not how ‖ to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)

6 Not a ‖ novice lest being lifted up to with pride, he fall into the condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover, he must have a good report of them which are without, lest he fall into reproach, and the snare of the devil.

8 Likewise must the deacons be † grave, not double tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre;

9 Holding the d mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved, then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.

11 Even so must their wives be ‖grave, not slanderers, sober, faithfull in all things.

12 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife ruling their children, and their own houses well.

13 For they that † have used the office of a deacon well, purchase to themselves a good degree, and great † boldnesse in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

14 These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee † shortly.

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou ought'st to behave thy self in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

16 And without controversie, great is the mystery of godlinesse, God was manifest in flesh, justified in the spirit, seen of angels, preached † unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, * received up into glory.

CHAP. III.

NOw the spirit speaketh * expresly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to b seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils:

2 Speaking lies in hypocrisie, having their conscience seared with a hot iron:

4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of theſe things, thou ſhalt be a good miniſter of Jeſus Chriſt, nourished up in the words of faith, and of good doctrine, whereunto thou haſt attained.

7 But refuſe profane and old wives fables, and exerciſe * thy ſelf rather unto godlineſſe.

8 For bodily exerciſe d profiteth ‖ little: but godlineſſe is profitable unto all things, having promiſe of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 This is a faithfull ſaying, and worthy of all acceptation:

10 For therefore we both labour and ſuffer reproach, becauſe we truſt in the living God, who is the e Saviour of all men, ſpecially of thoſe that believe.

11 Theſe things command and teach.

12 Let no man deſpiſe thy youth, but be thou an * example of the believers, in word, in converſation, in charity, in ſpirit, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

14 * Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by proph eſie, with the laying on of the hands of the ‖ presbytery.

15 Meditate upon theſe things, give thy ſelf wholly to them, that thy profiting may appear ‖ to all.

16 Take heed unto thy ſelf, and unto the doctrine: continue in them: for in doing this thou ſhalt both ſave thy ſelf, * and them that hear thee.

CHAP. V.

REbuke not an elder, but intreat him as a father, and the younger men as brethren;

2 The elder women as mothers the younger as ſiſters with all † purity.

3 * Honour widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn firſt to ſhew ‖ piety at home, and to r quite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 Now ſhe that is a widow indeed, and deſolate, truſteth in God, and continueth * in ſupplications and prayers night and day.

6 But ſhe that liveth ‖ in pleaſure, is dead, while ſhe liveth.

7 And theſe things give in charge, that they may be blameleſſe.

8 But if any provide not for his own, and ſpecially for thoſe of his own ‖ houſe, he hath denied the faith, and is worſe then an infidel.

9 Let not a widow be ‖ taken into the number, under threeſcore yeers old, having been the wife of one man,

11 But the younger widows refuſe: for when they have begun to b wax wanton againſt Chriſt, they will marry,

12 Having damnation, becauſe they have caſt off their firſt faith.

13 And withall they learn to be idle, wandring about from houſe to houſe, and not only idle, but tatlers alſo, and b buſie-bodies ſpeaking things which they ought not.

14 I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the houſe, give none occaſion to the adverſary † to ſpeak reproachfully.

15 For ſome are already turned † aſide after Satan.

16 If any man or woman that believeth, have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged, that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

17 Let the e elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, eſpecially they who labour in the word and doctrine.

18 For the ſcripture ſaith, d Thou ſhalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn: and, e The labourer is worthy of his reward.

19 Againſt an elder receive not an accuſation but ‖ before two or three witneſſes.

20 Them that ſin rebuke before all, that others alſo may fear.

21 I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jeſus Chriſt, and the elect angels, that thou obſerve theſe things ‖ without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.

22 Lay hands ſuddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other mens ſins: Keep thy ſelf ‖ pure.

23 Drink no longer water, but uſe a little wine for thy ſtomachs ſake, and thine often infirmities.

TIMOTHIE.

CHAP. I.

PAul an apostle of Jesus Christ, † by the will of God, according to the promise of life, which is in Christ Jesus.

2 To Timothy my dearly a beloved son: grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I thank God whom I serve from my forefathers with † pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day.

4 Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindfull of thy teares, that I may be filled with joy.

5 When I † call to remembrance the unfained faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice: and I am perswaded that in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance, that thou ‖ stir up the a gift of God which is in thee, by the putting on of my hands:

7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear: but of power, and of love, and of a ‖ sound minde.

8 Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner, but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God.

9 Who hath saved us, and called us a with an holy calling, b not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus, before the † world began.

10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who a hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

11 b Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.

12 For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless, I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have ‖ believed, and I am perswaded that † he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.

13 Hold fast the form of † sound words which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love, which is in Christ Jesus.

14 That good thing which was ‖ committed unto thee, keep by the holy Ghost which dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia be turned away from me, of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus, for he oft ‖ refreshed me, and was not ashamed of d my chain.

17 But when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant unto him, that he may finde mercy of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministred unto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAP. II.

THou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And the things that thou hast heard of me ‖ among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithfull men, who shall be able to teach others also.

3 Thou therefore endure ‖ hardnesse as a good souldier of Jesus Christ.

4 No man that warreth, † entangleth himself with the affairs of this life, that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a souldier.

5 And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned except he strive lawfully.

7 Consider what I say, and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David, was raised from the dead, according to my gospel.

9 Wherein I suffer trouble as an evil doer, even unto bonds: but the word of God is a not bound.

10 Therefore I endure all things for the elects sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternall glory.

11 It is a faithfull saying: for if we be a dead with him, we shall also live with him.

12 If we b suffer, we shall also reign with him, if we c deny him, he also will deny us.

13 If we beleeve not, yet he abideth faithfull, he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord, that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study to shew thy self approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, d rightly dividing the word of truth.

16 But shun prophane and vain babblings, for they will increase unto more ungodlinesse.

17 And their word will eate as doth e canker: of whom is Hymeneus and Philetus:

18 Who concerning the truth have ‖ erred, saying that the resurrection is past already, and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless, the foundation of God standeth ‖ sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And let every one that nameth the Name of Christ depart from iniquity.

20 But in f a great house, there are not only vessels of gold, and of silver, but also of wood, and of earth: and f some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 If a man therefore g purge himself from these, he shall be a vessell unto honour, ‖ sanctified, and meet for the masters use, and prepared unto every good work.

22 Flee also youthfull lusts, but follow righteousnesse, faith, charity, peace with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

23 But h foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.

24 And the servant of the Lord must not strive: but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, ‖ patient;

25 In meekenesse instructing those that oppose themselves, if God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth,

26 And that they may † recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are ‖ taken captive by him at his will.

CHAP. III.

THis know also, that in the last dayes † perilous times shall come.

2 For men shall be lovers of their own selves, ‖ covetous, a boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankfull, unholy

3 Without naturall affection, truce-breakers, ‖ false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

4 Traitors, heady, † high-minded, lovers of pleasures more then lovers of God.

5 Having a ‖ form of godlinesse but denying the power thereof: from such turn away.

6 For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts.

7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.

8 Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, ‖ reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall proceed no further: for their ‖ folly shall be manifest unto all men, as theirs also was.

10 But ‖ thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, long-suffering, charity, patience,

11 Persecutions, † afflictions which came unto me at Antiochia, at Iconium, at Lystra, what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me.

12 Yea and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus, ‖ shall suffer persecution.

13 But evil men and seducers shall a wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned, and hast b assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them.

15 And that from b a childe thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation, through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

16 All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousnesse.

17 That the c man of God may be † perfect, ‖ thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

CHAP. IIII.

I Charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the a quick and the dead at his appearing, and his kingdom:

2 Preach the word, be instant in season, out of season, reprove, rebuke, ‖ exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine.

3 For the time will come when they will not endure † sound doctrine, but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears:

4 And they shall turn away their † ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables:

5 But ‖ watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, ‖ make full proof of thy ministery.

PUt them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work:
2 To speak evil of no man, to be no † brawlers, but gentle, shewing meekness unto all men.
3 For we our b selves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.
4 But after that the kindness and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared,
5 c Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the d washing of regeneration, and renewing of the holy Ghost.
6 Which he shed on us † abundantly, through Jesus Christ our Saviour.
7 That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

9 But avoid e foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.

The Epistle of PAUL to PHILEMON.

PAul a a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, unto Philemon our dearly beloved, and fellow labourer,
2 And to our † beloved Apphia, and b Archippus our fellow souldier, and to the church in thy house:
3 Grace to you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.
4 c I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,
5 Hearing of thy love, and faith which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and d toward all Saints.
6 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual † by the acknowledging of every good thing, which is † in you in Christ Jesus.
7 For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the Saints are ‖ refreshed by thee, brother.
8 Wherefore, though I might be much bold in Christ to enjoin thee that which is convenient:
9 Yet for loves sake I rather beseech thee being such a one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.
10 I beseech thee e for my son, † Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my bonds:
11 which in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me:
12 Whom I have sent again: thou therefore receive him, that is mine a own bowels.
13 Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might have ministred unto me in the bonds of the gospel.
14 But without thy minde would I do nothing, that thy benefit should not be, as it were † of necessity, * but willingly.
15 For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for b ever;
16 Not now as a servant, ‖ but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?
17 If thou count me therefore ‖ a partner, receive him as ‖ my self.
18 If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that on mine account.
19 I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I will repay it: † albeit I do not say to thee, how thou owest unto me even thine own self besides.

GOd, who at † sundry times, and in a diverse manners speake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

2 Hath in these b last dayes spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds.

3 c who being the brightnesse of his glory, and the expresse image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high.

4 Being made so much better then the angels as he hath by inheritance obtained a † more excellent name then they.

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time: Thou art a my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, b I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son.

6 And again; when he bringeth in the c first begotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And of the angels he saith, who a maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a scepter of † righteousnesse is the scepter of thy kingdom.

9 Thou hast loved righteousnesse, and hated iniquity, therefore God, even thy God hath anointed thee with the oyl of gladnesse above thy fellows.

* 10 And b thou Lord in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the works of thine hands.

11 They shall perish, but thou remainest: and they all shall wax old as doth a garment.

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed, but thou art the same, and thy yeers shall not fail.

13 But to which of the angels said he at any time,* Sit on my right hand until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

14 Are they not all ministring spirits c sent forth † to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation?

CHAP. II.

THerefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should † let them slip.

2 For if the word spoken by angels were stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward:

3 How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation, which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him

4 God also bearing them witnesse, both with signes and wonders, & with divers miracles, and ‖ gifts of the holy Ghost according to his own will.

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the world to come whereof we speak.

6 But one in a certain place testified saying, b what is man that thou art mindeful of him: or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him a little lower then the angels: thou crownedst him with glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands.

8 Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet: For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not c put under him. But now we see not yet all things † put under him,

9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower then the angels, † for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour, that he by the d grace of God should taste death for every man.

10 For it became him for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the † captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

11 For both he that e sanctifieth, and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren,

12 Saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

13 And again, b I will put my trust in him, and again, c behold, I, and the children which God hath given me.

14 For asmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same, that through death, he might † destroy him that had the d power of death, that is the devil.

15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their life time subject to bond age.

16 For verily † he took not on him of the nature of angels: but he took on him the seed of Abraham.

17 Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest, in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

a Phil. 3. 14.

Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the a heavenly calling, consider the apostle an high priest of our profession Christ Jesus

2 Who was faithfull to him that b appointed him, as also Moses was faithfull in all b his house.

3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory then Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more honour then the house.

4 For every house is builded by some man: but he that built all things is God.

5 And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be ‖ spoken after.

6 But Christ as a Son over his own house, ‖ whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence, and the rejoycing of the hope firm unto the end.

7 Wherefore as the holy Ghost saith, c To day if ye will hear his voice.

8 d Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderneſſe:

9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works fourty yeers.

10 Wherefore I was grieved with that generetion, and said, They do alway erre in their hearts, and they have not known my ways.

11 So I sware in my wrath, † They shall not enter into my rest.

12 Take heed brethren, left there be in any of you an evill heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God, and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.

13 For every one that useth milk, is † unskilful in the word of righteousness; for he is a babe

14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are ‖ of full age, even those who by reason ‖ of use have their senses exercised d to discern both good and evil.

CHAP. VI.

THerefore leaving the ‖ principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go one unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of e repentance from dead works, and of faith towards God.

2 Of the doctrines of ‖ baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of a resurrection of the dead, and of b eternal judgement.

3 And this will we do, c if God permit.

4 For it is d impossible for those who were once e enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the holy f Ghost,

5 And have tasted the g good Word of God, and the h powers of the world to come,

6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an ‖ open shame.

7 For the i earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them ‖ by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God.

8 But that which beareth thorns and briers, is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing, whose end is to be burned.

9 But beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.

10 For God is not k unrighteous to forget your work, and l labour of love which ye have shewed towards his Name, in that ye have ministred to the Saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence, to the full assurance of hope unto the end:

12 That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he sware by himself,

14 Saying, Surely, m blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying, I will multiply thee.

15 And so after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.

16 For men verily swear by the greater, and an oath of confirmation is to them an end of all † strife.

17 Wherein God willing more abundantly to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, † confirmed it by an oath

18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation who have fled for n refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us.

19 Which hope we have as an anker of the soul both sure and stedfast, and which entreth into that within the vail

20 Whither the forerunner is for us entred, even Jesus made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec

CHAP. VII.

FOr this a Melchisedec King of ‖ Salem, Priest of the most high God who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him:

2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all: first being by interpretation * king of righteousness, and after that also king of Salem, which is, king of peace:

3 ‖ Without father, without mother, † without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life: but made like unto the Son of God, abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily a they that are of the sons of Levi who receive the office of the priest hood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:

6 but he whose † descent is not counted from them, received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the b promises.

7 And without all contradiction, the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die, receive tithes: but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham:

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father when Melchisedec met him.

11 If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priest hood (for under it the people received the law) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For the priesthood being ‖ changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law

13 For he of whom these things are spoken, pertaineth to another tribe of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Judah of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning the priesthood.

15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest.

of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an † endlesse life.

17 For he testifieth, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

18 For there is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before, for the weaknesse and unprofitablenesse thereof.

19 For the law made nothing perfect, ‖ but the bringing in of a better hope did, by the which we draw nigh unto God.

20 And in as much as not without an oath he was made priest.

21 (For those priests were made ‖ without an oath, but this with an oath, by him that said unto him * The Lord sware and will not repent, thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.)

22 By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament.

23 And they truly were many priests because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death.

24 But this man because he continueth ever, an ‖ unchangeable priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them ‖ to the uttermost, that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.

26 For such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmlesse, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens.

27 Who needeth not daily, as those a high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did b once, when he offered up himself.

28 For the law maketh men high priests which have infirmity, but the word of the oath which was since the law maketh the Son, who is † consecrated for evermore.

CHAP. VIII.

NOw of the things which we have spoken, this is the ‖ sum: We have such an high priest, who is a set on the right hand of the throne of the Majestie in the heavens;

2 A minister of the ‖ sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts, and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.

4 For if he were on earth he should not be a priest, seeing that b there are priests that offer gifts according to the law;

5 Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was ‖ admonished of God, when he was about to make the tabernacle: For (saith he) c see (saith he) that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount.

6 But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministery, by how much also he is the b Mediatour of a better ‖ covenant, which was established upon c better promises.

7 For if that first covenant had been faultlesse, then should no place have been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault with them, he saith, d Behold, the dayes come (saith the Lord) when I will make a new covenant with the house of e Israel, and the house of Judah.

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt: because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those dayes, saith the Lord, * I will put my laws into their minde, and write them ‖ in their hearts: and † I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people.

11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: For all shall know me, from the least of them to the greatest.

12 For I will be a mercifull to their unrighteousnesse, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

13 In that he said, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old, is ready to † vanish away.

CHAP. IX.

THen verily the first covenant had also ‖ ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.

2 For there was a tabernacle made, the first wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the b shew-bread, which is called the ‖ sanctuary.

3 And after the second vail, the tabernacle which is called the ‖ holiest of all:

4 Which had the † golden censer, and the ark of the covenant, overlaid round about with gold, wherein was a pot of the a golden pot that had manna, and Aarons rod that budded, and the b tables of the covenant.

5 And over it the cherubims of glory shadowing the Mercy-seat: of which we cannot now speak particularly.

6 Now when these things were thus ordained, the priest went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.

7 But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood which he offered for himself, and for the errours of the people.

8 The holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:

9 Which was a figure for the time then present ‖ in which were offered both gifts, and sacrifices that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience,

10 Which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and ‖ carnall ordinances imposed on them untill the time of reformation.

11 But Christ being come an high priest of good things to come by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building:

12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entred in once into the holy place, having attained eternal redemption for us.

13 For if the blood of bulls, and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth, to the ‖ Or, purifying of the flesh.

14 How much more shall the g blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without h spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

15 And for this cause he is the Mediatour of the new testament, that by means of death for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament: they which are called might receive the promise of eternall inheritance.

16 For where a ‖ testament is, there must also of necessity be the a death of the Testatour.

17 For a testament is of force ‖ after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all whilest the testatour liveth.

18 Whereupon neither the first testament was ‖ dedicated without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves, and of b goats with water, and ‖ scarlet wooll, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people,

20 Saying, This is the c blood of the testament which God hath ‖ enjoyned unto you.

21 Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministery.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood: and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these, but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For Christ is not entred into the holy places made with hands, which are the ‖ figures of the true, but into heaven it self, now to appear in the presence of God for us.

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the Holy place, every yeer with blood of others;

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world; but now once in the end of the world, hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And as it is d appointed unto men once to die, but after this the Judgement:

28 So Christ was once ‖ offered to bear the sins of e many, and unto them that f look for him shall he appear the second time without sin, unto g salvation.

CHAP. X.

FOr the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the ‖ very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered yeer by yeer continually make the comers thereunto perfect.

2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered, because that the worshippers once purged, should have had no more conscience of sins?

3 But in those sacrifices there is a a remembrance again made of b sins every yeer.

4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls, and of goats should c take away sins.

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body ‖ hast thou prepared me.

6 In burnt-offerings, and sacrifices for sin, thou hast had no pleasure:

7 Then said I, a Lo, I come, (in the ‖ volume of the book it is written of me) to do thy will, O God:

8 Above when he said, Sacrifice, and offering, and burnt offerings, and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein, which are offered ‖ by the law:

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will (O God.) He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest b standeth daily ministring and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices which can never take away sins.

12 But this man after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sate down on the right hand of God.

13 From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 Whereof the holy Ghost also is a witnesse to us: for after that he had said before,

16 This is the covenant that I will make with them after those dayes, saith the Lord: I will c put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 And their sins and iniquities will ‖ remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

19 Having therefore, brethren, ‖ boldnesse to enter into the holiest, by the blood of Jesus,

20 By a new and living way which he hath ‖ consecrated for us, ‖ through the vail, that is to say, d his flesh.

21 And having an high priest over the house of God:

NOw faith is the ‖ substance of things hoped for, the † evidence of things not seen:

† Gr. reproving.

2 For by it the elders obtained a good report.

3 Through faith we understand that the a worlds were framed by the b word of God, so that things which are seen, were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith c Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Kain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead, ‖ yet speaketh.

5 By faith Enoch was translated, that he should not see death, and was not found, because God had translated him: For before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.

6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God, must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 By faith e Noah being warned of God of things not seen as yet, † moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house, by the which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed, and he went out, not knowing † whither he went

9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in ‖ tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him, of the same promise.

10 For he looked for a city, which hath a foundations, whose builder and maker is God

11 Through faith also Sara, herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a childe when she was past † age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as b dead, so many as the c stars of the skie in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable

13 These all died † in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were perswaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers, and pilgrims on the earth

14 For they that say such things, declare plainly that they seek a countrey.

15 And truly if they had been mindfull of that countrey, from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned:

16 But now they desire a better, that is, an d heavenly: f wherefore God is not ashamed to be called e their God: for he hath † prepared for them a city.

WHerefore seeing we also are a compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us † lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

2 Looking unto Jesus the b † author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him, endured the crosse, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied, and faint in your mindes.

4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation, which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou are rebuked of him:

6 For a whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons: for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye b bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few dayes chastened us after their own pleasure, but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holinesse.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be ‖ joyous, but † grievous: nevertheless afterward it c yeeldeth unto them, which are exercised thereby the peaceable fruit of righteousnesse.

The general epistle of JAMES.

CHAP. I.

JAmes a servant a of God, and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations.

3 b Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But let patience have her ‖ perfect work, c that ye may be perfect, and entire, wanting nothing.

5 If any of you lack wisdom, let him c ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not: and it shall be given him.

6 But let him ask in faith, nothing f wavering, for he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea, driven with the winde, and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 A double minded man g unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree ‖ rejoyce in that he is exalted:

10 But the rich, in that he is made low, a because as the flower of the grasse he shall passe h away.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grasse, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his wayes.

12 c Blessed is the man that indureth temptation: for when he is d tryed, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man e say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with ‖ evil: neither g tempteth he any man.

14 But every man is tempted when he is b drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Do not erre, my beloved brethren.

17 Every good gift, and every perfect gift is i from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no k variablenesse, neither shadow of turning.

18 Of his own l will begat he us, with the word of truth, that we should be a kinde of first fruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore my beloved brethren, let every man be m swift to hear, n slow to speak, n slow to wrath.

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousnesse of God.

21 Wherefore ‖ lay apart all filthinesse, and superfluity of naughtinesse, and receive with meekenesse the ingrafted word, which is able to save your soules.

22 But be ye o doers of the word, and not hearers onely, deceiving your own selves.

23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his naturall face in a glasse.

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his ‖ deed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his owne heart, this mans religion is vain.

27 Pure religion, and undefiled before God, and the Father, is this, to visit the fatherlesse, and widowes in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the p world.

CHAP. II.

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the q Lord of r glory, with b respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your ‖ assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment:

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here ‖ in a good place: and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in your selves, and are become ‖ judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren: Hath not God c chosen the poor of this world, rich in faith, and heirs of ‖ the kingdom, which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppresse you, and draw you before the judgement seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy Name, ‖ by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law, according to the scripture: Thou shalt d love thy neighbour as thy ‖ self, ye do well.

9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law, as transgressours.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

11 For he ‖ that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou e become a transgressour of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

13 For he shall have e judgement without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy, and mercy ‖ rejoyceth against judgement.

16 And one of you ſay unto them, Depart in peace, be you warmed and filled: notwithſtanding ye give them not thoſe things which are needful to the body: what doth it profit?

17 Even ſo faith, if it have not works, is dead being † alone.

18 Yea, a man may ſay, Thou haſt faith, and I have works: ſhew me thy faith † without thy works, and I will ſhew thee my faith f by my works.

19 Thou believeſt that there is one God, thou doſt well: the divels alſo believe, and tremble

20 But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead

21 Was not Abraham our father juſtified by works, when he had offered Iſaac his ſon upon the altar?

22 † Seeſt thou how faith wrought with his works, & by works was faith made perfect?

23 And the ſcripture was fulfilled, which ſaith, * Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteouſneſs: and he was called, The a friend of God.

24 Yeſee then how that by b works a man is juſtified, and not by faith onely.

25 Likewiſe alſo was not c Rahab the harlot juſtified by works, when ſhe had received the meſſengers, and had ſent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the ſpirit is d dead, ſo faith without works is dead alſo.

CHAP. III.

MY brethren, be not many a maſters, knowing that we ſhal receive the greater † condemnation.

2 For in many things we b offend all. If any man offend not in word, the ſame is a perfect man, and able alſo to bridle the whole body.

3 † Behold, we put bits in the horſes mouths, that they may obey us, and we turn about their whole body.

4 Behold alſo the ſhips, which though they be ſo great, & are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a very ſmall helm whitherſoever the governour liſteth.

5 Even ſo the tongue is a little member, and c boaſteth great things: behold, how great † a matter a little fire kindleth.

6 And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: ſo is the tongue amongſt our members, that it defileth the whole body, and ſetteth on fire the courſe of nature, and it is ſet on fire of hell.

7 For every † kinde of beaſts, and of birds, and of ſerpents, and things in the ſea is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankinde.

8 But the tongue can no man tame, it is an unruly evil, d full of deadly poyſon.

9 Therewith bleſſe we God, even the Father: and therewith curſe we men which are made after the e ſimilitude of God

10 Out of the ſame mouth proceedeth bleſſing and curſing: my brethren, theſe things ought not ſo to be

11 Doth a fountain ſend forth at the ſame † place, ſweet water, and bitter.

12 Can the fig-tree, my brethren, f bear olive berries, either a vine figs? ſo can no fountain yield both ſalt water and freſh.

13 Who is a wiſe man, and endued with knowledge among you? † let him ſhew out of a good converſation his works with meekneſſe of wiſedom

14 But if ye have bitter † envying, and ſtrife in your hearts, glory not, and † lie not againſt the truth.

15 This wiſedom deſcendeth not from above, but is f earthly, † g ſenſual h devilish.

16 For where envying and ſtrife is there is † confuſion, and every evil work.

17 But the wiſdom that is from a above, is firſt b pure, then peaceable, gentle, and eaſie to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, † without partiality, and without hypocriſie.

18 And the fruit of righteouſneſs is ſowen in peace of them that make peace.

CHAP. IV.

FRom whence come wars, and † fightings among you? come they not hence, even of your † luſts that war in your members.

2 Ye luſt, and have not, ye kill, and deſire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, becauſe ye aſk not.

3 † Ye aſk, and receive not, becauſe ye aſk amiſſe that ye may conſume it upon your † luſts.

4 Ye b adulterers, and adultereſſes, know ye not that the c friendſhip of the world is enmity with God? whoſoever therefore will be a friend of the world, is the enemy of God.

5 Do ye think that the d ſcripture ſaith in vain, The ſpirit that dwelleth in us luſteth to † envy?

6 But he giveth more † grace, b wherefore he ſaith, * God reſiſteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

7 Submit your ſelves therefore to God: c reſiſt the devil, and he will flee from you.

8 Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you: f cleanſe your hands ye ſinners, and † purifie your hearts, ye double minded.

9 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heavineſſe.

10 Humble your ſelves in the ſight of the Lord, and he ſhall lift you up.

11 Speak not evil one of another (brethren:) he that ſpeaketh evil of his brother, and g judgeth his brother, ſpeaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

12 Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things which are now reported unto you, by them that have preached the gospel unto you, with the f holy Ghost sent down from heaven, which things the angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore † gird up the loins of your minde, be sober, and hope † to the end, for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ:

14 As † obedient children, † not fashioning your selves according to the former lusts, in your ignorance.

15 But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation.

16 Because it is written, a Be ye holy, for I am holy.

17 And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every mans work: passe the time of your b sojourning here in fear.

18 Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver, and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your d fathers.

19 But with the e precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish, and without spot:

20 Who verily was f foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you.

21 Who by him do believe in God that raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory, that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Seeing ye have purified your soules in obeying the truth through the Spirit, unto f unfained love of the brethren: see that ye love one another with a pure heart † fervently.

23 Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, g by the word of God, which h liveth and abideth for ever.

24 ‖ For † all flesh is as grasse, and all the glory of man as the flower of grasse: the grasse withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away.

25 But the word of the Lord endureth for ever: and this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

CHAP. II.

WHerefore laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and evil speakings,

2 As new born babes ‖ desire the sincere milke of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

3 If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious.

4 To whom coming as unto a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious,

5 Ye also as lively stones, † are built up a spirituall house, an holy priesthood to offer up spirituall sacrifice, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

6 Wherefore it is contained in the scripture, * Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious, and he that beleeveth on him, shall not be confounded.

7 Unto you therefore which beleeve ‖ he is precious; but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner:

8 a And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being † disobedient, whereunto also they were appointed.

9 But ye are a c chosen generation, a royall priesthood, an holy nation, a ‖ peculiar people, that ye should shew forth the † praises of him, who hath called you out of darkenesse into his marvellous light:

10 Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God, which had not obtained mercy, but have now obtained mercy.

11 Dearly beloved, I beseech you as † strangers, and pigrims, † abstaine from fleshly lusts, which warre against the soule:

12 g Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles, that ‖ wherein they speak against you as evill doers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorifie God in the day of visitation.

13 Submit your selves to every ordinance of man for the Lords sake, whether it be to the king † as supreame,

14 Or unto governours, as unto them that are sent by him, for the h punishment of evil doers, and for the praise of them that do well.

15 For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may † put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:

16 As free, and not † using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousnesse, but as the servants of God.

17 ‖ Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Feare God. Honour the king.

18 Servants, be subject to your masters with all feare, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the † froward.

19 For this is thank-worthy, if a man † for conscience toward God endure griefe, suffering wrongfully.

20 For what glory is it, if when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is † acceptable with God.

21 For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered † for us, leaving us an i example, that ye should follow his steps:

22 Who did no sinne, neither was guile found in his mouth:

23 Who when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatned not, but ‖ committed himself to him that judgeth righteously.

24 Who his own self k bare our sinnes in his own body ‖ on the tree, that we being dead to sinne, should live unto righteousnesse, by whose stripes ye were healed.

SIMON Peter, a servant, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us, † through the righteousness of † God, and our Saviour Jesus Christ:

2 Grace and peace be multiplied unto you, through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus Christ a our Lord,

3 According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life & godliness, through the knowledge of him that b hath called us ‖ to glory, and virtue:

4 Whereby are given unto us exceeding great, and precious promises, that by these you might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in c the world through lust.

5 And beside this, giving all diligence, adde to your faith, vertue, and to vertue d knowledge,

6 And to knowledge, temperance, and to temperance, patience, and to patience, godliness;

7 And to godliness brotherly kindness, & to brotherly kindness charity.

8 For if these things be in you, and e abound, they make you that ye shall neither † be barren, nor b unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 But he that lacketh these things is blinde, and cannot see far off: and hath forgotten that he was purged from his old sins.

10 Wherefore the rather brethren give diligence to make your calling and election † sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall c never fall:

11 For so an entrance shall be ministred unto you d abundantly, into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

12 Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of these things, e though ye know them, and be stablished in the present truth.

13 Yea I think it ‖ meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up, by putting you in remembrance;

14 Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as * our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me.

15 Moreover, I will endeavour that ye may be able after † my decease, to have these things alwayes in remembrance.

e Acts 4. 12. and 10. 43.

13 I write unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is f from the beginning: I write unto you, young men, because ye have g overcome the wicked one: I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

f John 1 1. g Mat. 6. 13. Rom. 16. 20.

14 I have written unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning: I have written unto you young men, because cause ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.

15 b Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 ‖ For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world.

17 And the i world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doth the will of God, abideth for ever.

18 Little children, it is the † last time: and as ye have heard that Antichrist shall come, even now are there k many Antichrists, whereby we know that it is the last time.

19 They went out from us, but they were l not of us: for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out that they might be made manifest, that they were not all of us.

20 But ye have m an unction from the holy One, and ye know all things.

21 I have n not written unto you, because ye know not the truth: but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.

22 Who is a liar, but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is Antichrist that denieth the Father and the Son.

23 Whosoever o denyeth the Son, the same hath not the Father; ‖ but he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.

24 Let that therefore abide in you which ye have heard from the beginning: if that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.

26 These things b have I written unto you concerning them that seduce you.

27 But the anointing which ye have received of him, abideth in you: and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie: and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him.

28 And now, little children, abide in him; that when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.

29 If ‖ ye know that he is righteous, ‖ ye know that every one which doth righteousness, c is born of him.

CHAP. III.

BEhold what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.

2 Beloved, a now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that when he shall appear, we shall be like him: for we shall see him as he is.

3 And every man that hath this hope ‖ in him, purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

4 Whosoever committeth sinne, c transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.

5 And ye know that he was d manifested e to take away our sins, and in him is no sin.

6 f Whosoever abideth in him, g sinneth not: Whosoever sinneth, hath not seen him, neither known him.

7 Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doth righteousnesse, is h righteous, even as he is righteous.

8 He that committeth sinne, is of the devil: for the devil sinneth from the beginning: for this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.

9 Whosoever is born of God, doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him, and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doth not righteousnesse, is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 For this is the ‖ message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.

12 Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and b slew his brother: and wherefore slew he him? c because his own works were evil, and his brothers righteous.

13 d Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

14 We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren: ‖ he that loveth not his brother abideth in death.

15 e Whosoever hateth his brother, is a murderer, and ye know that no f murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

16 Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

17 But whoso hath this g worlds good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, h how dwelleth the love of God in him?

18 My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue, but in deed and in truth.

19 And hereby we know that we are of the truth: and shall † assure our hearts i before him.

20 For if our heart condemn us, God is k greater than our heart, and l knoweth all things.

21 Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we confidence toward God.

22 And m whatsoever we ask, we receive of him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

23 And this is his commandment, that we should believe on the Name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, n as he gave us commandment.

5 They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the world heareth them.

6 We are of God, he that knoweth God, e heareth us: he that is not of God, heareth not us: hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of errour.

7 Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God: and every one that loveth, is born of God, and knoweth God.

8 He that loveth not, knoweth not God: for God is love.

9 f In this was manifested the love of God towards us, because that God sent his *only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.

10 Herein is love, g not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

12 No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.

13 Hereby know we that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.

14 And h we have seen, and do testifie, that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

15 Whosoever shall i confesse that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.

16 And we have known and beleeved the love that God hath to us. God is love, and he that dwelleth in love, dwelleth in God, and God in him.

17 Herein is † our love made perfect, that we may ‖ have boldnesse in the day of judgement, because as he is, k so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love, but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment: he that feareth, is not made perfect in love.

19 We love him, because he first loved us.

20 If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a lyar. For he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

21 And l this commandment have we from him, that he who loveth God, loveth his brother also.

WHosoever beleeveth that Jesus is the Christ, a is born of God: and every one that b loveth him that begate, loveth him also that is begotten of him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and keep his commandments.

3 For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not c grievous.

4 For whatsoever is born of God, overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even b our faith.

5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that beleeveth that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is he that came by e water and blood, even Jesus Christ, not by water only, but by water and blood: and it is the Spirit that d beareth witnesse, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For e there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the word, and the holy Ghost: and these three are f one.

8 And there are three that bear witnesse in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three † agree in one.

9 If we receive the witnesse of men, the witnesse of God is greater: for this is the witnesse of God, which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He that beleeveth on the Son of God, hath the witnesse in himself: he that beleeveth not God, hath made him a liar, because he beleeveth not the record that God gave of his Son.

11 And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternall life: and this life is in his Son.

12 He that hath the Son, g hath life: and he that hath not the Son of God, hath not life.

13 a These things have I written unto you that beleeve on the Name of the Son of God, that ye may know that ye have eternall life, and that ye may beleeve on the Name of the Son of God.

14 And this is the confidence that we have † in him, that if we aske any thing according to his will, he heareth us.

15 And if we know that he heare us, whatsoever we aske, we know that b we have b the petitions that we desired of him.

16 If any man see his brother sin a sin which is not unto death, d he shall aske, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death: there is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.

17 All unrighteousnesse is sin, and there is a sin not unto death.

18 We know that whosoever is born of God, sinneth not: but he that is begotten of God, keepeth himself, f and that e wicked one toucheth him not.

CHAP. I.

THE revelation of Jeſus Chriſt, which God gave unto him, to ſhew unto his ſervants things which muſt ſhortly come to paſſe, and he ſent, and ſignified it by his a angel unto his b ſervant John:

2 Who c bare record of the word of God, and of the teſtimony of Jeſus Chriſt, and of all things that he d ſaw.

3 Bleſſed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep thoſe things which are written therein, for the † time is at hand.

4 John to the ſeven churches in Aſia. Grace be unto you, and peace from him e which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the ſeven ſpirits which are before his throne:

5 And from Jeſus Chriſt, who is the faithfull witneſſe, and the f firſt begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth: unto him that loved us, g and waſhed us from our ſins in his own blood

6 And hath h made us kings and prieſts unto God and his Father: to him be glory and dominion for ever, and ever. Amen.

7 i Behold, he cometh with clouds, and every eye ſhall ſee him, and they alſo which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth ſhall wail becauſe of him: even ſo, Amen.

8 I am k Alpha and Omega, the beginning, and the ending, ſaith the Lord, which is, and which was, and which is to come, the l Almighty.

9 I John, who alſo am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jeſus Chriſt, was in the ile that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the teſtimony of Jeſus Chriſt.

10 I was in the ſpirit on the Lords day, and heard behinde me a great voice, as of a a trumpet,

11 Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the firſt and the laſt: and what thou ſeeſt, write in a book, and ſend it unto the ſeven churches which are in Aſia, unto Epheſus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea.

12 And I turned to ſee the voice that ſpake with me: and being turned, I ſaw ſeven golden candleſticks,

13 And in the b midſt of the ſeven candleſticks, one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden c girdle.

14 His head, and his hairs were white like wooll, as white as ſnow, and his eyes were as a flame of fire.

15 And his feet like unto fine braſſe, as if they ‖ burned in a furnace: and his voice as the d ſound of many waters.

16 And he had in his e right hand ſeven ſtars: and f out of his mouth went a ſharp two edged ſword: and his countenance was as the ſun ſhineth in his ſtrength.

17 And when I ſaw him, I fell at his feet as dead: and he laid his right hand upon me, ſaying unto me, Fear not, * I am the firſt, and the laſt.

18 I am he that liveth, and g was dead; and behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen, and have the h keys of hell, and of death.

14 But I have a few things against thee, because thou q hast there them that hold the doctrine of * Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication.

15 So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.

16 Repent, or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

17 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches. To him that overcometh, will I give to eat of the a hidden Manna, and will give him a b white stone, and in the stone c a new name written, which no man knoweth, saving he that receiveth it.

19 I know thy works, and † charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works, and the d last to be more then the first.

20 Notwithstanding, I have a few things against thee, because thou suffereſt that woman * Jezebel which calleth her selfe a prophetesse, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols.

21 And I gave her space to repent e of her fornication, and she * repented not.

22 Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her, into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds

23 And I will kill her children with death, and all the churches shall know that * I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give unto every one of you according to your works.

24 But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they ſpake, I will put upon you none f other burden:

25 But that which ye have already, hold fast g till I come

26 And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations.

27 (* And he shall † rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers) even as I received of my Father.

28 And I will give him the h morning star.

29 i He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAP. III.

AND unto the angel of the church in Sardis, write. These things saith he that a hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven ſtars: I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou liveſt, and art dead.

2 b Be watchfull, and ſtrengthen the † things which remain, that are † ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God

3 Remember therefore, how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. * If therefore thou shalt not watch, I a will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 Thou hast a few names even in Sardis, which have not defiled their garments, and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.

5 He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment, and I will not blot out his name out of the * book of life, but I will confeſſe his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia, write. These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth.

8 I know thy works, Behold, I have ſet before thee an open door, and b no man can shut it: for thou hast a little ſtrength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my Name.

9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie: behold, I will make them to come and c worſhip before my feet, and to know that I have loved thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the † word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, d to try them that dwell upon the earth.

11 Behold, I e come quickly, hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

12 Him that overcometh, will I make a f pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and 18 I counsell thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich, and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear, and anoint thine eyes with eye-salve, that thou mayest see.

19 * As many as I love, I ‖ rebuke and chasten; be zealous therefore, and repent.

21 To him that overcometh will I b grant to sit with me in my throne; even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father in his throne.

22 He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

CHAP. IIII.

AFter this I looked, and behold, a door was opened in heaven, and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet, talking with me, which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.

2 And immediately I was in the spirit: and behold, a throne was set in heaven, and b one sat on the throne.

3 And he that sate, was to look upon like a jasper, and a ‖ sardine stone; and there was a rain-bow round about the throne, in sight like unto an emerald.

4 And round about the throne were four and twenty seats, and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders c sitting, clothed in white raiment, and they had on their heads d crowns of gold.

5 And out of the throne proceeded lightnings, and thunderings, and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven spirits of God.

6 And before the throne there was a sea of glasse like unto chrystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne were four beasts full of eyes before and behinde.

7 And the ‖ first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle.

8 And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him, and they were full of eyes within, and they ‖ rest not day and night, saying, * Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.

9 And when those beasts e give glory, and honour, and thanks to him that sate on the throne, who liveth for ever, and ever,

10 The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sate on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

11 * Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory, and honour, and power; for thou hast created all things, and f for thy pleasure they are and were created.

CHAP. V.

AND I saw ‖ in the right hand of him that sate on the throne, a book written within, and on the backside, sealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice: a Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof?

3 And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth was able to open the book, neither to ‖ look thereon.

4 And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open, and to read the book, neither to look thereon.

5 And * one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, b the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof.

6 And I beheld, and lo, in the midst of the throne, and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood c a lamb as it d had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God, sent forth into all the earth.

7 And he came, and took the book out of the ‖ right hand of him that sate upon the throne.

8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts, and four and twenty elders fell down before the lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vialls full of ‖ odours, which are the prayers of Saints.

9 And they sung a e new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast f redeemed us to God by thy blood, out of g every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation:

10 * And hast made us unto our God, kings and priests, and h we shall reign on the earth.

12 Saying g with a loud voice, Worthy is the lamb that was slain, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

13 And l every creature, which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, honour, glory, and power be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

14 And the ‖ four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

CHAP. VI.

AND I saw when the lamb opened ‖ one of the seals, and I heard as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts, saying, Come and ‖ see.

2 And I saw, and behold, a a white horse, and he that b sate on him had a bowe, and a c crown was given unto him, and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see.

4 And there went out another horse that was d red: and power was given to him that sate thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another, and there was given unto him a great e sword.

5 And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he that sate on him had a pair of ballances in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, ‖ A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barly for a penny, and see thou hurt not the oyl and the wine.

7 And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, Come and see.

8 And I looked, and behold, a pale horse: and his name that sate on him was death, and hell followed with him: and power was given ‖ unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the f beasts of the earth.

9 And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held.

10 And they g cryed with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, doest thou not h judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

11 And white robes were given unto every one of them, and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellow servants also and their brethren that should be killed ‖ as they were, should be fulfilled.

12 And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake, and i the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood.

13 And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig tree casteth her ‖ untimely figs when she is shaken of a mighty winde.

14 * And the heaven departed as a ‖ scrol when it is rolled together, and every mountain and iland were moved out of their places.

15 And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bond-man, and every free man k hid themselves in the dens, and in the rocks of the mountains.

16 And said to the mountains and rocks, * Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb.

17 For the a great day of his wrath is come, and b who shall be able to stand?

CHAP. VII.

AND after these things, I saw ‖ four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the winde should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ‖ ascending a from the east, having the seal of the living God; and he cryed with a b loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, c till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads.

4 And I heard the number of them which were sealed, and there were sealed an hundred and fourty and four thousand, of d all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Nephthali were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After this I beheld, and lo a great multitude which e no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and f palms in their hands,

2 With whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the b inhabiters of the earth have been made c drunk with the wine of her fornication.

3 So he carried me away in the spirit into the d wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman was arayed in purple, and scarlet colour, and † decked with gold, and precious stone, and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand, full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication.

5 And upon her forehead was a name written, e MYSTERIE, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE g MOTHER OF HARLOTS, AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw the woman b drunken with the blood of the Saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration

7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvell? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads, and ten horns,

8 The beast that thou sawest, was, and is not, and shall ascend out of the bottomlesse pit, and go into perdition, and they that dwell on the earth, shall wonder (whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world) when they behold the beast that was, and is not ‖ and yet is.

9 And here is the minde which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And there are seven kings, five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come: and when he cometh, he must continue a a short space.

11 And the beast that was and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven and goeth into perdition.

12 And the b ten horns which thou sawest, are c ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet: but receive power as kings ‖ one hour with the beast.

13 These have one minde, and shall give their ‖ power and strength unto the beast.

14 These shall make warr with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: * For he is Lord of lords, and King of kings and they that are with him, are d called, and chosen, & faithful

15 And he saith unto me, the e waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues

16 And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall ‖ hate the whore, and shall make her desolate, and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and f burn her with fire.

17 For g God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree and give their kingdom unto the beast untill the words of God shall be fulfilled.

18 And the woman which thou sawest, is that great city which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

AND I saw an a angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomlesse pit, and a b great chain in his hand.

2 And he laid hold on the dragon that old serpent, which is the devil and Satan, and bound him a thousand years,

3 And cast him into the bottomlesse pit, and shut him up, and c set a seal upon him, that he should d deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw thrones, and they sate upon them, and judgement was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witnesse of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands, and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

5 But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 Blessed and holy is he that hath a part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be b priests of God, and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are expired, Satan shall be c loosed out of his prison,

4 * And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes: and there shall be d no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying; neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

5 And he that sate upon the throne said, * Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write, for these words are true and faithfull.

6 And he said unto me, † It is done: * I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. * I will give unto him that is athirst, of the b fountain of the water of life freely.
